Major Hennrikus Leaves for 2 Years Overseas Duty

Maj. George F. Hennrikus, USA, of 958 Boylston street, Newton Highlands, past commander of Newton Post, American Legion, and member of the Newton police force on military leave of absence, is leaving next week for two years' duty overseas.

A member of the 116th Military Police Detachment he is stationed at present at North Tarrytown, New York, and on Thursday, August 8 will report to Camp Kilmer, New Jersey. Mrs. Hennrikus and three of his four sons, John 16, William 14 and Paul 9, who are with him in New York, plan to join him in Germany a few months after his arrival there. Another son, George F. Jr., who served overseas as a bombardier in the Air Corps, resides with his family at 10 Elliot Terrace, Newton Upper Falls.

$10,000 Fire Damage In Newton Centre

Damage to the extent of $10,000 resulted from a fire in the home of John F. Hunt of 15 Hampden terrace, Newton Centre on Wednesday morning.

There was no one at home in the house when the fire was discovered by a letter carrier who notified a neighbor, and a telephone call was sent to Fire Headquarters. Engines 3, 4, 9 and Ladder 2 responded to the call at 10:08 a. m. and although the blaze was quickly brought under control it was after the noon hour before the all-out could be sound.

Elks Plan Second Annual Circus

At the meeting of Newton Lodge of Elks on last Thursday night a committee was appointed to formulate plans for the second annual circus to be held by the Newton Lodge at Norumbega Park, September 1 to 7. Members of the committee are John J. Keefe, chairman; Nicholas V. Vedeccio, D. Walter Kearns, Thomas J. Lyons, Wallace McPherson, Wilfred Chagnon, Clarence Hughes and Bernard F. Hatfield.

A letter was read from Major General H. W. Gilbert of the U. S. Army appealing for recruits for the armed forces.

A social hour followed under the direction of George Delaney. The next meeting of the lodge will be on August 22nd.

Aldermen Approve Installation of Traffic Lights

The installation of traffic lights at Washington, Putnam and Elm streets, West Newton, requested in a petition signed by 48 residents of the south side of the area, has been approved by the Newton Board of Aldermen who have adopted the necessary ordinance covering the same. The ordinance, however, will not become effective until approved by the State Department of Public Works.

An appropriation for the installation of the traffic lights must also be recommended by the mayor before the Board of Aldermen can act upon it.

The Citizens Advisory Committee for Returning Service Men is conducting a survey throughout the city to determine how many owners of large single houses are willing to convert them into two-family houses in order to relieve the housing shortage.

The survey is under the general supervision of Roy S. Edwards, chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee and John F. Wheelock, executive secretary. George Klein of Waban, a college student, has been engaged to carry on during the summer, and he will be assisted by teams composed of representatives of the American Veterans Committee, the American Legion and other veterans' organizations. The workers will make personal calls on the owners of houses that are large enough to be converted into two family dwellings. Those working on the survey obtain information regarding these houses from the records in the Assessors' Office.

Mrs. F. B. Harris Appointed Red Cross Executive

MRS. FRANCES B. HARRIS

The Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross announces the appointment of Mrs. Frances B. Harris, formerly of Worcester, as Executive Secretary. Mrs. Harris has had a wide experience in various phases of Red Cross Chapter work which should prove most helpful in the local program. In 1941, Mrs. Harris was active in production work in the city of Detroit. Moving to Worcester in 1942, she was made Lay Chairman of the Nurse Recruitment committee, which position she held until 1944. During that period she was a member of the National Red Cross Nursing committee and also served on the Board of Directors of the Worcester Chapter.

In August, 1944, as chairman of entertainment for the Camp and Hospital committee, Mrs. Harris organized entertainment from Worcester and Worcester County for the three Lovell Hospitals at Fort Devens and Cushing General. Last September she resigned to take a position on the staff of the Worcester Chapter as Assistant to the Executive Director in charge of 31 towns.

Mrs. Harris is assuming her new duties as of August 1. Her office will be located at the Newton Chapter House, 21 Foster street, Newtonville.

Miss Louise Jefferson, former Executive Secretary, has resigned after twenty years of SWIM DEMONSTRATION PARTICIPANTS—Some of the 200 boys and girls who demonstrated Red Cross aquatic activities at Crystal Lake, Newton Centre, recently.

R. C. Water Safety Demonstration at Crystal Lake

On Sunday afternoon, July 28, at Crystal Lake in Newton Centre, the Red Cross sponsored an aquatic program under the direction of Miss Claire McCarthy assisted by Miss Virginia Murphy and Miss Phyllis Moran.

Two hundred boys and girls in the various classes demonstrated the following skills in beginner work: breath holding, rhythmic breathing, prone float, prone glide, back float, back glide, front glide and kick, back glide and kick, combined stroke on front, and diving. The beginner test was demonstrated by Barbara Sheehan and Sheila Duffey.

In the intermediate work the following skills were shown: flutter kick, breast stroke kick, scissor kick with flutter boards, crawl stroke, breast stroke, side stroke, elementary backstroke, turning in a closed course, one minute floating and treading water, ten yards of sculling using hands only, underwater swimming, running front and standing front dive.

Rescue work in life saving was demonstrated by throwing a buoy and swimming with a torpedo buoy. James Hill showed how to locate a submerged victim, bring him to the surface and carry him to safety. He also displayed the effects of a stomach cramp. Disrobing in the water was done by Marilyn Tanner and Mary Kennedy.

A showing of the following carries was given: the head carry, hair carry, cross chest carry and tired swimmer's carry; and also the breaking of four holds.

The program was concluded by the display of the Red Cross flag by water acrobats John Ackley holding Marilyn Tanner and Ronald Jenkins holding Carol Macdonald.

A capacity crowd of five hundred parents and friends evinced great interest in the demonstration.

Mr. Frank Dowcott, chairman of the Newton Red Cross Water Safety Committee, was the honored guest of the afternoon.

Annual Circus at Camp F. A. Day, Saturday

The annual circus at Camp Frank A. Day, the Newton Y. M. C. A. camp for boys, will be held this Saturday, August 3rd, on the historical "circus grounds" in East Brookfield. This is a gala day when all parents and friends go to camp to enjoy "the show-of-a-lifetime".

This year the circus is under the direction of Harold F. Fisher, Head Counsellor. He is being ably assisted by William Connors, Program Director; Vincent Marotto, Head of the Midget Unit; and Reginald Smith ("Smitty"), Waterfront Director.

The feature acts consist of the following:

31 Newton Elks Attend Elks' Convention in N.Y.

By Paul Considine

Thirty-one members of the Newton Lodge of Elks, accompanied by Exalted Ruler Nicholas Vedeccio to the Big City, so to attend the first Elks' National Convention in five years, had themselves a whale of a time over there during the early days of July and received quite a bit of kidding from the master of ceremonies at Leon and Eddie's, where with Exalted Ruler Vedeccio, the immediate Past Exalted Ruler, R. John Henderson, treated the local Elks and their ladies to dinner and an—ahem!—enjoyable floor show.

That is what's being whispered around the lodge rooms, anyway. Officially, there's been no report yet on the activities of the locals and their fellow visitors from the outlying provinces.

Chief Keating Returns from Convention

Chief John L. Keating of the Newton Fire Department has returned from Cleveland, Ohio where he attended the five day convention of the International Fire Chiefs Association.

Chief Keating states that lectures on fire prevention were given each morning and afternoon and notice was given that new fire fighting apparatus will be available as soon as material is accessible.

Accompanying Chief Keating to the convention were the chiefs of the Watertown, Wellesley and Needham Fire Departments.

Ewart Reappointed Superintendent of City Infirmary

Mayor Paul M. Goddard has reappointed John Ewart of Newton Highlands as superintendent of the City Infirmary for a term of one year.

Supt. Ewart had reached the retirement age of 70 and under the Retirement Act the mayor with the approval of the Board of Aldermen has authority to reappoint an employee of the city from year to year after the employee has reached the retirement age.

Drawn for Jury Duty

The following Newton men have been drawn for jury service according to announcement made by City Clerk Frank M. Grant:

Irving F. Ludwig, 404 Homer street, Newton Centre, and Augustine R. Leahy, 50 Halcyn road, Newton Centre, for criminal business in the Superior Court at Lowell, to report Sept. 4. Edward Ruputz, 43 Hood street; Elwood A. Whittemore, 12 St. James street; Thomas D. Vere, 106 Falmouth road, and Paul A. Wood, 20 Trowbridge avenue, were drawn for civil business at the Superior Court in Cambridge, to report Sept. 3.

Capt. Keppler Retires from Naval Training School

Capt. Chester H. J. Keppler of 270 Mill street, Newtonville, commanding officer of the Naval Training School at Harvard University, has retired after more than 40 years of service with the U. S. Navy.

Born in Iowa City, Iowa, on Feb. 19, 1885, Capt. Keppler was appointed to the Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1903. He made a world cruise with the fleet on the U.S.S. Illinois and took part in rescue work in Messina, Italy, after the earthquake in December, 1908.

During the first World War he served on the Battleship Minnesota and at the Boston Navy Yard. He headed three solar eclipse expeditions sponsored by the U. S. Naval Observatory and taught naval science and tactics at Brown University and Tufts College.

Before becoming commander of the Harvard Naval Training School, he served as director of officer procurement for New England. He also was Naval attaché to foreign governments and commanded the heavy cruiser Minnesota from 1935-1937.

Among his decorations are the Yangtze Service Medal and the Italian Red Cross. Last April, he was awarded the Legion of Merit for services in procuring and training over 35,000 men and women for Naval Service.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Congress

I have been watching closely to see just what Congress would do to the Cancer Research Bill prior to adjournment. When we learned that the Congressmen had voted enthusiastically to raise their own pay $2500—to say nothing of granting themselves another $2500—for traveling expenses, same to be exempt from federal taxation, there were indications that the important cancer bill might not even be considered. At the last moment, however, it appears to have occurred to our worthy solons that the public might look askance at their failure to at least consider the cancer situation. Accordingly, it was given consideration and promptly defeated on what seems to your columnist to be somewhat specious reasoning.

Well, I suppose we cannot blame our Congressmen if they sometimes behave in a disappointing manner. After all, they do put in long hours and they do have a good deal of overtime work. What turns up some of us, however, is the fact that in which Congress will pass a few bills which mean something to the members themselves and then do a rush job on bills which the general public has a profound interest in.

In the near future, when our solons go home to build up their fences in preparation for the November elections, I shall discuss the record of this Congress, with special reference to the effect which it will have on President Truman's political fortunes.

"What Congress Thinks"

In the August issue of Pageant there is a very interesting article entitled "What Congress thinks of Congress." It reports the results of a questionnaire sent to all members of both Houses, asking thirteen questions, such as "Who is the ablest member of each House?" "Who is the weakest member?" etc.

May I point out two significant results of this poll? Let me quote: "On all-round ability and on their grasp of domestic and foreign affairs, three conservative Republicans today rate highest with their colleagues: Senators Taft and Vandenberg and Representative Wadsworth (New York). On all-round lack of ability, and on demagoguery, two Mississippi Democrats lead: Bilbo of the Senate and Rankin of the House. Democratic middle-of-the-roader Barkley enjoys solid esteem among his colleagues on several counts. Please note particularly the next quotation. "No liberal of either party takes top rank in his fellows' eyes except 'most promising new Senators' Morse, Rep. (Oregon) and Fulbright, Dem. (Ark.)"

As an interesting closing comment, here is what Rep. Emanuel Celler, Democrat of New York had to say while the poll was being conducted. He said on the floor of the House that he considered it "a violation of the rule of decency." Needless to state, Rep. Celler stayed in the cellar and refused to come up and vote.

Peace Conference

Those who have listened in while our most noted radio broadcasters have analyzed the Paris Peace Conference as it swings into action must be discouraged. It is doubtless best to be utterly realistic; nevertheless, it is hard to believe that the prospects are as dark as some of our experts suggest. To your columnist, the most disturbing factor at the moment is the constant talk about the Big Four breaking up into three different factions, namely, Russia, the United States and England and France combined. It is hard to see how very much can be accomplished with any such set-up. Let us hope that when it comes to a show-down there will be a greater tendency toward unity among the original allies. Otherwise, we shall have lost both the war AND the peace.

Rep. May

The details of the Congressional re-organization bill have not as yet been published, so far as I know, but it is to be hoped that something has been done about the silly seniority system now in vogue. Here we have 71-year-old Rep. May of Kentucky as chairman of the vitally-important Military Affairs Committee for no other reason than that he has been in the House longer than any other Congressman on that committee. What a method for choosing a chairman of any committee.

No one wishes to be hard on the Kentucky Congressman, especially if he is really seriously ill with heart trouble. On the other hand, his current illness should not be allowed to interfere with the desire to see justice done and war-profiteering stopped. There is a very bad smell about this entire business. Some impartial experts feel that Teapot Dome was no worse, if indeed it was as bad.

Weekly Quiz

Our Governor's Councillor, Col. Otis M. Whitney of Concord, lost no time in writing me the correct answer to last week's quiz, as follows: "Former Governors Channing H. Cox and Leverett Saltonstall are the only two Speakers of the House in this state who ever reached the Governor's chair, AFTER the late Gov. John L. Bates (1903-1905)." This week's question is: "Newton has the honor of having two of the seven Justices on the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts. Name them."

Newton Newcomers Club

The regular meeting of the Newton Newcomers Club took place on Friday July 26, at the Newton Highland Workshop. After a delicious dessert Mrs. Carl A. Albrecht presided over a short business meeting.

Plans were made for a summer outing to Gloucester, Mass., on Friday August 16th, with Mrs. Roy Rook as chairman. On Tuesday July 23, an innovation took place when ten members met for golf with Mrs. B. H. Spicker as chairman, and Mrs. M. J. Flaherty as co-chairman. This proved to be an interesting event in spite of rainy weather, and nine holes were played. The golf group will next meet on Tuesday July 30th at the Riverside Golf Club at 9:45 a.m.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent playing bridge. Prize winners were: Mrs. S. M. Dillon, first prize; Mrs. Mathew McNeilly, second prize; Mrs. E. G. Bangratz, third prize; Mrs. Bettie Patten, fourth prize. The next meeting will be in September at the Newton Centre Women's Club.

The United States granted 47 million acres of land to the Northern Pacific railroad company to aid in building that railroad.

OR YA-DE MAKES GOOD YOUR LOSS!

Good Housekeepers say "YA-DE is the finest mothproof I have ever used." Here are YA-DE's points of superiority:

- Odorless
- Colorless
- Inexpensive
- Non-Inflammable
- Harmless to Fabrics
- Unaffected by Dry Cleaning
- Guaranteed for Five Years

YA-DE has been called a "miracle mothproof." One spraying of YA-DE on your clothing, rugs, furniture, etc., and your moth worries are over for years. YA-DE is so good it is backed by a 5-year written guarantee. This guarantee is like an insurance policy in that if moth damage occurs within 5 years, YA-DE will repair, replace or pay for the damage. And the important thing is that YA-DE costs less and is easier to use.

MOTHS EAT ALL YEAR 'ROUND

As long as the temperature in your home is 55-degrees or more, moths will eat your clothing, woollens, rugs, furniture, etc. YA-DE provides year-round protection. When you buy woollen articles—no matter if it is January or July—you should treat your purchases with YA-DE at once! Remember: Moths do more damage than fire and you need YA-DE's "insurance like" protection.

Former Asst. Dist. Atty. Hugh Boyd Advocates Plan "E" for Newton At Kiwanis Wednesday Meeting

Hugh Boyd, former assistant district attorney of Middlesex County, now a practicing attorney in Newton, addressed the Wednesday noon meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club, at the Y.M.C.A., last Wednesday.

Pointing out the great gains made in Cincinnati, Ohio, and in Cambridge, Mass., as the result of the adoption of Plan E, Mr. Boyd explained the workings of the plan and the advantages it would afford if adopted in Newton.

During the question and answer period, he stated that Plan E has never failed to operate efficiently in any city using it, admitting, however, that City Managers, under other systems, had been unsuccessful.

Col. Ralph Robart, Cambridge, while stating that no plan of government was any better than the individuals operating it, asserted that it was his opinion Plan E was a success in Cambridge.

A New York Kiwanian attended the meeting as guest of the Newton Club. Arnold Worth, assistant treasurer of the Newton Savings Bank, attended this meeting as the guest of Police Chief Vedeccio and will be inducted into the Club in the near future. Thursday, William Riggs will journey to the Waltham Kiwanis Club meeting with Doctor Marcoux and a group of Newton Kiwanians. President William Sullivan read a letter from the trustees of the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children, thanking the Newton Kiwanis Club for the recent outing given the young patients at Norumbega Park.

A progressive euchre party was given to the guests at Hotel Hunnewell, Newton, Wednesday evening. A number participated and attractive prizes were given.

The new reservoir is now expected to be entirely finished within ten days, and inside of two weeks water will be pumped into it. For some time the water has been pumped directly into the pipes.

The interior of H. W. Pierce's store in Leavitt's block presents a very neat appearance. It has been thoroughly renovated and fitted up very tastefully. Newtonville item.

Willis F. Hadlock has purchased the newspaper business of H. H. Newell and assumes possession August 1. He will give up the shoe department and will put in a line of gents' furnishing goods. Aburndale item.

William Crane, the noted comedian, is visiting his mother and sisters, who reside on Rowe street, Aburndale. "The Senator" is enjoying good health and received a cordial greeting from his many friends here.

The new Catholic church, Newton Centre, will be of brick with brown stone trimmings, of size 64x94, and with two towers. It will be a very neat and convenient edifice and an ornament to the village.

Albert Brackett & Son are building a large storehouse for coal on the bank of the river just below the Faneuil station, and they expect to get a large part of their supply by water, barges coming up the river at high tide.

Mr. Taylor's new block on the Trowbridge land is roofed in and is a great improvement to that section. Men are now at work on the interior, which will be pushed forward as fast as possible to get it ready for tenants. Cole's block on the opposite corner, has been cut down for the widening of Washington street, and the new outside wall is nearly completed. The rearrangement gives Brackett's Market company a very handsome corner store, nearly as large as their former one. Newtonville item.

Dr. Hudson's new store in the Nonantum block has been handsomely fitted up, and being in the center of the block can be seen from far up both Washington and Centre streets, Newton.

The terrific hot weather that we have experienced in the past week has not lessened the attendance at New England's favorite summer resort, Norumbega Park, as the cooling breezes from the Charles River make an afternoon or evening enjoyably well spent.

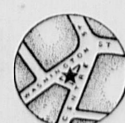

SAVE FOR A SUNNY DAY!

Are you one who takes a gloomy view of saving — thinks of it only as protection against a "rainy day"? It's that, too, of course—but a savings bank book can be a nice, cheerful thing to have around a house, too.

Look into yours! See how the balance is mounting week by week, month by month, year by year! Think what it can mean—the down-payment on that home you dream of, a new car, travel, better education for the children! Pleasant thoughts, all of them, aren't they?

"BUT I HAVEN'T GOT A SAVINGS BANK PASSBOOK!"

Don't say that! Instead, why not come in today and open a savings account? Deposit regularly and soon you, too, will have that "little extra" that makes the difference between living—and just existing! Begin saving now for a future of sunny days!

Dining With Jane and Bill

Bill—Sure, I like salt on vegetable salads. Besides it's good to use a lot of salt during the hot weather. You know how the meat makes you perspire. You lose salt in all that perspiration and it must be replaced or you get tired very easily and have something called heat exhaustion.

Jane—There are so many nice kinds of vegetables for raw salads. How do you fellows like the platter I fixed up with cabbage wedges, lettuce, tomatoes, cucumber slices, carrot strips and celery curls? Sally had a relish tray the other evening with some tiny buds of broccoli and cauliflower on it, together with some tender leaves of spinach and beet tops, also green pepper rings. We all dunked the bits of vegetables in salt.

Bill—I hardly miss the salad oils and dressings that we used to have. It seems that we get the real flavor of the vegetables this way.

at Newton City Hall, making note of the houses containing a large number of rooms and then checking with the annual listing of the registrar of voters, determine the number of persons residing in these homes.

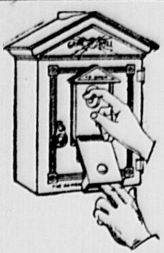

This is the second survey by the Citizens' Committee in their effort to relieve the urgent needs of many veterans and their families. The first survey, conducted by mail, was to determine the number who were in need of homes, resulted in the information that at that time 75 veterans and their families were in immediate danger of eviction. Officials of the Veterans Services Department state that there are now 100 cases of extreme need for housing among its applicants. Edmund T. Dungan, commissioner of the department, and his assistant, Norman Mitchell, have in many cases prevented eviction of veterans' families by obtaining other quarters for them.

Of 110 owners of large homes interviewed so far, 10 have expressed a willingness to convert them into two-family. The organization plans to assist these owners in obtaining materials and in complying with other requirements necessary to facilitate the undertaking of such projects.

The claims and rules committee of the Board of Aldermen is studying a petition by the Newton Chapter of the American Veterans Committee for the appointment of a housing committee to act for the relief of the emergency. William A. Medlicott, chairman of the AVC, also presented a list of names of citizens qualified to serve on such a committee, as a suggestion in the event that the formation of the committee is authorized.

NEWTON FIRE DEPARTMENT

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

With the return of the normal supply of gasoline also came several traffic problems for the fire department.

Some motorists delight in racing or riding close to the side of the fire apparatus. Others follow as close as they can behind the apparatus. Both of these practices are extremely bad and show very poor judgment. In the first case the motorist may not be able to tell where the apparatus is going and may not be able to slow up or stop if the apparatus has to make a left turn, either into the address they are going to or to avoid a car coming out on his right. Should this condition occur in the case of a ladder truck where the firemen ride on the sides of the truck, severe injuries could result as well as damage being done to the truck at a time when his truck may be most needed to rescue lives.

In the case of following too close behind the fire apparatus the motorist may not be able to see far enough ahead or anticipate when the apparatus is going to stop, thus running into the rear. If this should be an engine company where the firemen ride on the rear step severe injuries are inevitable as well as damage to the apparatus.

Motorists can avoid both of these types of accidents by observing the traffic regulations. Keep at least 300 feet in back of all types of fire apparatus and other emergency vehicles. When you see or hear fire apparatus approaching pull over to the side of the street and allow them to pass unobstructed. All of Newton's fire apparatus are equipped with a bell or siren or both. At night they can be identified by a red light, either steady, flashing, rotating or sweeping across the street from side to side.

Do not park your car too close to the location of a fire. There may be other pieces of apparatus responding to the alarm and your auto may prevent the proper locating of an engine company from using a deck gun or the aerial ladder being raised to save a life, ventilate a building or to be used as a water tower.

Parking in front of or as close as possible to a fire hydrant is prohibited by law. For your own safety and that of your fellow citizens please do not park in front of fire hydrants. Leave enough space so that the hydrants can be seen and so that the fire apparatus can have easy access to them at all times. A delay in laying hose lines or connecting up a pumping engine to a fire hydrant may make the difference in saving or losing lives and property.

Your thoughtfulness and cooperation in observing these rules and regulations will greatly help the Newton Fire Department to serve you more efficiently and it may be the means of saving your family, home or place of business from unnecessary fire damage. With your help we can help lower Newton's fire losses and enjoy the homes we now live in.

inches, while they enjoyed the hospitality of Manhattan. The exalted ruler of Newton Lodge, a police chief by trade, grinningly informed all of the brethren who'd stayed at home that a full report will be made at the next meeting of the lodge—and evidently he meant it. Hard? Not at all! With Savings Bank Life Insurance, $5000.00 straight life insurance costs me only $95.55 a year! Figure it out! That's only $1.84 a week... the best buy you can make anywhere! I know because before I bought my Savings Bank Life Insurance, I compared it with other similar policies and found that the net cost of Savings Bank Life Insurance is much less than any other you can buy. I also found that I could choose from many types of policies in amounts from $250.00 to $25,000.00.

My policy has a first-year loan value and a cash value after six months—two advantages that no other type of policy offers. My $5000.00 Savings Bank Life Insurance straight life policy has saved me money and offers the best protection possible.

HELPFUL HEALTH HINTS

NEWTON TUBERCULOSIS and HEALTH ASS'N, Inc.

ADVICE TO VACATIONISTS

Don't let your carefully planned summer vacation be abruptly ended by preventable illness, advises the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Vacationists often endanger their health when they visit areas of questionable sanitation. Where sanitary supervision is not maintained, polluted water supplies or contaminated food and milk may be the cause of dysentery diseases. Unapproved drinking water supplies and bathing places should be avoided.

Proper sanitation and efficient refrigeration prevent the spread and multiplication of germs that get into certain kinds of food and cause food poisoning. Food suspected of being spoiled or improperly handled during preparation should not be eaten.

Over exposure to the sun's rays while bathing or getting a "suntan" may cause dangerous burns. The treatment of severe sunburn may require spending several days of vacation time in bed under a doctor's care. Wise vacationists acquire their suntan gradually.

Exposure to poison ivy may cause great discomfort and annoyance. Inquiries should be made about the presence of these plants containing oily, skin-irritating poisons if the outdoor vacationist cannot recognize them easily.

Poison ivy is a rather pretty plant, green and shiny in the summer and red in the fall. If you get too close to its three-part leaves you will regret it some hours later. Itching, burning, redness and blisters may result. Washing with strong laundry soap often helps by removing the irritating oily resin.

Don't use toilet soap—it's too mild; don't use cold creams or ointments—they can be harmful.

Poison ivy usually lasts ten days to three weeks, depending on the severity of the case.

This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, Inc., 1357 Washington street, West Newton 65, Mass.

A Message to Mr. and Mrs. Citizen From The Newton League of Women Voters

Attention! Mr. and Mrs. Citizen! Do you know that

Today the consumer's best opportunity to protect herself and community against inflationary rises in living costs is at the point of purchase. The woman who asks her butcher or grocer the price of an item first, and then says, "That's too high. I'll do without," is helping to produce the most effective substitute for legislative price control.

This individual procedure is the policy recommended by the League of Women Voters. It is the out-growth of the stand taken by the League in June, when it asked President Truman to veto the first OPA renewal bill, that no price control law at all was to be preferred to a poor and inadequate law.

While organized buyers' strikes among consumer groups have their functions, the retail trade in the Newtons is such that most consumers and their suppliers have had long association, and rejection of high priced items at the point of sale is more effective here than rejection by a placard in a picket line.

During the interim period until price control is reestablished the League is urging its members and friends to reject overpriced items on their shopping trips, to buy nothing for hoarding and to buy nothing from black market dealers. In the last week or ten days evidence has been piling up that this procedure, already the practice of thousands of women, is causing prices of major food items to swing down toward a moderate point.

Rotary Club

Roy W. Johnson, vice-president and sales manager of the Warren Telechron Company, was the speaker at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club on Monday at the Brae Burn Country Club.

Presented by Gray Bates, Mr. Johnson gave a very interesting and educational talk on the history of the alarm clock. The first alarm clock he said was a notched candle—a pin inserted with a string attached to a hanging shoe which dropped on the floor when the candle burned down. In 1850 a crude type was used in England and in Massachusetts, and in 1914 Henry Warren produced the first electrical motor clock.

The Telechron Company which was started in a shop in Mr. Warren's home, now employs 3,000 people, plus another 3,000 who make parts. The company manufactures 3,000,000 synchronized motors used in industry for precision production operations, and Mr. Johnson predicted that this motor will become an important factor in the development of the electric age. The expected reproduction of the company he said calls for 12,000,000 units in 1943.

He demonstrated three different types of clocks, a radio set with an alarm clock built in and tuned to the radio dial; a clock to which a radio can be plugged; another with a pin adjustment used to establish a radio program ahead of time, to set the electric cooking range or to turn on lights at any time desired.

After reversion, Mr. Johnson stated, the company is prepared to supply every bedroom in America, with a reveille to fit most anyone's personality. They may be awakened with sweet music; dot dashed awake by Morse Code via a bedside lamp; buzzed awake, or just plain awakened by thinking what's going to happen when the gadget goes off.

Recent Engagement

Mr. Rufus A. Somerby of Winchester announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Shirley Elizabeth Somerby to Richard O. Knox, son of Mrs. Marjorie E. Knox of 74 Athelstane road, Newton Centre.

Miss Somerby is a graduate of Edgewood Park Junior College. Mr. Knox is attending Boston University. He and Miss Somerby plan an August wedding.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals for the construction of sanitary sewers in Private land, Quinobeguin Road to Rokeby Road about 330 feet, and Rokeby Road, Private Land to near Carlton Road about 395 feet, in accordance with a plan on file in the office of the City Engineer numbered and entitled as follows: No. 29677, City of Newton, Massachusetts, contract plan for sewer in Rokeby Road and Private Land, July 29, 1946, Willard S. Pratt, City Engineer, will be received at the office of the Street Commissioner, City Hall, 1000 Commonwealth Ave., Newton Centre, Mass., until 10:00 A. M. August 14th, 1946, at which place and time they will be publicly opened and read.

All proposals must be sealed proposals, made in duplicate upon bank forms furnished by said Commissioner, one proposal to be deposited with the Commissioner must be accompanied by a certified check upon a national bank or trust company in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the sum of Two Thousand Dollars payable to and to become the property of the City of Newton if the proposal is accepted and the bidder neglects or refuses to comply with the terms of the proposal. One proposal (without check), must be filed by the bidder in the office of the Comptroller of Accounts of Newton, prior to the time set for opening bids. (See Ordinance of the City of Newton Chapter 2, Section 21, as amended).

A sufficient bond for the faithful performance of the contract in the penal sum of the contract price will be required. Specifications and terms of contract can be obtained at the office of said Commissioner.

Said Commissioner reserves the right to reject all proposals or to reject or accept any proposal and to award the contract as he may deem to be for the best interests of the City of Newton, and any contract made will be made subject to appropriations and grants to meet payment thereunder.

Attention is called to the fact that minimum wage rates for this project are established in accordance with Chapter 461, Acts of 1935, and are set forth in the contract documents.

OUR TOWN AFTER MIDNIGHT

By PAUL CONSIDINE

After ten years of roaming the highways at night, particularly during the hours between midnight and dawn, this writer and about a baker's dozen or so, of more or less respectable associates throughout the Garden City, have come to the conclusion that despite the attendant headaches, it's still a lot of fun.

Down Newton Corner way, when the clock in the Elliot Church tower booms out the hour of midnight, those who pay attention to such things, are aware that the old transfer point has been quietly dozing during the past hour or so. The movie goes have long since disappeared and with the family folk of the early to bed-early to rise fraternity, are happily, they hope, enjoying the sleep of the supposedly just.

In a little while, however, celebrators returning from Boston, will begin straggling in via automobile and trolley, and the toilers of the nighttime wonder, in nightly fashion, what the wee small hours hold in store. With nothing to do for the moment, the toilers, or maybe, just some of them, dream a little of the people at home in bed, and of how little the majority of them know of the doings in their city after the, so called, witching hour.

It seems reasonable to suppose, too, that they'd find a new, and possibly glamorous world surrounding them if, some night, when the p.m. gave way to the well known a.m., at the especially fascinating hour, when the streets in their own immediate neighborhood are quiet and deserted, they'd come along for a ride and a little ramble.

CHANGES AFTER MIDNIGHT...

For after midnight, the whole set-up changes in the Night Life Department. The cafes, oases and night spots in general; gathering places for the boys and girls to whom night-time is play time, close locally. But, in Boston, the steam's really turned on, at that time, and one hour to go! The prudent ones begin to go, also—in the direction of home—and eventually, this city's quota arrives here, the majority in Newton Corner.

ALWAYS INTERESTING...

The people of the night are always interesting—even after ten years. The youngsters, for instance, just beginning to step around; and starchy-eyed in the realization that they've finally grown-up, and therefore eligible for any and all the pleasures the evenin' has to bestow. All of them happy and eager, with each night opening the way to new and gayer adventures.

The noisy ones, around a little longer, who seemingly can't enjoy themselves until they've told the world all about everything, including themselves, their neighbors and their own personal affairs.

Then, there's the 'Old Timers', male and female—and many of them are young old timers—to whom it's all an old story. They've been everywhere, seen everything and, apparently, scamper aboard the merry-go-around, nightly, simply for the lack, or knowledge of something better to do... or maybe, it's simply that there's nothing else left for them to do.

As the years go by, the scenes and the faces change, but the revelry and a new crop of revelers, it seems, will go on forever. And the reason behind it all is perhaps, the age old urge for a little fun, a bit of enjoyment, a temporary recess from the troubles of yesterday and the cares of tomorrow.

SOME FALL BY THE WAYSIDE...

Roaming here and there through the wee small hours, you meet 'em all, the banker and his lady and Vermin Doakes the prominent young steamfitters' helper and his flame of the moment, too. Most of them are nice people, with the possible exception of the few, in every generation, who become so engrossed in the business of having a good time, that they forget their responsibilities, their ambitions—and sometimes their respectability.

3 a.m. usually sees the last of the fun crowd. Then come those who entertained them, served and watched over them during the night... The actors and actresses, musicians, waiters, waitresses, taxi drivers and the police... all of whom feel that, at long last, they too, deserve a little time out for coffee, and a bit of quiet relaxation, so's to restore their own worn tissues.

MEET 'EM ALL...

You meet them in their favorite all-night spots, relaxed and entertaining their associates with tales of the night's adventures. A mind-your-own-business people, they rarely criticise or argue and, seemingly, have mastered the art of living pleasantly and decently, under difficult circumstances.

YARN...

A police officer was telling a yarn to his grinning audience as we entered a local cafe, in the early morn, last week.

He'd been fudging, for some time, with a superior officer, at headquarters, and had just succeeded in giving that very superior gentleman a very bad half hour. Happy about it all, and smiling in the manner of the cat that ate the canary, he wanted the world to share his joy.

This superior officer, in fire department circles, is known as a 'spark'. A fire engine chaser, he considers himself a born smoke eater. Aware of this, the grinning cop told how he'd sneaked down to the basement, at headquarters, set a pile of newspapers smoldering in the sink, then waited around just long enough to hear the commotion throughout the building, when his frightened victim, after catching the odor of the smoldering papers, set off every fire alarm in the place.

Special Ceremony Marks 25th Anniversary at Sherman Paper Products Outing

About 700 employees, their families and friends witnessed a special ceremony which keynoteed the annual outing of the Sherman Paper Products, of Newton Upper Falls, at Riverside last Saturday. Featured speakers at this ceremony were Roy Edwards, President of the Chamber of Commerce, who represented Mayor Goddard; Ruppert C. Thompson, Secretary of the Newton Chamber of Commerce; D. S. Roberts, Director of Operations, of Sherman Paper Products; George H. Stucke, General Sales Manager; and Vincent Gamble, President of the local C. I. O. Union. Harold Pillsbury, Personnel Director, speaking for all employees, presented to George Sherman, President of the company, a large silver plaque in commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the company.

An annual event, for factory and office employees, the outing lasted, if two o'clock until midnight. The committee had a full day of activities arranged, starting with soft ball games and ending with dancing in the evening. In the men's soft ball between the factory and the office teams, the factory came out the victors in a closely fought, extra-inning game, with the score 6 to 5. The women's office team played the victorious men's team and bested them 10 to 6.

Bannon Appointed Supt. Chestnut Hill Post Office

Postmaster Patrick J. Connelley has announced the appointment of William A. Bannon, superintendent of the Chestnut Hill branch of the Boston Post Office. Mr. Bannon succeeds Edward V. Bourneuf, who has been transferred to the Readville station.

Bannon, a veteran of 28 years with the Postal department, was a supervisor at the South Postal Annex for four years and a foreman in the carrier's division for a year and a half. Prior to his appointment, he was attached to the postmaster's office.

Thieves Busy in City

Thomas F. Burbank of 464 Wolcott street, Auburndale, reported to Newton police on Monday the theft of a gray Palm Beach suit from his automobile while it was parked in front of 991 Watertown street, West Newton.

The theft of a tire and wheel from the automobile of Leon Ober of 120 Cherry street, West Newton, while the car was parked on Commonwealth avenue, near Islington road, Auburndale, was also reported.

Homes Entered While Occupants Away

While inspecting homes that have been reported closed for summer vacations, Patrolman Matthew Phillips discovered a broken cellar window in the brick mansion at 18 Old Colony road, Chestnut Hill. Further investigation revealed that the thief, who took fur coats and considerable jewelry, after entering the cellar, jimmied the door.

Upper Falls Cafe Looted

Edward A. Daley, Jr., proprietor of the Echo Bridge Cafe, 1070 Chestnut street, Newton Upper Falls, reported to Newton police Tuesday the theft of merchandise valued at $875. Daley opened the establishment for the day and found that it had been entered and looted of 25 cases of assorted whiskey. Thieves gained entrance by breaking the lock on the rear cellar door.

Water Main Bursts Floods Cellars in Newton Centre

A 16-inch water main burst at six a. m. on August 6th, on Boylston street, between Cloverdale and Woodcliff roads, Newton Centre. Several homes were flooded and traffic on the Worcester Turnpike was delayed as police found it necessary to close one lane of traffic. The flood destroyed the sidewalk and left a hole six feet wide and 10 feet deep. A geyser, five feet high, continued to flood the section, and several families were without water, as the Water Department crew arrived and shut off the supply.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vachon to Have 50th Wedding Anniversary

On Saturday, August 10, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vachon of 35 Jaspet street, Newton, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. A Mass will be said at nine o'clock in the Church of Our Lady, Newton, and open house will be held at their home from four to six o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Vachon were married in Lynn 50 years ago, by the Rev. Father Parent, since deceased. However, the maid of honor, Mrs. Eugenie Frechette, of Newton, and the best man, Mr. Henry Boucher, of Lynn, will be present.

To Rebuild Centre Street from Bellevue To Boylston Streets

One of the largest projects undertaken by the City in many years has been announced by Street Commissioner Harold F. Young. Bids for the contract for the reconstruction of Centre street from Bellevue street, Newton to Boylston street at the Worcester Turnpike in Newton Highlands will be opened by Commissioner Young on August 14, at City Hall.

Estimates have been made by city officials and the sum of $250,000 has been appropriated.

Fire at Longwood Cricket Club

A fire, believed to have been caused by a spark from the chimney, caused small damage on Saturday to the Longwood Cricket Club at 564 Hammond street, Chestnut Hill. The fire was discovered on the roof and the Newton Fire Department quickly responded by sending Engine 3 of Newton Centre, Engine 2 of Chestnut Hill and Ladder 2 of Newton Highlands. The firemen, under the direction of Deputy Francis J. Linnehan, worked for only three-quarters of an hour bringing it under control.

Two Stolen Cars Recovered

Two cars, previously reported stolen, have been recovered and a third car was reported stolen in Newton, on Tuesday.

Czechoslovakia Bright Spot in Europe, Dr. Hitchen Asserts

A Christian fellowship which knows no exclusion is essential to the reconstruction of a shattered world, the Rev. Herbert Hitchen, D.D. minister of the West Newton Unitarian Church, stated Tuesday upon his return from a two-months tour of England and Europe.

Director of the Department of Foreign Churches of the American Unitarian Association, Dr. Hitchen visited England, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Holland and Belgium. In Cambridge, England, he assisted in the setting up of the International Association for Religious Freedom, "to help provide spiritual haven for the confused."

Dr. Hitchen asserted that Czechoslovakia is the brightest spot in a dismal Europe and it is destined to lead the continent as the U. S. has led America. In Czechoslovakia, social legislation is far advanced and the people are optimistic despite severe food shortages and poor health, he said. Austria, in contrast, is dull and apathetic and part of the country is starving while other regions export food to Switzerland, Dr. Hitchen said.

The majority of people in Europe believe they are through with religion, he stated, and only 5 per cent of the Protestants in England attend church.

"Although diet deficiencies must be made up before Europeans will have the resources to create a new religious life," he continued, "the hungriest nations are not necessarily the most godless. Europe presents a puzzling picture. It is poorly administered because so many different occupation groups are in power. Red tape is at its thickest and so spotty is the food situation that England, which is tightening the national belt to help supply the continent, is faring worse than many places on the mainland. Black markets flourish best, oddly enough, where food rationing is the least stringent. What is lawful in one zone is punishable in another."

Dr. Hitchen was on his second trip to Europe this year. He contacted liberal religious leaders and surveyed Christian churches to determine the best methods of reconstruction.

Newton Rotary Club Guests of Camp F. A. Day

Camp Frank A. Day, the Newton Y.M.C.A. camp for boys at Brookfield, played host to a group of Newton Rotary Club members last Monday afternoon and evening. Softball, swimming, and an excellent dinner were the order of the day.

Rotarian Graham Bates was captain of the softball team which managed to hold the Camp Seniors until the final inning. Featured in the game was Orville Clapper's hitting and stellar fielding, and Frank Simmons' deceptive pitching. It should be noted that the score was kept down by reason of the fact that the Rotarians were assisted by several campers in the outfield.

Doc Ted Leonard was the star of the swimming event with his exhibition of fancy diving. Rotarians Harry Hanson, Frank Frykstrand, Win Brainerd, Jack Walsh, and Clarence R. Mease applauded the swimmers from the boat house porch. It was agreed that Dwight Colburn was better first baseman than swimmer.

The last three week period at Camp Day started Wednesday. The camp has had a full enrollment through the entire summer. Preparations are now underway for the annual minstrel show, and further announcement of it will be made shortly. The athletic program for the last three weeks will consist of baseball, tennis, and swimming events. Camp Director Frank M. Simmons reports the health of the camp in excellent condition. The health record this year has been one of the best in recent history at Camp Frank A. Day.

Anniversary of First Atomic Bomb

One year ago the first atomic bomb fell on Hiroshima ushering in a new age. During this year complacency about the atomic bomb has steadily increased. This complacency has recently been encouraged by the anticlimactic but not unanticipated results of the Bikini Test. The devastating effects of a single bomb on a city are no less today than they were at Hiroshima. Tens and hundreds of these bombs may be used in future wars. Atomic weapons cannot simply be outlawed by treaty, but as discussions in the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission have shown, there must be an effective international authority to achieve the desired result. For a year the world has known that the fate of all mankind is spelled out in the words Peace or annihilation. The world has survived an entire year of the atomic age, knowing this fact and not doing much about it.

There can be no absolute guarantee that Peace will be maintained as long as any nation has the sovereign right to decide questions of War and Peace. No nation state can today hope to be strong enough to protect its citizens from war. Twice in one generation the United States has been forced to enter a war which the people wished to avoid.

World Peace can be created and maintained only under World Law, universal and strong enough to establish justice and prevent armed conflict between nations. The United Nations as now constituted is a league of sovereign states. As such it is not a World Government and therefore can not by law prevent armed conflict between nations and establish justice and security. Nevertheless, it is the greatest step yet taken by mankind toward World Peace. Since the Charter provides for amendments, every effort should be made to transform the United Nations into a Limited World Government.

Massachusetts' voters on November 5th will be given an opportunity to vote on the only method advanced by educators, statesmen, scientists and private citizens for the effective prevention of war, namely, to strengthen the United Nations Charter by amendments and make it into a Limited World Government able to prevent war. A YES vote November 5th is a vote to sustain our State Department in the advocacy of the Baruch proposals for international control of atomic energy and a vote for the effective prevention of war. Massachusetts thus will be the first state to put itself on record as favoring that immediate steps be taken to strengthen the United Nations Charter. On the first anniversary of the dropping of the atomic bomb on Hiroshima, citizens will do well to ponder this question. A world that refuses to become one under enforceable World Law is already half resigned to becoming a chaos of horror as the alternative.

Politics With Color

World War Veterans

Now that Governor Tobin, for obvious reasons, has announced that the young veteran vote will probably go Democratic on a two to one basis, it is interesting to consider, from a less partisan viewpoint, what the final result will be after practically all our veterans have come home for good.

Your columnist will hazard a guess that the politicians of both major parties are due for a surprise—a rather unpleasant surprise, too. The chances are that hundreds of thousands of these young men will shortly become disillusioned about matters political, whether in town, city, state or nation. Already we have specified examples of the possibilities confronting us. We have, for instance, the pioneering spirit shown in Central Falls, R. I., where four rookie policemen appear to be in the process of winning a battle to hold their jobs and to gain permission to clean up a bad gambling racket which has been going on for a long time under the noses of the local police, including the Chief himself, as well as the Mayor of the city. It will pay to watch closely all future developments in this area. It will be highly significant if these bold young spirits finally win out and succeed in making their home city a better and cleaner city in which to live.

We have another shining example down in Athens, Tennessee, where another group of veterans, using force as well as moral suasion, cleaned up a malodorous situation which had permitted the rottenest sort of government to prevail. It was part of the shoddy regime of Boss Crump, who has been the dictator of nearly everything political in Tennessee for many, many years. Although everybody regrets that armed forces had to be used in this instance, the results will perhaps justify the means used. For that matter, there has been plenty of violence in many parts of Tennessee during the period of Boss Crump's reign. This man is probably the last and also the most powerful of the old-line political bosses in the entire country. It will be a cause for rejoicing throughout the land when he has ceased to function.

Now to the point. There appear to be indications that the returning veterans are not necessarily going to become routine Republicans, Democrats or what have you. In this respect I admit that I am not in accord with the recent statements of leading politicians. That, however, does not mean that I am wrong. Of course the big men in the political arena are hoping that the vets will join one major party or the other, preferably the one they belong to. However, it seems to me that these young men are going to look askance at the normal shenanigans of their elders and are going to inquire how much has been accomplished by the use of old techniques.

Suppose we take a few illustrations. Here in Boston we have the spectacle of a city governed by a man who has been convicted by a court and is currently waiting for his appeal to be heard by a higher court. How do our returning veterans like THAT? Then we have the Bilbo and Rankin scandals down South. Throw Talmadge in for good measure. What do you suppose our war heroes think of the recent lynching in Georgia? Two men and two women butchered in cold blood. All were Negroes. Only one of the four had been accused of doing anything offensive to the lynchers. They merely happened to be present. So far, unless I am greatly mistaken, no progress whatsoever has been made in bringing the criminals to justice. Fortunately, the wheels of justice are beginning to turn, ever so slowly, down in Washington and it is said that when the next Congress convenes in January, 1947, legislation will be enacted to enable the federal government to step in, in case local authorities either cannot or will not see to it that justice is meted out.

What, doubtless burns up our veterans is the fact that Bilbo, Talmadge and others of their stripe deliberately incited their people to riot and to do violence to members of the colored population. They will wonder just what it was that they risked their lives for, when they come home to such injustice and rottenness. And yet, it has proved absolutely impossible to pass an anti-lynching law in Congress, chiefly because there are always enough votes from Southern Congressmen to cause a filibuster. The same applies to the anti-poll-tax bill.

One final point. Let us remember that so long as injustice and tyranny prevail in any section of our country, just so long can our Russian allies indulge in a hearty laugh at our expense and refuse to take too seriously our solemn protestations of our love for democracy, equality before the law, human rights for all, etc.

Weekly Quiz

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. Chief Justice Fred Tamm and Justice John Varnum Spaulding of Newton and Newton Highlands, respectively, are the two Newtonians who now serve on the Supreme Court.

This week's question is:—What citizen of Newton, now deceased, was responsible for the disbarment of District Attorney Tufts of Middlesex and Pelletier of Suffolk County while he was serving as Attorney General of Massachusetts? P.W.C.

Care of the Lawn

by O. O. Clapper

IF you were to visit the St. Louis Missouri section you would be told that their beautiful green lawns are commonly known as St. Louis Bent. As a matter of fact it is really "crabgrass." To all good lawns it is really a weed as it grows each year from seeds and is killed off with the first frosts. A lawn heavily infested will turn brown at the first frost and be unsightly for the rest of the season, and might stay bare until the next season's crabgrass germinates.

Crabgrass does not thrive in the shade but likes the hot dry sunny spots. Each seed will start a new plant next year and in time this weed will take over the lawn and eventually the entire lawn will have to be turned over and replanted. The proper method is to start with the first new shoots in late June and spray each new infestation with one of the well known killers and repeat this until all newly germinated plants have been killed. It is not too late now, in fact you still have time, to kill the present plants and prevent much of the seed from reaching the mature stage which will stop reinfestation next season.

Once you have killed out the plants, rake the dead grass away, loosen the soil and reseed with high grade lawn seed. The best is none too good so don't try to save a few pennies with cheap seed as you may find you

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

Newton has been fairly free from church fires and as most people frequent some place of worship, concern about their safety is very timely.

The average church is usually a one story edifice varying in height and size. The construction materials differ according to the cost. Safety from fire and the spread of fire is generally sacrificed for beauty. The walls may be of masonry, but most of the furnishings are of wood construction, floor beams, flooring, pews, balconies, wainscoting, roof timbers, etc. It is therefore very evident that should a fire start in such a structure, unless it is controlled in the early stage, it will gain momentum very fast due to large open areas.

Fighting these fires presents many hazards that most people do not realize. If the fire has gained much headway there is the probability of the roof caving in early. The large windows breaking allow a new supply of air in to accelerate the burning. The floors burning through, walls collapsing and spreading the fire and endangering lives. This means that a large part of the fire fighting must be done through doors and windows with heavy streams of water.

The four largest causes of church fires are:

1. Heating plants. Many of these are fairly old and are idle most of the week. In order to heat the edifice they have to force the fires, therefore if there are any great defects, trouble will surely develop. Why not make it a point to have your church heating plant checked and make the necessary repairs now.

2. Defective chimneys. Most of the chimneys are also old and may need repairs and should be cleaned every year to insure good draft and safer operation.

3. Defective wiring. Many churches have halls for entertainments. Some performances require lighting effects. This wiring work should be done by an experienced electrician. New lights are added on circuits that are already over-loaded which may breakdown and cause a fire.

4. The tall spires on most churches, unless properly protected by lightning rods, form an excellent target. All churches should have adequate first line fire fighting protection equipment installed where it can be readily procured if needed. What ever the cost, it is well worth it.

Good housekeeping and the prompt disposal of all rubbish will do much to make them safer.

Newton needs all of its churches now more than ever before for guidance to weather the unpredictable tomorrows. Now is the time to do the necessary repairs to keep our church edifices safe from fires so that they may help Newton to prosper.

have sown a crop of other species of weeds.

Much has been written this year on the new weed killers containing 2,4-D (Dichlorophenoxyacetic Acid) which has done a wonderful job of selective weed killing but it is not effective on crabgrass. One of the many arsenics should be used. Such materials as sodium arsenite, arsenic acid, milarsenite or Zotez will wipe out the crabgrass and if used according to directions will not injure the permanent perennial lawn grasses.

Newton in the Past

55 Years Ago
Newton Graphic, August 7, 1891
The Oak Square district is being rapidly occupied by an excellent class of purchasers. The extension of the electric street railway service about a year ago stirred its sleepy precincts, and farms are rapidly giving place to pleasant homes.

Mr. Thomas Sinclair has rented the vacant store in Eliot block, Elmwood street, Newton and will remove his upholstery business there Sept. 1st. He has been in his present location in Sumner's block for 8 years, but his business has so increased that more room was a necessity, and the change will give him a much larger workroom, and a better show room. In his new location he will have telephone connection, so that orders for work can be sent by telephone.

There has been an increase of 313 in the polls of Newton the past year.

The exterior of the City Hall, West Newton, is to be made more attractive by a coat of paint.

The drill shed is practically completed and the cost of the structure is $10,000. Newtonville item.

Work on the cellar of the new Catholic church commenced Wednesday morning. Mr. T. D. Sullivan of Newton Highlands holding the contract. Newton Centre item.

The annual Read fund picnic given by the city to the children of Wards One and Seven every summer, took place Saturday, and was participated in by upward of 800 children. The cars of a special train on the Boston & Albany railroad were taken at the Newton station, and the children were conveyed to the Pine Grove station at Newton Lower Falls, where games were enjoyed and a collation was provided. The party returned late in the afternoon. The picnic was in charge of the Read Fund Committee of the City Council.

The Auburndale post office having been created a second class office, Mr. U. F. Hadlock will be obliged to move into the new structure being erected next to Plummer's block.

A petition is in circulation for an illuminated clock to grace the remodelled tower on the Methodist church. Newtonville item.

At the residence of Rev. A. Virgess Hill, 1445 Washington street, West Newton, on May 27, a number of men met and organized themselves into a body to do civic, educational and charitable work under the name of the Newton Community House. The purpose of this house is to better the social conditions in the Newtons.

Through the initiative of a few leading Italians of the Nonantum district of this city plans to secure a public playground in that locality are well under way. It is proposed that the playground will be on the west side of Hawthorne street, Newton.

ONE SPRAYING STOPS MOTH DAMAGE For 5 Years

OR YA-DE MAKES GOOD YOUR LOSS!

Good Housekeepers say "YA-DE is the finest mothproof I have ever used."

Here are YA-DE's points of superiority:

- Odorless
- Colorless
- Inexpensive
- Non-Inflammable
- Harmless to Fabrics
- Unaffected by Dry Cleaning
- Guaranteed for Five Years

YA-DE has been called a "miracle mothproof."

One spraying of YA-DE on your clothing, rugs, furniture, etc., and your moth worries are over for years. YA-DE is so good it is backed by a 5-year written guarantee. This guarantee is like an insurance policy in that if moth damage occurs within five years, YA-DE will repair, replace or pay for the damage. And the important thing is that YA-DE costs less and is easier to use.

MOths EAT ALL YEAR 'ROUND

As long as the temperature in your home is 55-degrees or more, moths will eat your clothing, woollens, rugs, furniture, etc. YA-DE provides year 'round in or out of storage protection. When you buy woollen articles — no matter if it is January or July — you should treat your purchases with YA-DE at once! Remember, Moths do more damage than fire and you need YA-DE's "insurance like" protection.

The local squadron sponsored by the Rotary Club of Newton will be represented at the Encampment.

The summer encampments at AAF bases represent only one of the many opportunities available to the Air Scouts resulting from the cooperation of the AAF with the Boy Scouts of America.

The Air Scout encampment is expected to be of great value to the local Air Scouts, as they will see first hand how the AAF develops the finest airmen in the world. Air Scouts who will attend the Encampment from this area include: Air Scout Leader C. Winthrop Forbush; Air Scouts Albert W. Duckworth, Lincoln H. Good, Samuel W. Clapper, Robert V. Dining With Jane and Bill Sally—Are you going to can again this year, Jane? If you are, I'd like to come over and can with you. It seems so much easier if two of us do it together.

Jane—Oh sure! I'll be canning. I wouldn't know how to get along in the winter if I didn't have peaches, tomatoes, and string beans to fall back upon. With all the food shortages we've been having and the rising costs of food it seems to me as if there's as great a need as ever.

Sally—Well, I read that peaches are to be plentiful, and Jack is keen about home-canned peaches.

Jane—Yes, I want to can a lot of peaches. I'm going to do some of them without sugar, for I know I won't have enough sugar to go around. The ones I canned last year without sugar were swell. I used them in salads and I sweetened some of them as I used them for shortcakes.

Sally—Ruth, my new nextdoor neighbor, asked me if I would write down the instructions for canning peaches. Since she's just a new bride, she hasn't done it before and needs a lot of help.

Jane—Why don't you tell her to call the Newton Nutrition Center, BIG. 4912, or go down there to see them some Wednesday morning? I think they could give her a lot of helpful hints on canning.

Sally's Instructions for Canning Peaches:

One bushel or 50 pounds makes 36 pint jars. Peaches are usually canned in halves or slices. The following directions are for "halves." If 40 be sliced, do this after peeling and removing stones.

1. Wash peaches to remove all dirt and fuzz.
2. Blanch peaches by dropping them into boiling water. With 4 quarts of boiling water 12 or 14 peaches may be blanched at a time. This operation should take only 45 to 90 seconds. Cool for handling.
3. Remove skin and cut in halves along the suture or seam. Take out stone. As fast as prepared drop into a weak brine; 3 tablespoonfuls of salt to 4 quarts of water (the small amount of salt left on the peach helps to improve flavor and sweetness).
4. Pack as tightly as possible without crushing. If packing halves put stone cavity down. When jar is two thirds full add 30 per cent syrup to top of fruit.
5. Fill jar with fruit. Add more syrup if needed.
6. Wipe off top of jar, put on cover and rubber, and snap top clamp into position. Push side clamp down.
7. Put jars in processor and process—pints 25 minutes, quarts 30 minutes, boiling moderately.
8. Remove jars from processor, set aside to cool, and store.

door at the head of the stairway to gain access to the main house.

Sgt. Richard L. Bannon, who is in charge of the case, notified the Misses Agnes G., Alice C., and Anne E. Fitzpatrick, sisters, at their summer home in Scituate.

Vincent P. Roberts Jr., of 134 Chestnut Hill road, Newton, wool merchant, discovered, upon his return from a four-day trip, that food and liquor had been stolen from his house. A strap of a wrist watch, found by police investigators, is expected to lead to the solution. The strap was found on the premises by Sgt. David T. Dalton and Patrolmen Stephen Madden, Edward Holt and Ernest Berry.

The thief gained entrance to the house by breaking a pane of glass in a rear door. The Roberts house is located a short distance from the home of U. S. Senator Leverett Saltonstall.

Aldermen Mourn Death of George A. Bacon

President Joseph B. Jamieson of the Board of Aldermen has appointed Aldermen Fred C. Alexander, Theodore R. Lockwood and Arthur H. Cox members of a committee to draw up a resolution of regret for the recent death of Alderman George A. Bacon, of Auburndale, and a tribute to his character and service. The committee will present the resolution at the meeting of the board on Monday, August 19.

At the July meeting of the board, President Jamieson gave an eulogy of the late Alderman and all members stood in silence for a short period in respect to his memory. Alderman Bacon was a member of the board for more than ten years. He died suddenly at his summer home on Cape Cod.

Growers Day at Waltham Field Station

Everybody interested in horticulture is invited to the Waltham Field Station of the Massachusetts State College for the 25th Annual Field Day on Friday, August 16.

Commercial vegetable growers, florists, orchardists, nurserymen, arborists and amateur gardeners, as well as staff members from other agricultural experiment stations, will flock to Waltham on this occasion, attracted by the opportunity to inspect the trial grounds and watch the demonstrations of the newest in farm machinery and equipment.

The hours are from 11:00 a.m. throughout the day. A caterer will be on hand, but many of the growers bring their families and their own lunch. Plenty of shady spots for picnicking.

The Waltham Field Station is at 240 Beaver street, Waltham, on Route 60 between Waltham Center and Waverley Square.

HEART CARE

The very thought of heart disease strikes fear in most people. They think of heart disease as attacking suddenly, with great pain, bringing immediate death. This may be true in middle life and old age. However, there are various kinds of heart disease. Not all of them develop suddenly, and they are not all fatal.

Nevertheless, heart disease is one of the most serious health problems in this country. In fact, it is the leading cause of death. In 1943, the last year for which complete statistics are available, it was responsible for 426,391 deaths, or 318.3 per 100,000 population.

Unfortunately, the fear of heart disease is at the root of many deaths from it. Because of fear people ignore warnings that something is amiss. When they finally do muster the courage to see a doctor, often it is too late.

The body gives various warnings that the heart is overburdened or diseased. Some of these signals are breathlessness after exertion, dizziness, fatigue, vague digestive disturbances, swelling of the feet and ankles and pains in the chest.

Such pains are not always due to heart disease, and of course digestive disturbances may be traceable to any one of a number of causes. But there is no point in ignoring any of these warnings. They may indicate heart trouble. The safe policy is to heed the signals and see a doctor.

Certain illnesses often weaken the heart, and too great exertion immediately after a severe sickness may have an adverse effect on the heart. Caution should be observed especially after an illness due to any of the infectious diseases of childhood.

Periodic physical examinations are the best insurance against developing serious heart trouble. The person who goes to the doctor regularly for a check up, without waiting to be stricken by illness, may learn of a heart disorder before it reaches serious proportions.

Many types of heart trouble can be treated effectively if discovered in time. People who have, or have had, heart trouble do not necessarily have to lead lives of invalidism. Certain strenuous occupations may be denied them, but they can still lead normal lives if they follow rules of moderation.

Peck & Peck Opens Store in Newton Ctr.

A new Peck & Peck shop will be opened on Centre street Newton Centre August 12, A. Wells Peck, president of the company, announced. It will be the fifth Peck & Peck unit in the Boston area. Others were opened in Hyannis, 1925; Boston, 1927; Wellesley and Magnolia, 1929; Belmont, 1945.

The Newton Centre shop will carry the complete line of Peck & Peck specialties, including Wallace Tweed coats and suits, Brainerd and Hadley sweaters, Peck casual dresses and Haberdasher blouses and dresses.

The shop will feature a visual presentation grouping of show-cases, affording customers entering the shop door a clear view of all merchandise at a glance.

Founded in 1884 by George F. Peck, father of the present president, the Peck group of stores comprise 43 shops specializing in women's and misses' apparel and accessories. Four members of the Peck family currently are active in the business: A. Wells Peck, president; Frederick Carleton Peck, vice president in charge of promotion; E. Wallace Peck, merchandise manager; and Wilbur F. Burt, grandson of the founder, who has recently rejoined the firm as assistant general manager after war service.

Easy To Change Buick Tires

"The groan that accompanies a flat tire won't be so loud and mournful when it happens to a 1946 Buick owner," Richard Dwyer of the Newton Buick Co. stated today. "Tacking up the new model has been made safer, easier and more convenient. The jack is rugged and easily operated. It has been designed especially for the car and the bumper back bars on the car have in turn been designed to accommodate the jack." Mr. Dwyer continued.

The lifting bracket of the jack has a V-shaped notch which straddles the bumper back bar and prevents the car from rolling off the jack. This new jack raises the car easily to the needed height and a generous lift left to spare.

Live up to the highest you know and you'll have nothing to live down.

Port Official Speaks at Kiwanis Club Meeting

Mr. Andrew Lane, assistant director of the Port of Boston, speaking at the noon meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club, at the Y.M.C.A., Wednesday, declared that Boston needs a successful port, or otherwise the entire state will suffer. A lesson should have been learned many years ago, he said, when the authorities here refused to recognize steam power and all steam shipping was routed to New York ports.

During the war, according to Mr. Lane, one million troops and one hundred million tons of cargo were shipped overseas from Boston. There are not enough berths here now, he continued, to handle normal shipping and but a few berths large enough to accommodate the larger vessels now being built.

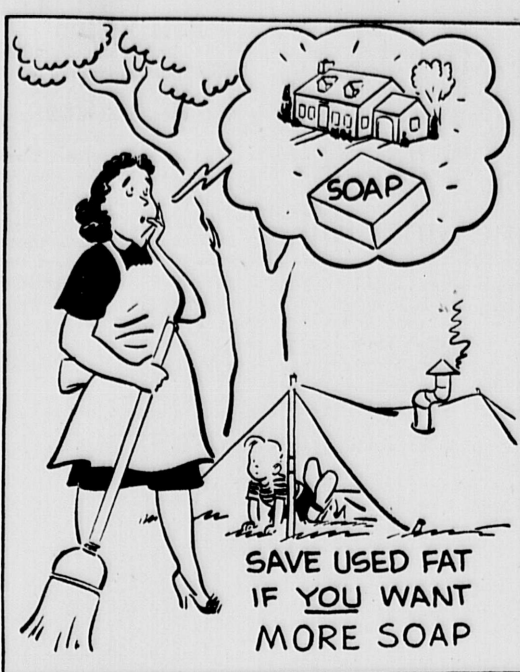

New York, Philadelphia and other cities own the port facilities. Mr. Lane explained, and in New Orleans and numerous other coastal cities, the state and sometimes counties finance great ports and operate them. Port products are used throughout the state, he concluded, and the building of the Port of Boston requires the use of public money and is a state obligation.

Newton Girls Witness Drowning

The tragic drowning of Mary Winters, 20, of Olean, New York and Carl Stahl, 21, of Hummelstown, Pennsylvania, at Magnolia on August 2, was witnessed by three Newton college students who were also spending the summer as workers at a hotel in Magnolia.

Kathleen Lane of 44 Carver street, Newton Highlands, a roommate of Miss Winters; Mildred Hall, 20, of 24 Parker avenue, Newton Centre, and Katherine Manning, 21, of 48 Cypress street, Newton Centre, were among the young people on top of the cliff who watched, helplessly, the tragedy.

Miss Winters and Stahl had climbed down the rocky side of a chasm to get a closer view of the angry ocean. As they stood at the mouth of the chasm a gigantic wave rolled in, engulfed them, and swept them into the sea.

Miss Manning and Miss Hall are both attending Regis College.

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES!

We're not suggesting that you pitch a reepee on our doorstep. But we know how much you, like so many other car owners, want B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns on your car, and we know why. Because you have heard that:

1. The new, better synthetic rubber developed by B. F. Goodrich makes Silvertowns run cooler, wear longer than prewar tires.
2. The 35% stronger tire body is made possible by a new, stronger cord, more cords per inch in the top ply, and an extra shock-absorbing breaker strip.
3. The new wider, flatter "road level" tread puts more rubber on the road to share the wear and provide quicker stops, better traction, and more safety on the turns.
4. More than 2,000 tests and 17,000,000 miles of the toughest kind of actual road service developed that the new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown outwears prewar natural rubber tires.

Terminal Pay for Enlisted Personnel

Terminal Leave Pay due under the recently enacted law to discharged Army enlisted personnel now residing in New England will be paid by the Finance Office, United States Army, Army Base, Boston, Colonel G. W. Porter, Finance Department, announced today. Payments to survivors of deceased Army personnel will be made by the Director, Special Settlement Accounts Division, Office of Dependency Benefits, 213 Washington street, Newark 2, New Jersey.

The government printing offices are rushing the printing of the necessary forms to the local Post Offices within ten days. The Postal authorities will cooperate with the Army in the distribution of the forms.

Upon receipt of certified applications by the Army, payments will be made to applicants in cash, or bonds, by mail.

In brief, the law authorizes payment for 2 1/2 days terminal leave per month, not to exceed 120 days, less furloughs taken, for the period of enlisted service commencing on or after September 8, 1939 to date of discharge. The rate of pay and allowances received at time of discharge or release will govern the payment to be made.

Auburndale Union Services

Union Services for the people of Auburndale will be held in Centenary Methodist Church the remaining Sundays of August and September first. Mrs. Franklin E. Leland and Mrs. Edward D. Kendall will lead the music at the console and in special solos. On August 11, Rev. Stephen J. Callender's message will be, "God Needs You!"

New England Air Show at Bedford Airfield

From over the Empire State Building in New York to Bedford Airfield—in 17 minutes!

With that announcement by the Army Air Forces this week, the New England Air Show scheduled for Aug. 15-18 at Bedford Airfield becomes a national rather than regional affair.

Sponsored by the Aeronautical Association of Boston, the four-day spectacle will be the largest air show ever held in the country, the Army Air Forces have disclosed.

Plans were completed yesterday, the AAB announced, to race a jet-propelled P-80 plane from New York to Bedford in the amazing time of 17 minutes.

It was announced by Theodore F. Drury, president of the association which is sponsoring the show, benefits of which are for the Army Aid Society, that the spectacle will be the first in the history of out-door exhibitions "where private plans will have a large share in the program."

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, her son, Elliot, and his wife, Faye Emerson, who will be at the Cape Playhouse, Dennis will fly to Bedford via Northeast Airlines to be on hand, along with more than a million New Englanders, to see thousands of Army planes go through the paces of modern aviation.

Among sponsors of the affair are most of the large facilities manufacturing parts for planes, as well as hundreds of Massachusetts individuals interested in promoting the aeronautical future of the Commonwealth.

According to Louis F. Musco, president of the Aviation Training School in Boston, a preliminary survey shows that more than three million persons from New England will visit the show during one or another of the eight performances, two each day.

Newton Red Cross Foreign Services Appreciated

The Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross has received a certificate from Viscountess Bridgeman, D.B.E., chairman of the Central Hospital Supply Service Committee of the War Organization of the British Red Cross Society and Order of St. John of Jerusalem. In presenting this card, Lady Bridgeman stated that they were signed by Her Royal Highness, the Duchess of Gloucester, president of the Central Hospital

Supply Service; and it was hoped that it would be accepted "as a small token of appreciation of the invaluable and most generous help which had been afforded to the Red Cross and St. John War Organization by your members."

The certificate reads as follows: "Presented to Newton Chapter in recognition of valuable services rendered in the making of hospital supplies, during the World War from 1939." It will be kept at the Newton Chapter House, 21 Foster street, Newtonville.

B.U. Honor Education Group Initiate New Members

Instituting a new annual social affair, Alpha Gamma chapter of Boston University's national honorary society for women in Education, Pi Lambda Theta, held its first summer initiation and informal dinner in the University Woman's Building, on Wednesday.

Because a great many students come to Boston University's Summer Session to complete work for graduate degrees in Education, and are only at the University during that time, yearly summer initiations will be held to welcome students eligible to join the organization, according to current President Alice Crossley of West Medford. New officers to be installed at a future meeting are: President, Dorothy Stewart, Newton; Vice President, Marjorie Wry, head of the Counseling and Guidance Department of Simmons College; Secretary, Gertrude Welch, Newton; Treasurer, Sarah Dowe; Keeper of the Records, Margaret Walker, Weston; Adviser, Dean Elsie Melville University Dean of Women.

OUR TOWN AFTER MIDNIGHT

By PAUL CONSIDINE

Several years ago, this department's duties called for an appearance at the Newton depot, at 4:45 a.m., six days a week. John Gegan was station agent there, at that time, preparing for the law enforcement job he now holds, and if a dime had been deposited in Ben Louis' Bank for every argument we had with Gegan, in those days, we'd sure have a lot of 'em. We couldn't even agree on the hour of the day.

However, little more than kids, we had a common love—our delight in listening to the old timers awaiting the first Boston train. Most of them laborers on the road, they'd arrive at the station fully an hour before train time, a baker's dozen of them, and from then on, current events and world affairs took a classic shelling.

In overalls, their dinner pails beside them, they discussed and settled pretty nearly everything bothering the world, although, at times, they violently disagreed with science, history and certain geographical findings of the ages. One old timer, long since gone to his reward, jumped to his feet one morning, and brandishing his fist at the universe in general, declared: "The world isn't round at all, I traveled three thousands miles to get to this country and I've traveled thousands of miles here, too, and I'll be d... if every inch I traveled wasn't flat. They'r not pulling any of that 'round' shtuff over on me..."

INNOCENTS...
Innocents that they were, living was no problem. The sins of the world were venial ones. Early to bed—early to rise—with plenty of hard work between their creed. Attesting to their unworldliness, one of them arriving in the dark of a cold winter morning, informed the early arrivals that he'd just seen two "strapping looking lads" walking briskly along Washington street, two "fine looking girls at their sides." "Tis good," he said, "seein' the young people going to work so early in the morning."

"Yeah, you're right," agreed another. "I've said it before and I'll say it again. Any man or woman that lays in bed after five-o'clock in the morning, should be horsewhipped out o'it!"

The "strapping looking lads" and the "two fine looking girls," incidentally, were wearingly hoofing it home after kicking the gong around all night.

Holdups, robbery, murder and the various types of skulduggery are such common occurrences today, the average newspaper reader is beginning to accept the previous night's criminal harvest in pretty much the same manner the rest of us accept our peace envoys at the peace conference.

However, to those of us who are aware of the current offenses, as they come, hot, during the wee small hours, it's a fascinating business, following the police radio reports of the search and chase of the perpetrators...

"HOLDUP PULLED OFF..."

Last week for example, Bob Fitzgerald, driving one of the all-nite taxis in Newton, after almost four years with the Air Force in the South Pacific, drove his car to its place in line. At the taxi depot, nonchalantly entered his last trip on the way bill, and then, stepping out, informed his fellow drivers that "there'd just been a holdup pulled off in Newton Centre..."

"Yeah," he said "the cop up there stopped me as I came through about 2 a.m., and asked me if I'd give a Navy ensign transportation to Police Headquarters. I said sure and on the way down, the future admiral told me he'd just been held up. A couple of holdup gents, in a black Pontiac sedan, met him in Park Square, he said, and offered to drive him to Worcester for five bucks. It sounded like a good deal, so he tossed his well filled bag on the back seat, which was occupied by one of the gents and sat in front with the other..."

"DREW GUNS..."
"Somewhere around Parker street," continued Bob, the ensign said that "the gent in back drew a gun, the driver doing likewise, as he braked the car. They took his bag, valuable papers, his watch, ring and his money. He couldn't get the car's license number, he said, because they sped away without lights."

At Police Headquarters, the officer in charge, Sergeant Charles E. Walker, ordered a report of the holdup be sent out via teletype... Received in the various police stations throughout the state, the report was relayed to cruising cars by radio... In Brookline, at that time, officers in a cruiser, checking numbers of passing automobiles on the turnpike, alert for stolen cars, receiving the report, radioed their station that a car answering the description of the holdup vehicle, had passed them just two minutes before, traveling in the direction of Boston... and that they'd dotted down the registration number!

DISPATCHED CRUISER...
Receiving this information, Sergeant Walker checked the number by the Motor Registry files, immediately dispatching a cruiser, commanded by Sergeant Thomas McCormack, and two officers, Danile Calnan and David Kerr, to the address of the person to whom the car was registered.

Water Safe for Drinking Despite Discoloration

Health authorities have assured Newton residents that the City water is entirely safe for drinking purposes. Following recent complaints about the occasional appearance of discoloration in the water, they pointed out that consumers are protected by systematic chemical analysis of samples of the water to ascertain the bacteria count. The high consumption of water during the current hot weather is believed to be the cause of the discoloration. The daily consumption of water in Newton, before the recent rains, had reached record heights principally due to watering of lawns, which made it necessary for officials to request home owners to limit the watering.

Years ago Newton had a grave problem with the discoloration of the water, however, it was attributed to vegetable matter. The wells on the Needham reservation were the City's main source of supply and the difficulty vanished when officials had the wooden conduit replaced, plus an extensive program of cleaning out of water mains. The use of chlorine to treat the water has brought further improvement.

ATTENTION

An Army Recruiting Company will come to Newton from August 26 to August 31, with headquarters at the Fire Station in Newton Corner.

Hours are from 9:00 to 5:00. For information, contact Lt. Paul Shuman, Sgt. Edward Gaeta and Sgt. A. Romo, who will form the Newton staff.

Construction of Final Mile of Roadway Begun

The south roadway of Commonwealth avenue from Rowe to Lexington streets, Auburndale, has been closed for the work on the first section of the final mile of reconstruction. Outbound traffic will be routed to the north side of the avenue, which is too narrow for two-way traffic. Meanwhile, inbound traffic will be detoured down Lexington street to Auburn, back to Commonwealth avenue at the far side of Rowe street.

Street Commissioner Harold F. Young sent the following letter to residents of the north side of the avenue from Rowe street to Lexington road:

"On or about August 12, reconstruction will begin on the

Herter Favors Efficient Internat'l Relief Program

"The American decision to liquidate international governmental relief, at the Geneva Council session of UNRRA, will do more to destroy the foundations of future peace than any of the decisions being formulated at the Paris Peace Conference," said Mrs. Betty M. Jacobs, former Newton Centre resident in a visit to this city last week.

Mrs. Jacobs, who has been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Florence Briggs Muther at 21 Saxon terrace, Newton Highlands, has been commuting by plane between Philadelphia and Washington, as a consultant to the international relief agency now holding its fifth council session at Geneva, Switzerland.

Burglar Alarm Summons Police

An alarm at 4:18 a.m. and again at 4:26 caused police to hurry to the West Newton Branch of the Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company. The burglar alarm was set off twice but when police arrived to investigate they found the building secure. Vice-president George L. White was notified.

One of the first new industries to come to Newton is a plant to be built at 225 Needham street, Newton Highlands, on the grounds of the old Master and Wells Fireworks Company. The land was taken by the city for taxes and recently sold to the Deerfoot Farm Milk Company who plan the erection of a $350,000 milk processing plant. The company now has its plant in Southboro and expects to equip the Newton plant with the most modern machinery, according to Newton Chamber of Commerce Secretary, Rupert C. Thompson.

The ground, which has been idle for many years, contains 235,000 feet of land. The old fireworks buildings were razed after being declared a fire hazard. The new building of masonry, steel and concrete is to be 28 feet in height, 198 feet long and 146 feet wide. Architects are W. C. Stohli and R. G. Zetsche of White Plains, New York and the builder is G. A. Fuller of Boston. The City Building Department granted the Company a permit to begin work on the foundations, subject to final approval of the plans.

It is expected that 250 persons will be employed by Deerfoot in the processing of milk from the raw product. The new equipment is expected to include a newly developed cream separator.

Red Cross Chapter House Entered

A preliminary report has been made by Patrolman John J. Riley regarding the burglary in the Chapter House of the Newton Red Cross, 21 Foster street, Newtonville. The break was discovered by the caretaker, T. R. Feeney, who reported it to Newton police. Investigation is under the direction of Sgt. Richard L. Bannon.

Schools Open Monday, Sept. 9

All public schools in Newton will re-open on Monday, September 9. The high school pre-war hours of 8:30 to 2:30 will be restored. During the war, it was necessary to make a change in hours because of transportation conditions.

Sept. 23 and 24 are the last days for registration in the Newton Junior College. Students must register at the High school library.

Junior College Classes begin Monday, September 30.

Mother Green Named Dean of Sacred Heart College

Mother Ellen Green, former Dean of the College of the Sacred Heart, Manhattanville, New York, will be the new Dean of the College of the Sacred Heart, to be conducted at the old Schrafft estate on Centre street, Newton.

Registration will open at the new college on Monday, September 23, and classes will begin on Wednesday, September 25.

America and Her Inventions

As early as 1938, new government concepts accelerated attacks on free enterprise through seeking radical changes in patent laws. No land in the world has so prospered, due to well established patent laws fairly administered, as has ours, but the same trend of socialism, the same pinkish hue, years to liberalize the rights of use. The same paternal minds that believe in maintaining trends toward regimentation, and have surreptitiously worked government more and more into business by preconceived planning, are uniting to do a job on our inventors and aim to radically change our basic methods of protection.

What is taking place in connection with prospective patent laws should be actively viewed by our mass of Americans who value our individual ability to originate and initiate under protection in a free system. The present-day efforts to introduce legislation based on an anti-patent philosophy into Congress should be thwarted by an awakened citizenry. A wide interest should spread in such a basic factor before we find unwise changes in effect.

High Production - The Panacea for Our Ills

From all directions it appears conclusively that increased and sustained production will unlock many economic problems. Labor unions now urge full production to justify past and hoped-for wage increases, claiming that present prices are higher than needed, once full production is reached. Government and business organizations are concentrating on production.

The unions appear willing to test the claim that work stoppages can be controlled with workers and management agreeing on terms. Auto production has been held even yet to low figures through sporadic stoppage in plants making parts, but gradually the situation brightens.

The President has reversed a practice of five years in declining to seize plants making agricultural implements needed for harvesting the record-breaking crop which is forecast. It is evident that the Chief Executive sees us departing from war conditions. The new OPA bill is generally conceded as nowhere nearly as good for the country as the bill vetoed, but if subordinates carry out Porter's orders, which is questionable, better sense may govern that important operation and permit manufacturers to make goods.

Individual and organized accomplishment in reaching high production figures will meet the high demand from dire needs and higher incomes and prove to be the key to most economic ills of today. Let's get to work and get our neighbor also to go to work producing. Sustained activity in production will dissipate the "boom-and-bust" talk circulated by those who include every possibility in their predictions.

Party Platforms

It occurs to me that it might be helpful if one of these Gallup polls set out to determine the attitude of the general public concerning party platforms. What I have in mind is just this. During a very pleasant moonlight sail conducted by the Republican 21 Club I chanced to get involved in a lengthy argument with one or more progressive State Senators. A group of us, including a member of the Governor's Council and a newspaper publisher had been discussing what the Republican high-command would do about the now famous Barnes labor referenda this coming fall election. There appeared to be some little sentiment in favor of omitting this issue from the G. O. P. platform. That, incidentally, represents the attitude of many Republican leaders in past years, whenever an unduly controversial issue has arisen. For that matter, I guess the Democrats have done a little dodging of their own, despite the fact that quite a few people have an idea that the Democracy is apt to be more courageous in these matters.

Right here let me state my own opinion about the matter. I appreciate, of course, that my views are not particularly popular with many big-shot Republicans. That, incidentally, does not prove that my position is not sound. My own view is that the average voter has become disgusted with the manner in which BOTH major parties have handled many controversial issues of importance. I challenge anybody anywhere to disprove my contention that the typical party platform, and especially that of the Republican party, is much more apt to dodge vital issues than it is to meet them fairly and squarely.

What am I getting at? Simply this. These two Barnes proposals, one to compel labor unions to make a regular financial report, just as business concerns are obliged to, and the other, to forbid financial contributions by labor unions in a political campaign, are matters of vital importance to the welfare of the state as a whole. Incidentally, any fair-minded person who studies this issue will have to admit that neither an Attorney General Barnes nor any other proponent of these two policies can be fairly tagged as anti-labor merely because he sympathizes with them and works for their enactment into law. The very fact that labor leaders have done everything in their power to block this legislation and even to prevent the taking of a harmless referendum indicates that they are not too sure of their own position. Why should anybody be afraid of a referendum? It merely indicates the sincere desire of the entire body of voters.

Despite what I have just said, the cold, hard facts are that the G. O. P. high-command will be very happy if it can avoid even mentioning these Barnes proposals in the official party platform. As for the Democrats, you may be sure that they will either dodge the matter or else come out openly against them.

My own position is that both major parties have more to gain than to lose by showing a little intestinal fortitude and telling the huge body of independent voters in this state precisely where they stand. How can we expect the independent voter to join a major party when that party does not have the courage to take a stand on vital issues? Let party leaders mull that over.

Russia

The disturbing news of the flight of brilliant rockets over Sweden at a speed of 600 miles per hour makes one wonder where they come from. Can we blame people if they instinctively suspect our Soviet ally? What other nation could possibly be involved? Let my readers name a single one and give a reasonable explanation why said nation should commit such an act, especially when a so-called peace conference is in session in Paris.

Have you ever wondered why more stress is not laid on the advisability of devoting far more time to mass education of our own people as regards Russia, but more especially the education of Russians in connection with the customs, the policies and the ideals of the United States? When we hear, from time to time, of unrest among the common people of Russia, due to their inferior living standards, does it not seem worth-while to take steps to promote mutual understanding? For example, think how much good would be accomplished if hundreds of college students went from one country to the other and then brought back to their own country the wealth of knowledge they had gained. If the Russians permitted it, the same thing could be done with groups of newspapermen, actors, businessmen and scores of others. It seems to me that we must take drastic steps along these lines, and FAST, if we hope to really secure a lasting peace.

Prowlers Busy During Week-end

George Chansky, 7 Rangeley road, West Newton reported Saturday that a prowler attempted to open the screen on the rear door of his home. Patrolmen Harold L. Elliott, Owen T. Quinn, Louis Cedrone and Joseph Devoy went to Chansky's home, however, the thief had been frightened away. Mr. Chansky later reported that the front door of his home had been forced and the top drawer of a table in the front hall had been ransacked, but that nothing was missing.

George Harper of 11 Channing street, Newton, reported that a man, in khaki shirt, had pushed up the window screen at the rear of his house at about 3:26 a.m. Sunday. Patrolmen Thomas B. Concannon, Francis Turner and Augustus White investigated and searched the section as Harper said "the man had just walked away down Thornton street."

An attempt was made to enter the home of Mary J. Buckley, 33 Mount Alvernia road, Newton, while occupants were away. The garage was entered by breaking a panel in the door and the door leading from the cellar to the kitchen had been forced. Dr. John L. Doherty of 7 Commonwealth avenue, Newton, reported to Boston police that his car, which was parked in Back Bay, was broken into and a $40. record machine stolen.

Other reports of prowlers in various parts of the city were made to Newton police by Richard McLeod of 107 Edinboro street, Newtonville; Richard Madanjan of 28 Williams street, Newton Upper Falls, and John Ahearn, 24 Henshaw street, West Newton.

Word has been received by Commissioner Edmund T. Dungan of the Veterans' Service Department, from Mrs. Doris Kappius of Brookline, that her husband, Lt.-Com. Melvin V. Kappius, formerly of 177 Valentine street, West Newton, was killed in the South Pacific. Born in Lincoln, Nebraska, Com. Kappius entered the Navy in April, 1942. He was reported as missing in the South-west Pacific last year and was officially pronounced dead several months ago.

This brings the number of Gold Stars on the Newton honor roll to 262. The total number of Newton residents who served in World War II is now 9182, according to Department records. In addition to the 262 killed, there are still three listed as missing.

ONE SPRAYING STOPS MOTH DAMAGE

For 5 Years

OR YA-DE MAKES GOOD YOUR LOSS!

Good Housekeepers say "YA-DE is the finest mothproof I have ever used." Here are YA-DE's points of superiority:

- Odorless
- Inexpensive
- Non-Inflammable
- Harmless to Fabrics
- Unaffected by Dry Cleaning
- Guaranteed for Five Years

YA-DE has been called a "miracle mothproof." One spraying of YA-DE on your clothing, rugs, furniture, etc., and your moth worries are over for years. YA-DE is so good it is backed by a 5-year written guarantee. This guarantee is like an insurance policy in that if moth damage occurs within 5 years, YA-DE will repair, replace or pay for the damage. And the important thing is that YA-DE costs less and is easier to use.

MOTHS EAT ALL YEAR 'ROUND
As long as the temperature in your home is 55-degrees or more, moths will eat your clothing, woolens, rugs, furniture, etc. YA-DE provides year 'round in or out of storage protection. When you buy woolen articles — no matter if it is January or July — you should treat your purchases with YA-DE at once! Remember, Moths do more damage than fire and you need YA-DE's "insurance like" protection.

Life at the Charles River Country Club

Twenty-five Years in a Golfer's Paradise

By PAUL CONSIDINE

Last Monday, Phil Ahlin, catching up with this writer just as the wheels of our nice new 1946 sedan began turning in the direction of Falmouth, gave us a souvenir book to take along. It would be good reading, he said, as we lounged around on the sunny sands down there. The readin' is good, too, in this beautiful book, the "Silver Anniversary Edition" containing the account of the achievements wrought during the last quarter of a century, up there in Oak Hill, at the Charles River Country Club.

How It All Began . . .

The sunny sands are a bit wet right now, possibly because it's raining here for a couple of days. So, lacking the hardihood of the Charles River golfers, we've been more or less housebound. However, the heavy dew has given us a chance to find that, according to E. Ray Spears, incorporator and the club's first treasurer, it became apparent, in 1920, that golfing facilities in the Newtons were being used to capacity. Many felt there was a fine opportunity to establish another golf club in Newton, so Donald Ross, the leading golf course designer, at that time, carefully looked over the Ming Farm property in the Oak Hill district of the city. His favorable report resulted in its purchase, also of adjacent land needed to complete the required layout for an attractive 18 hole course. The officers of the Club, at the time of its organization were: S. Harold Greene, president; Barton K. Stephenson, vice president; E. Roy Speare, treasurer, and George W. Pratt, secretary.

Milestones . . .

The Club has had its ups and downs, plenty of 'em, weathering everything that came its way, until it attained its present enviable status. A few of the milestones in the "River's" history, before us here on page nine, include the first meeting of the incorporators, December 21, 1920, at 71 Federal Street, Boston . . . May 25, 1921, a contract was signed with Donald Ross to supervise building of the course . . . September 15, 1921, nine fairways and 14 greens were seeded . . . October 14, 1921, initial tea and housewarming in the club house . . . John J. Keenan hired as professional, April 1, 1922 . . . In the Spring of 1922 the locker building was rebuilt . . . June 17, 1922, course opened for play. Club's stables burned, and a new building was erected on the site to house garage, laundry and storehouse, in the summer of 1922 . . . The first exhibition match: Walter Hagen (British Open Champion) Gene Sarazen (American Open Champion) Joe Kirkwood and Francis Ouimet, was held on August 24, 1922 . . . The tennis courts were flooded for skating, flood lights were installed and a toboggan slide was built above the 16th green, in the winter of 1925 . . . In the fall of 1930 a skeet club was organized . . . The new 18th hole was ready for play August 1931 . . . A skating pond was dug and a log cabin built in the winter of 1935-1936. During this season, too, a winter-sports membership was established . . . $5000 was spent in clearing the course of trees after the hurricane, September 21, 1938 . . . A fire in the club house caused damage of $13,533, in the summer of 1942 . . . In the spring of 1944, a bank loan, once $75,000, was completely paid. Guarantors of the loan attended the note burning rites, August 22, 1945.

Stories and Reminiscences . . .

Francis Ouimet writes of "Pleasant Memories." He recalls, with pleasure the fourball match, Aug. 1922, between Walter Hagen, Joe Kirkwood, Gene Sarazen and himself—and of the match against Gene Sarazen, at the "River" . . . William "Bill" Grimes tells of "Golf Reporting at the River" . . . Helen Geregian, Chairman Women's Golf Committee, gave her views of "Golf on the Distaff Side" . . . Co-chairman, Men's Golf Committee, Eric Bianchi, told of "Our Professionals" . . . Fred Corcoran, Tournament Manager, Professional Golfer's Association, gave an excellent account of "The Big Eight" and their activities at the Charles River Country Club . . . Scott Wells told of "Winter at the River" and the title of Warren Beard's article was "Shot Any Skeet Lately."

The advertising in the souvenir book is typical of the humor and good-fellowship up there at the Charles River Country Club. Fred Bailey's ad, for instance: "We Insure Everything Except Slices and Missed Putts. Our Rates on $5 Nassaus Are Worth Investigating. We Point To 25 Years of Successful Dickering on the First Tee." Bristol Liquors Inc. . . "No Bottled in Bond. No Bourbon. No Scotch. No Nothing!" Jack Kaup's . . . "You'd Be Surprised To Know How Much My Practice Interferes With My Golf. So Please Don't Make Conditions Worse By Calling On Me—Professionally, That Is." Frank King's: "Attention, Members! Just Try To Get 10% Discount On All Securities Purchased Through My Office. JUST TRY TO GET IT!" . . . And last, but not least, Sam Burns' little message to the world: "A Year Ago, I Was A Tired, Sick, Worried and Discouraged Man. I Joined Charles River . . . Then Voiciks!"

air power, commercial, and personal type planes and to increase the air-consciousness of the region.

Highlight of the four-day spectacular exhibition will be twice-daily flying performances by a score of Army Air Forces planes piloted by crack wartime pilots. Superforts, Mustangs, Avengers, transport planes, and the newly developed P-80 jet-propelled "Shooting Star" are among the newest and deadliest AAF planes that will take part in thrilling sham warfare tactics directly over the field.

The New England Air Show also will feature an elaborate display of the newest personal planes. Manufacturers from all parts of the country have entered their latest models in the exhibition. Each plane will be described to spectators and between events on the action-packed program, private flights may be made.

In addition, the Army Air Forces Caravan, an 11-car exhibition of non-flying AAF equipment, will be on display at the Bedford field throughout the show. The Caravan includes the JD-2, the American rocket bomb, a complete mobile Army photo lab, an AAF mobile machine shop capable of repairing any type of plane, an Emergency Airfield Lighting Truck, Blind Landing Truck, Pratt and Whitney airplane engine, and scores of other instruments and equipment used to keep the Air Forces planes in the air.

Army Air Forces generals and New England civic officials will attend the opening of the show, August 15. Special services will be held on the field marking the first anniversary of the end of the late war before Army planes pass in salute over the field in a V-J Day tribute. Governor Maurice J. Tobin officially will open the show and chief executives of the five other New England states have been invited to attend.

stewardess school in Chicago, according to company announcement. She is already following her new career in the sky, flying on United's eastern division, which extends from Denver, Colo., to the Atlantic seaboard. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ledbetter of 40 Pine Crest road, Newton Centre. Prior to joining United Air Lines, she was a member of the WAC.

Born in Ohio, Miss Ledbetter moved to Newton Centre at an early age. She was graduated from Newton High School in 1941, and from Lasell Junior College in 1943, where she was a member of the Glee Club, the Drama Club, the French Club and the Modern Dance Workshop.

Chagnon, Named City Chairman Of Republican Finance Club

Amesbury and Ten Broeck Jr. Chosen Vice Chairmen

Three Newton men, prominent in Middlesex county Republican circles, have accepted important posts in the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee, according to an announcement made by Frederic Winthrop, chairman of the state organization.

Wilfred Chagnon, 425 Centre street, Newton, president of the

WILFRED CHAGNON

Massachusetts State Pharmaceutical Association, was named city chairman, with Walter R. Amesbury, Auburndale, and S. J. Ten Broeck, Jr., of Newton Centre, serving as vice chairman of the committee's activities during its current drive.

A graduate of New York Dental School, Mr. Chagnon is president of F. A. Hubbard Company, Inc., and is past commissioner, Massachusetts Board of Registration in Pharmacy. He is also associated with Newton Community Chest Drives and Red Cross, Kiwanis and Elks' charity work.

One of the most active men in the state, he holds membership in the Boston Drug Association, is past vice president of the Mass. Pharmaceutical Assn.; a member of the National Retail Drug Assn., member of the American Pharmaceutical Association; fellow, American College of Apothecaries; member, Kappa Psi; past vice president of the Kiwanis; past officer of the Elks of Newton; director of the Newton Chamber of Commerce; and member of the Boston University Club and several other organizations.

Mr. Ten Broeck, who makes his home at 77 Allerton road, Newton Centre, is associated with Estabrook & Company, State street, downtown Boston banking firm.

A graduate of Worcester Academy and Boston University,

Class of 1923, he has been associated with Newton Community Chest drives and other charitable work for several years. He served on the Citizens' Advisory Committee for Returning Veterans of Newton.

Mr. Amesbury, who lives at 19 Berkeley place in Auburndale, is also well known in Greater Boston banking circles, being director of the Auburndale Co-operative Bank, Newton National Bank and the Newton Savings Bank. He is treasurer of Lasell Junior College and administrator and treasurer of the Waltham Hospital in Waltham. He also served on the committee for returning Newton veterans.

year and principal of the Stowe, Vermont High school 3 years. Mr. Pray succeeds Haydn S. Pearson, who resigned for reasons of health. He has been on a leave of absence for a year during which time Miss Marion S. Hamilton was acting principal. Mr. Pearson is well known as an author and publisher. His two books, "Country Flavor" and "How To Make A Living on A Small Farm," have attained the distinction of best sellers.

Mr. Pray, who assumes his duties on Sept. 1st, has three daughters, and will make his home in the Waverly Oaks section of Waltham.

Pass Red Cross Swimming Tests

Newton boys and girls continue to pass their tests under the Water Safety Program of the Newton Red Cross. The latest names to be released are as follows: Intermediates: John McNeil, Donald MacDonald, Marie Piotti, Anne Lavin, Thomas Donnelly, Jane Phalon, Joyce Buckley; Beginners: John Cawley, Francis Hines, Frederick Fitzgerald, Frederick Fraser, and Louise Smith.

Auto Sounds Own Fire Alarm

An automobile horn served as a fire alarm on Friday when a car parked at 65 Falmouth road, West Newton, burst into flames which caused the horn to blow. Residents investigating the noise, discovered the fire, and telephoned the Fire Department. Engine 2, of West Newton, responded and within 40 minutes had extinguished the blaze and discontinued the horn.

that starvation and destitute, homeless hordes of human beings are one of the most dynamic breeding grounds for war.

"UNRRA undoubtedly made a great many mistakes in its initial period of operations," said Mrs. Jacob, "but critics forget that UNRRA was organized two years before the end of war and got only the left-overs in personnel, supplies and shipping. Moreover, UNRRA is the first international agency to undertake an administrative task; and the task was far more gigantic than anyone had visualized. In Jugoslavia every locomotive was destroyed, in China 190 out of 200 railroad bridges on the Canton to Hankow line had to be replaced. In spite of these obstacles, UNRRA has done splendid work."

Christian A. Herter, Newton's representative in Congress, has been a leader in the fight for a strong, efficient international relief program, according to Mrs. Jacob. Mr. Herter's experience as a member of the American Relief Administration after World War I and as an American representative to the UNRRA Council session in London last year has particularly qualified him to understand the complexities of this gigantic program.

Newton's representative is the author of the Herter amendments which were attached to both the authorization and the appropriation bills. These amendments accomplished two useful purposes; they strengthened the administration of UNRRA, at the same time eliminating any weaknesses which had brought undue criticism of the entire international relief operation.

Senator Saltonstall was one of the staunchest supporters of the amended bills in their passage through the upper chamber.

Construction

struction of the south roadway on Commonwealth avenue will be started. It will be necessary to detour traffic to the north roadway. Due to the narrowness of this roadway, it would be appreciated if residents would park cars in their driveways while the detour is in operation. Children should be warned of the increased traffic during this period.

The road, which will eventually go to the Weston line, was under construction before the war; and work was suspended during the war because of lack of materials. The cost of the final mile is to be about $50,000, of which the City will pay $25,000 and the remainder be divided in equal parts by the State and County. The work from Rowe to Lexington street is expected to take from 10 days to two weeks.

Our Town—

Joined by Boston police, they journeyed to East Boston, left a guard at the address at which the car was registered, and cruising around the all-night cafes, spotted a black Pontiac just as it was pulling away from the curb adjoining one of the more popular cafes over there.

According to police the two occupants surrendered without a struggle and the loot was found in their possession. Both pleaded guilty to armed robbery before Judge W. Lloyd Allen, in Newton Court, Saturday, each being held in $10,000 bail.

BUT ONE OF MANY INCIDENTS . . .

That's but one of the many incidents of the nighttime here in the quiet Garden City. This writer is preparing to leave for Falmouth as this pillar takes form, and time flits. But last Sunday morning, for instance, between 4 and 4:30 a.m., an emergency call from Channing street, brought police to the scene, seeking a prowler who'd raised a window screen, preparatory to forcing an entrance . . . the fire department was called to Central and Maple streets, Auburndale and Doctor Dick Shields burned up the roads to the Waltham Hospital, so's to help relieve a suffering human.

BATHTUBS ARE DANGEROUS . . .

According to the newspapers, it took a police emergency crew of eight men two hours to extricate a 280-pound Brooklyn woman from a bathtub in which she had become wedged. As the story goes, she daringly took a chance, so's to clean up a little, and remained a prisoner in the devilish thing for seventeen hours.

That's not local news, of course, but since reading about that poor Brooklyn woman's plight, a lot of us down this way, are worrying about the hazard facing Police Officer John McMullen, in the event he decides to take a bath. We've never caught up with Officer McMullen's weight, being as how the local penny scales are somewhat delicate, but at Lieutenant Eddie Moan's testimonial dinner, Nelson McGrath delivered a toast in which he said that John had been removed as traffic officer in Newton Corner because one trailer truck and Officer McMullen, in the Corner at the same time, constituted a grave traffic menace.

The Community Service sponsored by the churches of Newton will be held on Sunday, August 18th, in the Eliot Church at eleven o'clock. The preacher will be Dr. Russell C. Tuck, Professor of New Testament Literature in the Andover Newton Theological School. The organist at this service will be Mr. John H. Miller, organist of the Presbyterian Church, Brookline, and the soloist is Miss Eleanor Davis, contralto member of the Eliot Church Quartet.

at the rear of the building, the thief, or thieves, leaving by the front door, which was found open. J. P. Morgan of 116 Fester street, Newtonville, who is doing redecorating work in the building, reported that he saw two men on the front porch, who rang the bell and departed when no one answered.

Mrs. Francis Harris, executive secretary of the Newton Red Cross, was unable to tell what was taken, because of the renovating being done at the house.

$45,000,000 for what it takes
Telephone Service

BUILDING better telephone service for more New England people takes plenty of equipment, manpower and money. Here's some of the equipment needed to do this big job: new switchboards and dial equipment in most of our 600 central offices; new buildings or additions in over 200 places; hundreds of miles of new wire and cables; tens of thousands of instruments.

Although material shortages have delayed our production schedules, telephone factories are turning out this needed plant. And just as fast as we can get it, we're building the bigger telephone system that will eventually give service to everyone who wants it.

Where is the money coming from to pay for this expansion and improvement program? As always, it must come from the hard-earned savings of careful, thrifty people who are willing to invest in the telephone business. A reasonable return on their investment will be needed to attract the money which will result in better telephone service for New England.

Marriages

Phaneuf-Schimpeler

A wedding of Newton interest which took place on Saturday in Louisville, Kentucky, was that of

and Philip Edmund Phaneuf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Phaneuf

enue, Newton Centre. White gladioli against a background of ferns decorated St. Francis of Assisi Church in Louisville for the nine o'clock ceremony. The Rev. Edward Link officiated and a reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Schimpeler.

gown trimmed with seed pearls and a double veil of illusion from an orchid headress. White orchids, with roses, also decorated her white satin prayer book. She was attended by Mrs. J. J. Worden of Louisville, as matron of honor; and her sister, Miss Carmen Schimpeler, also of Louisville, was a bridesmaid with the bridegroom's sister, Miss Natalie

Phaneuf of Newton Centre. All attendants wore pink net off-the-shoulder gowns, trimmed with

French blue grosgrain ribbon and carried bouquets of mixed summer flowers which matched their headresses.

Charles A. Phaneuf, of Newton Centre, was the best man for

ed Joseph Ratterman, Carl R.

Kaster, Henry M. Schimpeler, all

of Buffalo, New York.

Mrs. Phaneuf attended Nazareth College and Louisiana State

University. Mr. Phaneuf prepared at Chauncy Hall and was graduated from Massachusetts

Institute of Technology with the class of 1942. Following a wedding trip to the Edgewater Beach

Hotel, Chicago, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Phaneuf plan to make their home in Beverly.

Eaton - Buttler

Miss Ruth Ann Buttler, daughter of Mrs. Frank Buttler, of Alexandria, Va., and the late Mr.

Buttler of Bridgeport, Conn., and

Lieut. (j.g.) John David Eaton,

U.S.N., son of Mrs. Clifford Eaton of 127 Fairway drive, West

in St. Andrew's Chapel at Annapolis, Md. Chaplain Roy Bishop officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John How-

gown of ivory satin trimmed with seed pearls. Her fingertip length veil was held by a cap of rose point lace, and she carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

Mrs. John D. Dodge was the matron of honor. Her frock was of white faille with a powder blue belt, and she wore a hat of pow-

was a cascade of lilacs.

James C. Eaton was his brother's best man and the ushers were

rence Williams, Jr., Walter C.

Imbrie and Ensign Cecil Hull.

The reception was held at Carvel Hall in Annapolis, and the

Island, where they are spending their honeymoon. They will make their home in Philadelphia, Pa.

School in Alexandria and Oak

Grove Seminary in Vassalboro,

Maine. She was graduated from

Colby Junior College in New London, N. H., and from the Katherine Gibbs School in Boston. She made her debut at historic Gadsby's Tavern in Alexandria in 1941

Lt. Eaton attended Phillips Exeter Academy in Exeter, N. H., and was graduated from the Naval Academy in 1944. Since his graduation, he has been attached to the USS Wasp.

Richardson - Duff

In the Central Congregational church, Newtonville, on Saturday,

Miss Jean M. Duff became the bride of Harold P. Richardson,

Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold

P. Richardson of 37 Wilde road,

Waban. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Franklin

Bower of Madison, Connecticut, and a reception followed at the

and Mrs. Alan D. Duff of 119

Lowell avenue, Newtonville.

The bride's gown of white tulle was styled with a full skirt and

length organza veil trimmed with

white orchids. Miss Helen Duff was the maid of honor wearing a gown of gold tulle and carrying African daisies.

Robert Lincoln Newbert, of

Cambridge, was the best man

of Beverly, Owen Douglas Duff of Newton, John Reitz of Brook-

Connecticut.

Mrs. Richardson graduated

and attended St. Albans Naval Hospital. She served with the WAVES as an X-ray technician

for two and one-half years. Mr.

By O. O. CLAPPER
"Grass Seed"

What is grass or lawn seed? To the average person it is that little bag of brown stuff which is scattered over the lawn twice a year and which seeds produce green plants. Little does the average person know of the romance that goes into the growing, harvesting and compounding of the mixture so casually purchased and scattered over the lawn.

While there are many different species of seeds commonly called lawn or grass seeds we can roughly divide them into three classes for the purpose of this article. The common annuals which are usually the larger and cheaper seeds having a normal life of one year. The perennials are the smaller and middle size seeds which live for more than one year. The legumes such as clover which take their nitrogen from the air and are often liked by some in lawn seeds but are highly undesirable in many lawns.

Each of these seeds has its preference as to the type of soil, the amount of solid moisture, degree of acidity or alkalinity, etc. Therefore a lawn seed mixture is made up of various portions of each of the seeds to give a proper stand of grass or turf under normal conditions. Special blends or mixtures are made up for special soils or unusual uses such as putting greens, athletic fields, meadows, etc.

The average lawn soil of New England differs from that of Iowa, New Jersey or Missouri so one seed mixture is not possible for all conditions. When spending time and money to prepare a seed bed it is well to consider buying a seed mixture known to be satisfactory for this section and also the best mixture. The money spent for seed is but a small part of the investment in labor and other materials.

Most mixtures will contain one of the common nurse grasses. That is one of the lower priced seeds which germinates quickly and which will grow faster thereby offering not only shade to the slower and finer grasses but will prevent wash or soil erosion until the turf is more firmly established. Is it any wonder that you are disappointed in your lawn when after one or two years there is nothing left but weeds or coarse grasses? The annual or common grasses died after their normal life thereby creating voids which filled in with blown in weed seeds. To prevent this check carefully from the label (the Federal Seed Law specifies that interstate seed mixtures must show on the package the percentage of pure seeds and the names of seeds) and shay away from a mixture having too large a proportion of annual seeds or one which has low germination of good seeds. You know a seedsman can vary his cost of the mixture by adding more of the cheap seeds and less or none of the perennial seeds and make a mixture to fit your purse but seldom will you find a reputable seed house with such a poor grade already packaged bearing his name. Beware of the ash can variety of lawn seed as they are usually annual seed or field variety rather than lawn grade. On the contrary buy packaged seeds showing the seedsman's name, address, purity and germination, then, if you have a failure you have redress.

The lawn seed mixtures which you will buy this fall and next spring will be inferior to those of the past years. The reason is that the crop of 1946 is but a fraction of normal and there is not enough good seed, such as Kentucky Bluegrass, to go around hence mixtures will contain less of this seed (which is not too bad for New England). The quality of seeds will be high but the percentage of perennials will be necessarily lower. As a matter of fact there are many agronomists who feel that New England lawn seeds should contain less Bluegrass so what may be an inferior mixture by comparison to past experience might work out as being even more satisfactory, providing the shortage of Bluegrass is not made up by excessive amounts of Ryegrass, and Timothy. Again the mixture as shown on the label is most important.

Do more seeding this fall, buy best quality obtainable and plant when the seed bed is properly prepared and well fertilized is sound advice today.

Arabella M. Mansfield was the first American woman lawyer. She was admitted to the Iowa bar in 1869.

NEWTON

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

The Newton Fire Department along with its regular calls for extinguishing fires receives many calls for humanitarian work.

First aid calls requiring the use of the resuscitator or the inhalator are varied. It may be for a drowning, attempted suicide by inhaling carbon monoxide fumes from a running auto engine, or by opening the illuminating gas jets in a building, various types of shocks, smoke inhalation at fires, etc.

In emergency cases such as heart attacks and pneumonia, where the patient cannot be moved to a hospital or an oxygen tent is not readily available, the fire department is called on to supply oxygen or carbon (carbon is composed of usually 93 percent oxygen and 7 percent carbon dioxide. The carbon dioxide has the ability to stimulate the function of breathing which oxygen alone does not always do).

These calls are usually placed by the attending physician and the fire department operates under his directions. When there is no physician present the firemen that respond to the call go to work and continue their efforts until a doctor does arrive. They then report their progress to him and continue under his directions.

The Newton Fire Department resuscitators are of modern design and the firemen are familiar with their correct operation. The resuscitator functions automatically after it has been set up and the correct adjustments to suit the patient's case.

The inhalator, unless it is just being used to administer oxygen or carbon must be used with artificial respiration.

The department has had many calls for this equipment and have accomplished some excellent results.

The fire department is trying to do its part to make and keep Newton a safer city for you to live in, your cooperation will make it a success.

Civilian Summer Sessions at High School Close

The summer session for civilian students at Newton High school closed August 9 after a 6-week period. The summer school for veterans continued one more week.

Charles H. Mergendahl, director of both summer schools, announced that 313 civilian students and 157 veterans took part in the summer instruction. Mr. Mergendahl was assisted by Miss Jane Abbott, registrar of the new Junior College, and assistant director of the summer school.

The 14 teachers whose summer duties expired were members of the regular high school faculty as follows: Francesco Argento, Miss Mary Cleveland T. Jerome Cutting, Frank J. Daily, Francis L. Foster, Ethel Ham, Mrs. Mary J. Hogan, Richard Hubbard, Miss Alice J. Kennedy, Marion B. McGuire, Miss Frances Mendell, Radcliffe Morrill, Ann Sanguinetti and H. L. Walen.

The teaching staff of eight faculty members who instructed in the veterans school comprised the following: Abner Bailey, Leo Barry, Russell Fitz, Richard Hubbard, Miss Anne Leathers, Miss Ann Sanguinetti, Robert Sweeney and B. L. Wilson.

Instruction in the summer school for civilians was offered at a fee for both Newton citizens and outsiders.

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

Ask for the new B. F. Goodrich
Silvertown tube

Ever notice how a toy balloon will shrink to half its size over night, even though the stem is tightly sealed? Scientists explain how the air works its way through the rubber, but the point is, the same thing happens in a smaller degree with most all inner tubes. B. F. Goodrich is now making a new tube that cuts the escape of air. It holds air many times longer than prewar tubes.

Constant air pressure gives tires better mileage and lessens the chances of damage from cuts and bruises.

The new B. F. Goodrich tube is tougher... resists tearing better. If punctured, is less likely to split or be seriously injured.

For quicker delivery of both the tire and OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES and the tube made to go with it, see us soon.

HAY FEVER RELIEF

Local deliveries of amazing new electronic air cleaning unit now being made from factory in Waltham

Night after night of restless, untroubled sleep all through the hay fever season. Day after day of peaceful comfort in the office or home... complete freedom from misery caused by hay fever pollen. These blessings you can enjoy today... with a Raytheon Precipitator!

This amazing new unit is not an air conditioner. It's not a filter. It is an electrostatic air cleaner that screens out particles of pollen, dust, soot, smoke or other contamination as small as 1/250,000th of an inch in diameter!

THE COST IS NOT HIGH FOR SUCH RELIEF

Even if you regard the Raytheon Precipitator solely as a hay fever relief measure, it costs less than "going away." And remember — after the hay fever season is over, it will go on keeping your bedroom, living room or office clean and fresh all year long — protecting draperies and furnishings, saving cleaning bills and housework. It's an investment in cleanliness as well as comfort — and it costs no more to operate than a 100-watt bulb.

Only a limited number of Raytheon Precipitators will be available this hay fever season. Get yours at once — and for the first time look forward to real relief from hay fever misery!

"My Bank'll Take Care of That!"

Not everything, of course—but it's surprising how many things our bank will take care of for you, if you'll let us.

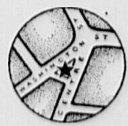

For instance—a home of your own. You can lay the foundation by starting a SAVINGS ACCOUNT, adding to it regularly. We'll help it grow faster by adding regular dividends, twice a year. Later, we'll arrange a MORTGAGE to help pay for your home—tailored to your particular needs.

Protection for your family? We'll help you buy it through SAVINGS BANK LIFE INSURANCE—the cheapest form of life insurance available anywhere. We sell it "over the counter" for every member of the family (yes, even the baby!)

Paying bills? With our REGISTER CHECKS we'll help you pay them safely, quickly and give you a permanent record of every transaction. Cost?—just 10c a check (up to $100).

Christmas presents—vacations—taxes, and other once-a-year expenses? We have SPECIAL SAVINGS CLUBS to cover any or all of them.

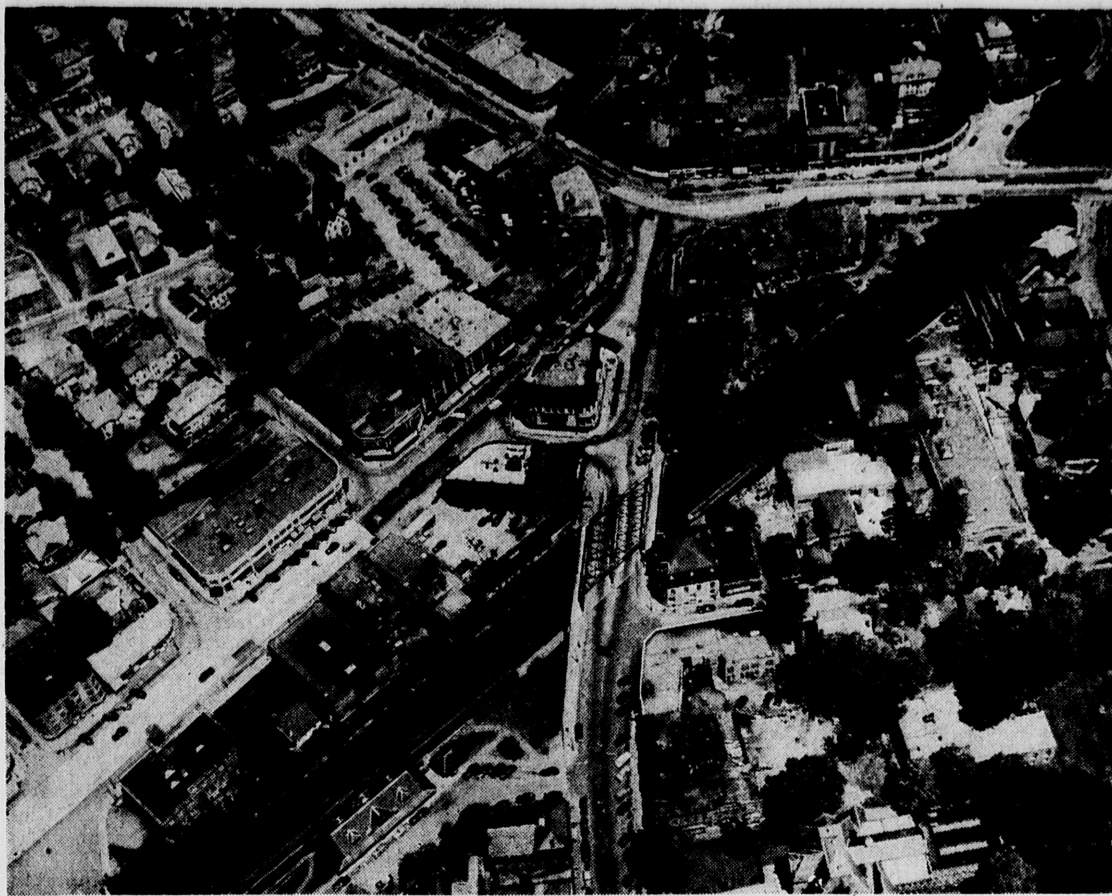

Yes, a banking connection can help you in many ways—and not the least of them is giving you a place to come to talk over any financial question. Our customers feel free to consult us at any time—because they know us well enough to know we like it!

OUR TOWN AFTER MIDNIGHT

By PAUL CONSIDINE

Since the deputy fire chiefs began taking their annual vacations, Captain Tom Enegess of Station 1 House has taken over the duties of each in turn. All of which means that when an alarm of fire is sounded, either from a box or by telephone, Cap's big automobile roars from the fire house in the general direction of man's ancient enemy, so's to direct the various engine and ladder crews in their labors which, by the way, have kept Newton's fire insurance rates in the state's lowest brackets.

The other early a.m., this writer talked with Enegess after he'd returned from a futile dash to Central and Maple streets, Auburndale, in which locality a false alarm had been sounded. Sleepy-eyed and much provoked with the imbecile or, maybe imbeciles, who'd awaken a fire captain from his slumbers needlessly, it was his opinion that if those who enjoy sounding false alarms knew of the many firefighters injured while answering them, the outposts would reform and, he hoped, regain their sanity... especially the ones who operated in the early morning hours...

THIRTEEN VILLAGES... Of Newton's thirteen villages, it's always been this pillar's opinion that Auburndale, Newton Highlands and West Newton Hill, in that order, are the three most desirable localities in which to live. There's Waban, of course, but in the case of that village, honesty prompts the admission that we've never been invited up there. As a matter of fact, we've never been sure that we'd even

Centre Street Reconstruction Work To Start Monday

Work on the reconstruction of Centre street from Bellevue street, Newton to the Turnpike will begin on Monday, the Newton Board of Aldermen having this week appropriated an additional sum of $4000 to make up the difference between the estimated cost of sewer work and the amount previously appropriated for this project which is one of the largest road construction projects the city has undertaken in recent years.

Del Monte Elected President State Federation of Labor

At the annual convention of the Massachusetts State Federation of Labor, held in Worcester on Friday, John J. DelMonte, was elected president for a one-year term, succeeding Thomas W. Bowe of Boston.

Mr. DelMonte became active in labor organization when he was named trustee of Local 379, Teamsters Union, of Boston in 1932. In 1937 he became business representative of the local and a year later was named reading clerk of the Boston Central Labor Union, which includes all A. F. of L. locals in greater Boston. In 1940 he became vice-president of the Central Union and since 1942 has been president. Since

The work will be done by the John McDonald Construction Company of Newton, their bid being the lowest, and the overall cost will be over $260,000 of which $11,500 is for a new sewer from Lombard street to near Bellevue street.

The new road will be of steel reinforced concrete in the center with bituminous concrete at the sides. The first section to be done will be in Newton Centre from Willow street to Cypress street and a plan to re-route traffic is being worked out by the Street and Traffic Department officials.

The Board also appropriated an additional sum of $4,250 for Newton's share in the cost of the work being done on Commonwealth avenue. Under Chapter 90 of the General Laws half of the cost of this project is borne by the state, and the remainder is shared by the city and county. An appropriation of $5,500 was made for sewer work on Win-

600 Youngsters at Read Fund Picnic

The annual Read Fund picnic was held at the Burr Playground, Newton, on Friday. It is made possible by funds bequeathed for the purpose by one of Newton's leading citizens. More than 600 youngsters and their parents were present.

A procession of 22 decorated carriages featured the program. The winners were Robert Reardon, "Atomic Age"; Anita Carr, "Miss America," and Priscilla Greene, "American Beauty."

John B. Dacey, supervisor of the section, was in charge, assisted by the following instructors: Guy Baker, Helen Anderson, Louise Daly, William Powers, Chester Jenkins, Francis T. Callahan, Catherine E. Harney, Anne Brady and Richard Gleason.

The day was taken up in dashes, potato races, snatch the bean bag, and tug of war. Prizes were awarded for girls' and boys' handwork, and for dancing.

With the situation taking on serious aspects, on May 8 of this year the Mayor applied for emergency housing from the Federal government, but no housing has developed from that source.

Red Cross Arts and Skill Corps Busy At Military Hospitals

One of the most appealing services of the Red Cross is the work of the Arts and Skills Corps, known as "The Green Smocks", who work in military hospitals. Each week Newton women go out to Cushing Hospital in Framingham and cheer and encourage the patients by arousing in them an interest in crafts. The men go in for leather work, weaving, drawing and painting, fly-tying, metal work, pottery, or even rug hooking.

To carry on adequately this satisfying activity, there is a great need for instructors. The Newton Chapter of the Red Cross is planning a series of classes to train apprentices. Applicants must be willing to give at least one afternoon each week at the hospital.

Miss Susan Hills will train classes in leather work at the Chapter House, 21 Foster Street, Newtonville, starting September 9 from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., and continuing every Monday and Friday for three weeks. Anyone interested will please call either Miss Susan Hills at LAS 1612, or Mrs. George E. Rawson at BIG 5659.

The OPA - Lumber - Housing

Our perpetually confused OPA has been appealed to for assistance in securing lumber from Canada, which for years has supplied much wood for dwelling construction in New England especially.

For years the Canadian dollar was worth 90 cents and recently was stabilized at $1.00 U. S. The Canadians have ceilings and importers of this lumber have asked Paul Porter to raise U. S. ceilings 10 percent. The black market at its mildest usually gets more than double this advance. Housing expediter Wyatt is nowhere near reaching his goal while veterans and others fret at the lack of housing.

OPA claims that one more time-consuming study of what ought to be done with prices on lumber from Mexico, South America, the Philippines, etc., must be made before relief may be considered as to Canadian lumber. As decontrol only operates with supply and demand in approximate balance, this stifling action extends the power of control.

The Civilian Production Administration, like its predecessor, the War Production Board, was designed to stimulate production, but apparently the only practical cure for all this mal-administration will be offered this Fall. Constantly we learn what conditions handicap production. Information for and education of the people should at least radically change the character of Congress in the coming election. Our problems center largely in Washington rather than local circles.

Morgan Memorial Benefits Many

One of Boston's best known charitable organizations is the Morgan Memorial, which to most people is represented by a large burlap bag to be filled two or three times a year with cast-offs and left overs. As a matter of fact, it is a large organization run as a non-profitable and of course non-sectarian business. It employs men and women considered unemployable by many, since they are handicapped either by age or physical infirmity. The charitable aspects is served by summer camps for youngsters at South, Athol, and by the flourishing Day Nursery, located at 85 Shawmut avenue, in one of their several buildings. This sunny, pleasant haven for the children of the under privileged is supported by the Woman's Auxiliary to Morgan Memorial.

The Fiftieth Anniversary of the founding of the Auxiliary is being celebrated this fall at the Annual Bazaar, October 17th and 18th. The local representative in our district is Mrs. Harold G. Giddings of 29 Berwick road, Newton Centre (Tel. LAs1816). She will be glad to receive or call for saleable articles or money contributions to this organization which benefits so many otherwise neglected children.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note).

Future Taxes

Norman MacDonald, executive director of the Massachusetts Federation of Taxpayers, deals almost exclusively with facts and figures, plus an occasional prophecy. Recently he made a very gloomy prediction which it is well to consider rather seriously. In substance, this expert announces that the worst is yet to come in the matter of city and town tax-rates, despite the fact that this year's rates are substantially above pre-war levels. Why?

The chief reasons seem to be the rise in the cost of living, which affects government pay-rolls and services, and the prospect that public aid to veterans and to the people as a whole will continue to increase rather heavily. When you stop to consider that about one-half of our population is composed of veterans and their families and that their needs alone may well cost the state some thirty to forty millions a year eventually, you begin to glimpse the picture as a whole. Again, old age assistance will cost a great deal more in the future, especially if the age limit is lowered to 60 years of age, as it may be. The reason for this is that the federal government does NOT begin to chip in UN-til elderly people have reached the age of 65.

MacDonald intimates that such services as garbage and snow removal and proper maintenance of public health work are very likely to lose efficiency in the not too distant future, due to shortage of funds.

What does all this add up to? In your columnist's opinion it means just this. We must insist on getting a dollar's worth of service for a dollar spent in our local government. Efficiency and still more efficiency should be the watchword. This may be one reason why so many of our citizens are currently showing unusual interest in the operation of Plan E in Cambridge and other communities. The time is rapidly approaching when it will not be enough to say that we have clean and decent government by high-minded members of our various communities. We must also have as close to 100% efficiency in government as possible. It may sound like heresy to say this, but it is barely possible that the time is coming when Newton will require the services of a full-time Mayor or City Manager. Certainly there is a limit beyond which the local tax-rate must not rise, unless our citizens are to be sent to the hoosegow for not meeting their obligations. There is also a limit below which the efficiency of our services must NOT sink, whether it is in the matter of snow and garbage removal or some thing else.

We may well look to our recently rejuvenated local taxpayers association for guidance in the solution of this problem. This organization is now located at 302 Walnut st., Newtonville phone—BIG. 7614. The Secretary is Mr. Bruce Smith, who is hard at work at a very tough job.

CIO Pressure

On August 17 the CIO published a most interesting document, which they say is NOT a black-list, despite the fact that it lists the votes of all members of Congress on twelve pet labor issues. These include, of course, the famous Case bill, which was considered to be an exceedingly strong anti-labor bill, even by men who feel that labor should be held down a bit. Also included was the Hobbs bill, which Earl Godwin, prominent radio commentator, stated last night should have been supported by labor itself, inasmuch as it was designed to prohibit labor racketeering and downright violence.

Well, how does New England, and more especially Massachusetts stand up in this poll? Here is the official list. The first number indicates the bills, endorsed by the CIO which the Congressmen voted correctly on. I give you all fourteen, starting with District No. 1 and ending with District No. 14.

Hesolton (Rep.) 4-8; Clason (Rep.) 4-7; Philbin (Dem.) 7-5; Holmes (Rep.) 1-9; Rogers, Mrs. (Rep.) 1-11; Bates (Rep.) 3-8; Lane (Dem.) 11-1; Goodwin (Rep.) 0-12; Gifford (Rep.) 0-11; Herter (Rep.), our own Congressman, 4-8; McCormack (Dem.) 11-0; Wigglesworth (Rep.) 3-9; and Martin (Rep.), the minority leader in Congress, 0-11.

In the U. S. Senate; Saltonstall (Rep.) 2-5 and Walsh (Dem.) 6-3. From the above you will note that the G.O.P. as a whole does not conform to the wishes of the CIO, although a few Republicans, either those who are more liberal than some or those who will have a hard time being re-elected this fall, appear to do better by the famous CIO. Are they wise in behaving this way? Time will tell.

The three Middlesex County Commissioners are: former Mayor Edwin O. Childs of Newton, Melvin G. Rogers of Tewksbury and William G. Andrew of Cambridge. That takes care of last week's quiz.

This week the question is: Name all legal holidays in this state. Also, name the Congressman from this state who won by the largest plurality in the 1944 election.

Newton in the Past

55 Years Ago

Newton Graphic, Aug. 21, 1891
Postmaster Morgan is on duty again, having spent the past 10 days inhaling the sea breeze on the southern shore of Cape Cod, and resting away from official cares. Newton item.

Mr. A. H. Sisson, the watchmaker and jeweler, is meeting with good success in his new location in Leavitt's block. Mr. Sisson is no stranger in Newtonville, where he has lived 30 years.

50 Years Ago

Newton Graphic, Aug. 21, 1896
The old high school building at Newtonville was offered for sale at public auction Tuesday. No bidders appeared. The building must be removed at once to make room for the $175,000 addition to the brick portion of the present high school building, and it is probable that it will be torn down by the city.

In digging for the cellar of the new National Bank Building in Newton, the workmen have uncovered a relic of old colonial days, a portion of the wall and the foundation of the brick oven, of the old tavern that stood on that spot. The tavern itself was moved away some fifty years ago, to make room for the bank, and was occupied by Mr. Aiken, but in the widening of the street it has again been removed. Some of the bricks out of the old wall have been preserved as a curiosity, as they were imported from England, like all bricks used at that time, and were coarser and thinner than our modern bricks, though of much the same shape otherwise. The old well which supplied the tavern with water for domestic purposes, and the thirsty horses of travellers, has also been uncovered. The present bank building, which succeeded the old tavern, has stood on the site for 48 years this October, but probably before that month comes it will be moved to the other side of Cole's block.

Dr. Charles H. Clark has purchased Mr. Strong's handsome residence on Windsor Road, Waban, and has fitted it up for a preparatory school for girls. Waban is delightfully situated for such schools, and Dr. Clark will have the best wishes of Newton people, as such schools are a great addition to the city.

Rev. Edwin Marohn Lutheran Speaker

Services will be held at the Lutheran Church of the Newtons 430 Walnut St., Newtonville time — 10:45 a. m. The Rev. Edwin Marohn will be the guest speaker, next Sunday.

Pastor Marohn was Army chaplain during the last war and was recently honorably discharged. The Mission Board of the Atlantic District of the Lutheran Church has appointed him to assist in the work of the Lutheran Church of the Newtons and Christ Lutheran Church of Belmont. He will divide his time between the two parishes. Before entering the service as chaplain, the Rev. Marohn had a pastorate in Texas. Pastor Marohn is a native of Bellefonte, Pa. New York. The Rev. and Mrs. Marohn are now making their home in West Newton. We bid them welcome to our community. A cordial welcome is extended to the public to worship in the Lutheran Church of the Newtons.

Newton Archers

Miss Thelma Phillips of The Newton Archers will this week end find the spotlight of attention and interest focused upon her when she will again seek to retain the title of Massachusetts women's champion in target archery. Miss Phillips has held the championship title for nine years.

During the war years "mail-match" tournaments were held among State clubs, as well as nationally. This year a revival of all major tournaments are being made, and for this first State tournament since 1941, a record crowd is expected. The field is located on the beautiful grounds of Massachusetts State College in Amherst and a number of shooting events are crowded into the two-day period, August 24th and 25th. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Last Saturday Mrs. Haebele had a major operation performed at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital and is now progressing very nicely.

We are comparatively new residents of Newton Centre and were, therefore, amazed and delighted at the words of cheer and comfort sent to us by our new neighbors and acquaintances in the Newtons. These words of cheer have been a contributing factor in building up Mrs. Haebele's morale and I want to extend to our many kind neighbors and friends our profound thanks.

Rotarily yours,

W. F. HAEFELE.

MILWAUKEE MILORGANITE
THE IDEAL FERTILIZER
FOR LAWNS, GARDENS, FLOWERS, SHRUBS and TREES

NOW IS THE TIME TO GIVE TIRED GRASS A FRESH START!

Supplied in 25, 50, and 100-pound sift-proof bags.

Re-vitalize "summer weary" grass with a fall application of Milorganite. Unlike most plants, grass grows vigorously in the fall. Provided with Milorganite, the lawn is restored by generous feeding. Milorganite is the ideal fertilizer to use because it contains all the elements needed by grass. Golf Clubs use more Milorganite than any other fertilizer. They know from long experience that it is the ideal fertilizer. Profit by their example. Fertilize with Milorganite this fall for greener, more luxuriant lawns now and NEXT year, too.

ONE SPRAYING STOPS MOTH DAMAGE

OR YA-DE MAKES GOOD YOUR LOSS!

Good Housekeepers say "YA-DE is the finest mothproof I have ever used." Here are YA-DE's points of superiority:
• Odorless
• Colorless
• Inexpensive
• Non-Inflammable
• Harmless to Fabrics
• Unaffected by Dry Cleaning
• Guaranteed for Five Years
YA-DE has been called a "miracle mothproof." One spraying of YA-DE on your clothing, rugs, furniture, etc., and your moth worries are over for years. YA-DE is so good it is backed by a 5-year written guarantee. This guarantee is like an insurance policy in that if moth damage occurs within 5 years, YA-DE will repair, replace or pay for the damage. And the important thing is that YA-DE costs less and is easier to use.

MOths EAT ALL YEAR 'ROUND
As long as the temperature in your home is 55-degrees or more, moths will eat your clothing, woolens, rugs, furniture, etc. YA-DE provides year 'round in or out of storage protection. When you buy woollen articles — no matter if it is January or July — you should treat your purchases with YA-DE at once! Remember, Moths do more damage than fire and you need YA-DE's "insurance like" protection.

Care of the Lawn

By O. O. Clapper

"FALL FERTILIZATION"

All growing plants, including the lawn grasses, have a dormant summer period. This means that normal fall growth starts as soon as the fall rains begin and will continue until cold weather stops growth.

From the standpoint of the plant's health the fall growth is more important than most folks realize. It must create a new root system and store up its plant food so as to be ready for the spring.

The normal growing period in the fall in this section is from August first thru the middle of October. It will start slowly and build up to the peak and gradually taper off as the cold nights approach. Fertilization should start as soon as the first rains begin so that full fertilization may be made of the materials applied. Because of the long growing period and less leaching away of the unused plant food, an organic such as Milorganite, Cottonseed Meal, manures, etc., are preferable. The danger of burning from excessive applications is not present with the organics hence you can well afford to give the grass a real heavy feeding this fall.

The dryness of the past summer has retarded grass much more than during a normal summer hence it would be well to give one good treatment any time now and follow with another good application before the growth stops. If a mixed chemical is used then the late fall application can be eliminated or reduced as this might force excessive growth at the very end of the season and if we get a heavy blanket of snow before the ground freezes much "snow mold" will take place when the snow melts and cause damage quite difficult to repair.

It is important that you fertilize this fall if only to force the grass to thicken and fill in the voids left when the crabgrass is killed off by the first frost. This will also tend to retard the germination next summer of the crabgrass seeds dropped by the plants of this season.

If Mother Nature could only inject half as much "Fall Fever" into us as she does "Spring Fever" then we would give more fall attention to our lawns and see greatly improved turf. If you doubt this then consult the Greenkeeper of your Golf Club and note how much real attention he gives to his greens, tees and fairways in the matter of fertilizing and seeding in the fall. He is a professional turf grower and must take advantage of the weather and nature if your golf game is to be a pleasure to you. I do not advocate that we give up spring treatment, but do feel that if we would give more attention to fall treatment of the lawns and more spring treatment to the flowers and gardens we would have better results from our outdoor efforts.

If you have a bit more energy than normal why not expend some of it by killing the crabgrass, killing the other weeds, spreading some top dressing (good loam will do if no compost is handy) seeding good grass seed into the bare spots and fertilizing the entire lawn with one light application now and follow with another double dose just after Labor Day? Sit back and watch the lawn improve and prove to yourself that your lawn will go thru 1947 in much better shape and be much improved.

U. S. Army Recruiting Service in Newton

A temporary United States Army Recruiting Station will be open in Newton at the Newton Fire Station, Newton Corner for a week beginning next Monday to give Newton men of 17 and over a chance to inquire into what the Army has to offer them.

In this modern time, the Army has much to offer young ambitious men in the terms of education, career and security. Already a number of men who saw service during the war are either continuing or embarking on their college education. Many of them, without the benefits of the G. I. Bill of Rights, would have to forego the advantage of a higher education. The opportunity to go to a college, or a trade or business school, is still being extended to men who enlist in the Army now for periods of a year and a half, two, and three years. Every year, several hundreds of thousands of young men pass up the opportunity to prepare for a career, simply because they can't afford to pay for the training. Now, Army enlistments put the chance to embark on an honorable career within the reach of every deserving young man.

The preparation for a career in civilian life does not need to wait until the soldier has completed his term of service. Hundreds of Army specialized training schools get men started in fields in which they are interested. The majority of men who fill Army jobs are experts at the kind of work they are doing. And these Army jobs have many counter-parts in civilian life. The Army also offers men a career in one of the most honorable and most exciting occupations: The Profession of Arms. The history of the peace time Army in many cases parallels the history of the economic and scientific growth of the nation. Railways, commercial aviation, mining and even some phases of medicine owe their development to Army building and experimentation.

From the individual's point of view, one of the most important aspects of an Army career is the security it offers. Steady work at an interesting job, and ample vacations with pay are some of the things a man looks for in a job. The Army job offers him these things. His worries about living necessities are reduced to a minimum. He is able to look forward to a retirement income at the end of twenty or thirty years' service. This retirement income, which would cost a civilian between $14,500 and $45,000 in annuities, costs the soldier nothing.

The Army Recruiting program and the benefits which it offers have received the endorsement of civic leaders throughout the Nation. A term of enlistment in the Army, whether for a year and a half, or for a thirty year career, is one of the greatest investments a young man can make toward a secure future. Newton men should take advantage of the opportunity to find out all about it when the Army Recruiting Station opens here on Aug. 26-31 from 9 to 5.

Housing—

Committee had another meeting with representatives of the American Veterans Committee on July 29, at which time this matter was fully discussed. The Committee held another meeting on August 5 to carefully study the various enactments by the Legislature covering housing for veterans. One of these Acts was to create a Housing Authority which before the war operated with the idea of clearing slum areas and during the war ceased operations but since cessation of hostilities has been used in certain localities where they existed for relieving the housing situation for veterans. As we have no slum areas to clear the setting up of such a permanent board is not necessary.

Other Chapters contemplate the setting up of a Committee which would supply information and investigate possible housing facilities and under certain conditions, have the same powers as a Housing Authority.

Your Committee feels that this city should not go into the contracting business in competition with other residents who are in this business and building housing within the city. Such a Committee would not have the experience of a trained organization and would not be able to produce housing any quicker than concerns now engaged in that business. The shortages of materials that exist would hamper the operation of this Committee the same as it is hampering contractors now building in the city and would not produce any housing.

These Acts of the Legislature also would void all zoning laws in the city by the Right of Appeal to the State Board by Committees so set up and we feel that this is a condition that would be detrimental to this city.

Your Committee contacted Mr. Darling of the FPHA and discovered that all funds for supplying temporary housing to take care of veterans in this area have been expended and the last Congress did not grant them any more money to continue this work. Therefore, there is no possibility of obtaining through the government, funds for moving temporary housing from other locations and erecting them in this city. The only surplus housing now available are barracks buildings now located at Fort Standish which are not suitable for housing families in their present condition and are not sectional in design and would require expensive alterations to make them so. With the lack of materials this type of housing could not be made available any quicker than new buildings that are now being built in this city.

Of approximately thirty-nine cities in the state, sixteen did not make any applications for temporary housing and of the approximately 312 towns only thirteen applied for temporary housing and the bulk of the temporary housing was distributed among the colleges to make possible the operation of the G. I. educational program.

The entire cost of removing these buildings from their present locations, preparation of sites, all services such as sewer, water, streets and grading would have to be borne by the city as well as the expense of removing the same, as required by law, when the emergency was over.

For the information of the Board, we wish to report that under the Acts of 1946, Chapter 599, that went into effect on June 20, it is now mandatory that the Mayor of each city appoint an Advisory Council within the Veterans Service Bureau, whereby an information center is to be set up and all information made available to veterans who inhabit the city regarding the possibility of dwelling units within the city so that this will be a permanent departmental function of Veterans Services.

We also are approving a resolution whereby the Board is making possible preference for veterans in purchasing city-owned land.

At the Building Commissioner's suggestion the Building Laws are being broadened to permit the erection of certain prefabricated houses within the city and also reducing the requirements on the thickness of the outside walls of one-story buildings. This will make possible the erection of prefabricated houses which are the quickest source of supply of housing and will also reduce the cost of the smaller type of masonry house.

Therefore, due to the above facts, your Committee is recommending leave to withdraw on the petition of the American Veterans Committee.

The Board of Aldermen also passed a resolution with reference to the same general matter as follows:

RESOLVED:
That it is the intention of the Board of Aldermen, until further action is taken by it, to give preference in opportunity to purchase real estate acquired by foreclosure of tax title, which is not devoted to and acquired by any other public use, to veterans of World War II, inhabitants of the city, for the purpose of erecting dwelling units within two years. Lists of such property shall be kept on file by the Department of Veterans' Services and veterans shall be advised of the availability of such real estate for sale.

Sales under this resolution must be made approximately for the fair cash value of the property and can be made for part cash and part mortgage, if desired. Sales may be made to private in-

During World War II, Cornish served for 29 months in the U. S. Marine Corps and was on duty in the Pacific theater for 11 months. He is married and has two children.

His appointment as a regular patrolman is due to the fact that there is no reserve list. There are openings for 10 reserve patrolmen.

The appointment of two new lieutenants is awaiting the setting up of a list by the Civil Service Department.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Bill—Dinner almost ready?
Jane—I'll have it on the table in a jiffy. I'm just making the gravy.

Bill—Hey, what are you doing! Pouring the water from the carrots into the gravy. That's a new one on me. Why don't you use water from the faucet? My mother always did.

Jane—The water that vegetables are cooked in has lots of valuable minerals and vitamins in it so I never throw it away.

Bill—But how do you use it all up? You must have quarts.
Jane—Oh! I cook vegetables in a very small amount of water. When they're finished I have about 1/4 cup left. That's easy to use up in gravy and soup.

Bill—I always did think your gravy was extra good. Now I know your secret.

Jane scores again—Tests show that up to 1/2 of the value of cooked vegetables may be found in the cooking water, leading one humorist to comment that the best nourished mouth in the household was the kitchen drain.

chester street and $1,000 for sewer work on Parker avenue.

The board authorized the following projects:

Street Work on Fairlee road, Ward 5, $17,000; Lenglen road, $5,200 and reconstruction of Winchester street, Newton Highlands $33,000.

Water Mains to be built on Pond Brook road, $1,430; Winchester road, $2,540, and Sun Hill lane, $1,650.

The sum of $2,000 was appropriated for new services and meters.

The Raytheon Company was granted a permit to erect a small garage to be used in connection with a tower at the Waban Hill Reservoir, the garage to be about 20 feet square. Half of this building will be used by the Newton Police Department and when the Raytheon's proposed project on Prospect Hill, Waltham is completed, both the tower and the garage will become the property of the city of Newton.

Alfred C. Alexander, chairman of the Public Works Committee stated that the Federal Communications Commission requires that a tower similar to the one at the reservoir be built for police broadcasting purposes and that by taking over the Raytheon equipment the city will be spared the expense of building a new tower.

Offers for city owned land were accepted from the following:

Guisepp Nunno, Circuit avenue, at Biscayne road, $500; Carl Christensen, Parkview avenue, $150; John H. Deagle, Woodrow avenue, $500, and Max J. Talent, Bonita street, $400. An offer of John J. Faherty for a lot on Woodrow avenue, was accepted if the amount would be raised from $150 to $200, and John J. Grady's offer of $50 was met with a counter-offer of $100.

Charles M. Azab's offer for a lot on Grant street of $1,200 was accepted, provided the amount be paid in cash.

An offer of $800 for land on Maplewood avenue by Frank Vespa was given leave to withdraw as insufficient. Held in committee were offers by George W. Cashman, T. L. Gill and Howard D. Johnson Co., for land on Commonwealth avenue, on the corner of Woodbine street.

Authority was given the Street Department to sell an old compressor and tank, now at the Crafts street yard, for the sum of $85.

Permits for gas mains on Lodge road and Fuller terrace were given to the Boston Consolidated Gas Company and the Boston Edison Company was granted permission to change pole locations, on Greenwood street.

A taxi license was granted to George R. Cole and George H. Mansson at 61 Waltham street, West Newton. The request of Clyde E. Armstrong for a first class taxi license at Bridge street, Newton was held in committee. Warren F. McMullen of Winifred Colleano, a star in her own right, comes from a famous family of circus and stage performers. Her brother, Con Colleano, is one of the world's greatest tight wire performers.

Winifred Colleano a Feature Attraction at Elks Charity Circus

But Winifred has a specialty all her own, which has never been duplicated by any other female acrobat. From a full wing on the trapeze, she makes a daring leap through the air catching the flying bar by a single heel grasp. This performance is so thrilling that it is necessary, in order to prevent possible serious injury, in case of a miss, to set up a huge net beneath the rigging.

Miss Colleano has been a top attraction in the great circuses of the world, both outdoor and indoor, and her performance is as smooth as though it were accomplished in a rocking chair.

She will be the outstanding attraction at the Elks Charity Circus, Norumbega Park, Sept. 1-7.

400 Marrett road, Lexington was given leave to withdraw his request for a junk license.

Renewals of auctioneer licenses were granted to George H. Hayden of 868 Watertown street, West Newton and Benjamin F. Louis, 72 St. Mary's street, Newton Lower Falls.

Licenses to deal in second hand articles were granted to Henry S. Goldberg at 887 Washington street, Newtonville and to Beatrice A. Hayward at 996 Chestnut street, Waban.

The following were drawn for Jury duty and will report to the Superior Court at East Cambridge on October 7:

Second Civil Session: Edwin B. Locke of 1949 Commonwealth avenue, Auburndale and Fred F. Mitchell, 34 Bothfield road, Newton Centre; First Criminal Session: Paul R. Viles, 54 Williams street, Newton and Sidney D. Turin, 17 Philmore, Newton; First Civil Session: Charles R. Smith, 21 Laurel avenue, West Newton and Lester M. Peterson, 36 Fairfield street, Newtonville.

On recommendation of the Claims and Rules Committee the Board of Aldermen yesterday allowed three waivers in the zoning ordinances.

Dr. Philip A. Enholm was granted a waiver of the set-back provision to allow the building of a dental clinic on Washington street, Newton, between Walnut park and Jewett street. The waiver allows the building to be set back 15 feet instead of the required 25.

To permit the sale of two double houses to different purchasers, the board permitted a variance of the ordinance for a division of the lot at 18-26 Bowen street, and 22-24 Bowen street, Newton Centre. One lot is to contain 3,588 square feet, and the other to contain 4,498 square feet. It was stated that there is one vacant apartment in each house and by the division two purchasers will have housing.

Because of the shape of his lot, William W. Paine of 136 Fuller street, Waban, was allowed a waiver of the side-lot lines requirement for the erection of a single house at 150 Prince street, West Newton.

be acceptable as passers-through. So, for the time being, until Roy Edwards or somebody gets either an introduction or a pass through the lines, there's practically nothing this department can offer with authenticity concerning the undoubted charm and hospitality of that particular little hamlet...

Oak Hill with its famous Charles River Country Club and the equally famous Janse Farm is often alive after the witching hour as is Nonantum, West Newton, Newtonville and the city's transfer point, Newton Corner. In the Upper and Lower Falls the shades are lowered early, however, with Newton Center, Thompsonville and Chestnut Hill in the positions known to the racing gentry as runners up...

INTERESTING CHANGES PROPOSED...

There have been forces at work in Newton for years, spear-headed, we believe, by the President of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, Roy Edwards, favoring abolition of the village mode of living and thinking so prevalent here. Interested in Newton's future, they would have the city operate and think in the manner of others of its size and importance, rather than in the old, outworn village style. Newton Center, in the vicinity of City Hall, would be the nerve center of all city activities and just about everything of importance to Newton, including a main post office, would be located there.

TOLLERS...

The number of tollers who walk to the trolley line in order to reach their early morning jobs in Boston is beginning to grow again. Hours before the local busses begin their daily runs, they plod their way from Newton Centre, West Newton, Nonantum and points beyond. Working men, most of them, they're the early birds...

6-8 A. M. ...

Then come the nurses, storekeepers, mechanics and assorted gentry, including W.E.E.I.'s hard working news editor, Lou Sargent, and George Graves, the gent who tells you how to plant and care for your garden. Lou tells you that he's not too grieved about keeping such early hours inasmuch as it allows him more time on the links in the afternoon. This department shares Lou's hope that he will, ahem, soon break 100...

8-9 A. M. ...

From here in, the trolley waiting platform begins to take on color in gobs. For this is strictly the feminine hour. Working gals, most of them, other than on stormy mornings their ranks are swelled by every woman in town who can get away, so's to go shopping. Inclement weather, it seems, is, according to the feminine viewpoint, always preferable to warm sunshine, when a little prowling around the shop counters is in order. This fourth-grader wouldn't know why—even science is baffled.

HARMONY...

Until recently, the owl bus leaving Newton for Waltham at 1:10 a.m. usually left a bit late, due to the fact that the operator would wait patiently for the arrival of the Boston trolley when, as sometimes happened, it arrived late. His passengers never complained, for two gals, singers in one of the Boston night spots, were due to reach the terminal on that particular car, and travelling to the Watch City with the patient driver and passengers, harmonized so delightfully on the way, that the enjoyment of all, especially the males, more than compensated for the delay.

Newton Red Cross Sends Nurses To St. Paul

Miss Catherine Gillis and Miss Eleanor Emery, former Navy nurses, were flown from Boston yesterday to St. Paul, Minnesota, where they will give their services in connection with the polio outbreak in that city.

The girls were driven in to Boston by Mrs. Harold Clayton Whitely of the Newton Motor Corps.

Miss Gillis, who lives at 15 Riverside Avenue, Auburndale, and Miss Emery of Dixfield, Maine, register at the Newton Chapter, 21 Foster Street, Newtonville—Lasalle 6000.

But, Officer, I just want to be first in line for the B. F. Goodrich Tire that

B. F. Goodrich

We're not suggesting that you pitch a teetee on our doorstep. But we know how much you like so many other car owners, want B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns on your car, and we know why. Because you have heard that:

1. The new, better, synthetic rubber developed by B. F. Goodrich makes Silvertowns run cooler, wear longer than prewar tires.

2. The 35% stronger tire body is made possible by a new, stronger cord, more cords per inch in the top ply, and an extra shock-absorbing breaker strip.

3. The new wider, flatter "road level" tread puts more rubber on the road to share the wear and provide quicker stops, better traction, and more safety on the turns.

4. More than 2,000 tests and 17,000,000 miles of the toughest kind of actual road service developed that the new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown outwears prewar natural rubber tires.

Rotary Club

Rudolph King, Registrar of Motor Vehicles of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts speaking at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club on Monday gave an insight into the problems of regulating the more than one million lethal weapons—the automobile. Prefacing his remarks, Mr. King read from some of the Registrar's correspondence, including letters of advice from inmates of mental institutions. He spoke of plans to improve highway safety in Massachusetts. Among his recommendations are (1) The raising of speed limits to 40 miles per hour on the open road to conform more closely with prevailing regulations in the other New England States, and (2) the marking by white lines the outside edges of the streets to improve visibility at night and in fog. Mr. King's account of his Department's program for assisting disabled veterans to drive is one of which all citizens of the Commonwealth may well be proud.

On next Monday Joe Mitchell Chapple, world traveled editor will speak on "Prominent People I Have Met."

There will be no meeting of the Newton Club on Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 1, but members will meet with the Waltham Club on Wednesday, September 4, when Judge Elijah Adlow will be the speaker.

The members of the Newton Upper Falls Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Albert Proctor, 1192 Chestnut street, on Monday, August 26 at 7 p.m. Mrs. Frank G. Mordo will serve as co-hostess.

The Roll Call will be answered by each member with an exhibit of a wildflower.

Following a short business meeting a lecture entitled "Wildflowers" with colored slides from the New England Wildflower Preservation Society will be given.

Refreshments and prizes will be awarded for the best flower specimens.

RECENT WEDDINGS

MacKinnon - Brooks

White flowers and fern will decorate the Lincoln Park Baptist Church, West Newton, for the wedding on Friday, August 23, of Miss Frances Elizabeth Brooks, daughter of Mr. William Brooks of 38 Putnam Street, West Newton, and William E. MacKinnon of 347 Lowell Ave., Newtonville. The eight o'clock, candlelight ceremony will be performed by the Rev. William E. Blake, pastor, and a reception will follow in the church parlors. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a portrait gown of ivory satin. The gown, which had been worn by her sister-in-law, is styled with a sweetheart neckline, trimmed with pearls, and a train. She will wear a tulle veil from a Juliet cap caught with orange blossoms and carry a bouquet of gladioli and stephanotis. Miss Eleanor Clough, of Auburndale, will serve as maid of honor. Miss Clough will wear a gown of aqua faille and carry a bouquet of yellow and orange gladioli which will match her headpiece.

Mr. MacKinnon will have as his best man, Mr. M. H. Sidebotham, of Winchester, and brothers of the bride, William C. Brooks, Jr., of Thomaston, Maine, and Albert J. Brooks, of Framingham, will serve as ushers.

The bride is a graduate of Wheaton College and Boston University, and is a director of the Rebecca Pomroy House Nursery School, Newton. Mr. MacKinnon graduated from Halifax Business College and is New England District Credit Manager for the Altec Service Corporation of Boston and New York. Following a wedding trip, by plane, to Ohio, Mr. MacKinnon and his bride will make their home after September 15, at 349 Lowell Avenue, Newtonville.

Sinclair - Tisdale

A reception in the garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Tisdale of 67 Putnam street, West Newton, followed the marriage on August 11, of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Tisdale to John Sinclair, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sinclair of Cleveland, Ohio. The Rev. William E. Blake performed the ceremony in the Lincoln Park Baptist Church.

The bride's gown had a lace bodice, sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, and a full skirt of tulle over taffeta. Her Chapel-length veil was of illusion caught with orange blossoms and she carried Eucharis lilies, stephanotis and sweethearts. As her sister's maid of honor, Miss Nancy Tisdale wore a blue net gown, and another sister, Mrs. Arnold F. Wirick, Jr., matron of honor, wore pink. The bridesmaids, in blue, were Miss Margaret Gerbert of Lakewood, Ohio and Miss Jacqueline Hosfield of Stow, Ohio. All attendants carried bouquets of gladioli and larkspur to match the garlands worn in their hair.

Richard G. Sinclair, of Warren, Ohio, was the best man for his brother and the ushers included Arnold F. Wirick, Jr., of West Newton, and Richard P. Schaefer of Cleveland.

Mr. Sinclair and his bride, a member of the class of 1946 at Western Reserve University, will make their home in Cleveland.

Tennant - Kennon

A recent wedding of Newton interest which took place in Charlottesville, Virginia, was that of Miss Margaret Ashley Kennon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Randolph Kennon of Charlottesville and John Sheffield Tennant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Adams Tennant of 336 Cabot street, Newtonville.

The ceremony was performed in the University Chapel and a reception followed in the Rose Room of the Monticello Hotel.

The bride wore an imported embroidered organza gown and a band of organza held her fingertip veil. Her prayerbook, which had been carried by her mother, was covered with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Martha Lee Kennon was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of maize embroidered batiste with matching bonnet and mitts and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of gladioli, delphinium and baby's breath. The bridesmaids were Miss Beverly Randolph, Miss Priscilla Baker, Miss Mary Boyington Goodloe and Miss Gloria Galban. They wore gowns of Nile green batiste, with matching mitts and bonnets, and also carried old-fashioned bouquets.

Blake Adams Tennant of Newtonville, was the best man for his brother and the ushers included Cary Suter, Paul Cheatham, Allen White and Munroe Leigh, all of Virginia. The bride's cousin, Robert Hill, was ring-bearer.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Tennant are graduates of the University of Virginia and he is now completing his fourth year at Virginia Medical School. Following a trip to Martha's Vineyard, they will live in Charlottesville.

Goodband - Seastrom

A wedding of Newton interest which took place in Geneva, Illinois on August 3rd, was that of Miss Margaret Arlene Seastrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin T. Seastrom of Illinois, and Dr. Gordon Goodband, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Goodband of 411 Dedham Street, Newton Centre. The four o'clock candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond S. Bach in the First Methodist Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory lace, fashioned with an illusion neckline, hoop skirt and long train. Her veil was held in place with orange blossoms and she carried a fan of white gardenias and stephanotis. Mrs. George Goodband, Jr., served as matron of honor and Miss Leone Seastrom, sister of the bride, as maid of honor. Both were garbed in identical gowns of white lace and net, carried flower fans of white gladioli, and wore ivory circlets in their hair. Miss Jane Seastrom, niece of the bride, was the flower girl and she scattered white asters as she preceded the bride down the aisle. She wore a frock of white net and an ivory circlet in her hair. Mrs. Seastrom wore a grey crepe dress and Mrs. Goodband wore a gown of light blue. Their identical corsages were of pink gladioli and stephanotis.

Serving the groom as best man was his brother, Captain Clifford Goodband. Ushers included Robert Seastrom and David Seastrom, brothers of the bride, Harvey Seastrom and Captain Alfred Brekke.

The bride and groom are graduates of Michigan State College, where Mrs. Goodband was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and Dr. Goodband, Sigma Nu fraternity. Following a trip through Maine, Dr. and Mrs. Goodband will make their home in Newton Centre, where Dr. Goodband is a practicing veterinarian.

Out of town guests attending the ceremony included the groom's parents, his sister, Mrs. Frank Merrill of Marblehead, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson of Newton Centre, and Dr. Victor LaBranche of Haverhill.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Tennant are graduates of the University of Virginia and he is now completing his fourth year at Virginia Medical School. Following a trip to Martha's Vineyard, they will live in Charlottesville.

Churches

Newton Centre Union Summer Services

The eighth in the series of Union Summer Services for the Newton Centre Churches will be held at the First Baptist Church in Newton, Newton Centre, on Sunday, August 25.

Rev. E. Spencer Parsons will preach. His topic is, "The Crisis of Meaning."

Solo, "Come Ye Blessed" Scott
Solo, "The Lord is My Shepherd" Tchaikovsky
Postlude, "Epilogue" Gillette

Miss Ruth Shipton is the soloist and the organist is Mr. Gerald F. Frazee. Services begin at 11:00 a.m.

The cooperating Churches and Ministers are: The First Church in Newton (Congregational), Dr. M. Russell Boynton; the Newton Centre Methodist Church, Dr. H. Daniel Hawver; The Unitarian Church, Dr. Vincent R. Booth; and the First Baptist Church in Newton, Dr. Charles N. Arbuckle.

Community Service At Eliot Church

The community service sponsored by the churches of Newton will be held on Sunday, August 25th in the Eliot Church at eleven o'clock. The preacher will be Dr. Paul S. Minear, distinguished professor of New Testament Interpretation in the Andover Newton Theological School. The organist at this service will be Mr. John H. Miller, organist of the Presbyterian Church, Brookline, and the soloist is Miss Eleanor Davis, contralto member of the Eliot Church Quartet.

Churches of Christ, Scientist

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, August 25, is "Mind."

The Golden Text, "The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand," is from Isaiah (44:24). Other Bible citations include: "Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding? . . . God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof. . . . And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding" (Job 28:20, 23, 28).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. . . . No wisdom is wise but His wisdom; no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows" (p. 275).

Judge W. L. Allen Tells Kiwanis Club Bench Experiences

Judge W. Lloyd Allen entertained the Newton Kiwanis Club, last Wednesday noon, with stories of his career on the Bench and as a trial lawyer on the other side of it.

Born in East Boston, Judge Allen graduated from Boston Latin High, later graduating from Yale and the Boston University Law School, at the age of 22. Passing the Bar examinations in 1910, he practiced law, teaching at B. U. and Northeastern for many years. Moving to Newton in 1914, he was appointed a District Judge of the Newton Court in 1920 - the youngest judge ever appointed in Massachusetts.

Judge Allen, telling of "How a defendant's lawyer picks a jury and the manner and reason another trial lawyer always tried to keep druggists, accountants and bankers out of juries were highly entertaining.

Andrew Bickford of the West Roxbury - Roslindale Kiwanis Club spoke briefly on the coming Convention at Swampscott.

Atty. George Ayer attended the meeting as the guest of Court Clerk James M. Gallagher.

The regular pianist on vacation, George Miller, whom no one realized could play, set himself down on the bench and proceeded to rock the room with melody.

Frank Lombardi reported all of Newton's Kiwanians in good health.

Leland Joins Newton Savings Bank Staff

Leroy W. Leland of 40 Walden street, Newtonville, retired recently after 25 years of service with the State Banking Department and 15 years as Deputy State Banking Commissioner. He was tendered a reception on July 31 by employees of the department at his offices. Present were former commissioner James Earl Perry, president of the Newton Savings Bank, and former Commissioner Henry H. Pearce, president of the Merchants Co-operative Bank of Boston. The employees presented Mr. Leland with a camera.

Mr. Leland, a resident of Newton for 36 years, is a native of Grafton. He attended public schools there and Harvard University.

On August 1st he assumed duties at the Newton Savings Bank, where he will serve in the Mortgage department.

Cohen Joins Bradford Campaign Staff

Lt. Gov. Robert F. Bradford, Republican candidate for Governor, announced yesterday that Samuel H. Cohen, prominent Boston attorney, of 11 Elinor road, Newton Highlands, has joined the Bradford for Governor campaign headquarters staff as co-manager.

Miss Nugent To Be Teacher For U. S. in Germany

Miss Mary J. Nugent of 104 Eldredge street, Newton, a teacher at the Underwood School, has been granted a year's leave of absence to work as a teacher for the United States Government in Germany, according to an announcement by the Newton School Department.

Miss Nugent will leave before the end of the month for Bremerhaven and will go to Frankfurt for assignment in occupied zones in Germany. She will instruct in the first four grades.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher C. Nugent of Winthrop, Miss Nugent was graduated from the Winthrop High School, Salem Teachers' College, and received her bachelor and masters degrees from Boston University School of Education. Before coming to Newton, in 1926, she taught in the Boston Public Schools for a year.

Newton Schools Reopen Sept. 9

The opening day for all public schools in Newton has been set for Monday, September 9, 1946.

For pupils transferring from private schools to the tenth grade of the Newton High School placement tests will be given on Thursday, September 5, at 8:30 a.m. Registration for these tests should be made on Tuesday, September 3, on Wednesday, September 4, in the Guidance Office at the high school. Pupils are requested to bring their ninth grade school records.

Other pupils transferring from schools outside of Newton should register for admission to grades ten, eleven, or twelve on September 3, 4, 5, or 6 in the Guidance Office. Appointments for conferences regarding registration may be made with Miss Riley, Director of Student Personnel, by telephoning Lasell 6267.

Break at W. Newton Filling Station

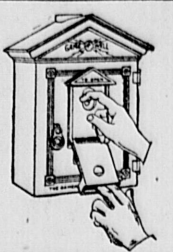

A break in a filling station at 1545 Washington street, West Newton was discovered by Patrolmen John J. Powers and Daniel P. Calnan at 5:30 Tuesday morning.

The thieves who had gained entrance by pulling a heavy screen from a rear window and breaking the window carried away an Army field safe containing $200 and a vending machine containing nearly 200 packages of cigarettes. A set of wrenches was also missing. The vending machine with the cigarettes removed was found later on a nearby vacant lot.

Lt. Daniel E. Crowley, Sgt. Richard L. Bannon and Inspector John A. Bibbo are investigating the break.

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

Automobile parking on city streets is becoming daily a greater menace to effective fire service than any other factor common to city life. This is particularly true in business and manufacturing districts and around apartment houses and theatres, in all of which sections there is congestion of people which may, at the time of a fire, require quick and extensive work to prevent serious loss of life and injuries. In fact it is the life hazard which is greatly affected by this street parking.

Parking in these sections result in the following conditions which hamper the fire department.

1. Ladder and rescue work may be retarded because of the inability to get near the building.
2. Hydrants may be obstructed.
3. Visibility of fire alarm boxes is lessened.
4. Street width is so reduced that apparatus cannot maneuver.
5. Traffic congestion is increased so that fire apparatus cannot get through.
6. Collision and injury to firemen on running boards is more apt to occur.
7. Large trucks, loaded with combustible material, constitute a serious exposure hazard to nearby buildings.
8. Improper parking deprives other motorists a chance to park and increases confusion.

There have been several accidents at fires due to motorists running over hose that is laid on the streets. When a heavy auto or truck rides over the hose line it may cut off the flow of water for a fraction of a second and then allow it to flow again. This unexpected action of the water has been known to throw firemen and severely injuring them. It has also broken many sections of fire hose unnecessarily and has increased the fire loss. It would be well to recall the following before doing it in the future:

An Act to Prohibit the Driving of Vehicles Over Municipal Fire Hose—1926, Chapter 278, Section 7A. Upon the approach of any fire apparatus which is going to a fire or responding to an alarm, every person driving a vehicle on a way shall immediately drive said vehicle as far as possible toward the right-hand curb or side of said way and shall keep the same at a standstill until such fire apparatus has passed. No person shall drive a vehicle over a hose of a fire department without the consent of a member of such department. No person shall drive a vehicle within three hundred feet of any fire apparatus going to a fire or responding to an alarm, nor drive said vehicle, or park or leave same unattended within six hundred feet of a fire or within the fire lines established thereat by the fire department. Violation of any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars. (Approved April 28, 1926).

NOW, MORE THAN EVER BEFORE

THE ARMY HAS A GOOD JOB FOR YOU!

• NON-COMMISSIONED GRADES NOW OFFERED TO FORMER ARMY OCCUPATIONAL SPECIALISTS

Good jobs in non-commissioned grades are being offered now by the Regular Army to qualified former servicemen!

Veterans discharged on or after May 12, 1945, who enlist or reenlist for 3 years may be enlisted in the non-commissioned grade for which qualified, provided this grade is not higher than that held at time of discharge, and provided that at least 6 months of former service was in one of 400 designated military occupational specialties in which enlistment is now desired.

Important, interesting jobs are open in hundreds of skills and trades in the Army, with splendid training and educational advantages! These are in addition to free food, housing, clothing, medical and dental care, low-cost insurance.

There's adventure, travel, education, a secure and profitable future in this vital, realistic profession. Get full details at your nearest Army Recruiting Station.

Highlights of Regular Army Enlistments

1. Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (3-year enlistments permitted for men now in the Army with 6 or more months of service.)
2. Enlistment age from 18 to 34 years* inclusive (17 with parents' consent) except for men now in the Army, who may reenlist at any age, and former service men depending on length of service.
3. A reenlistment bonus of $50 for each year of active service since such bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service, provided reenlistment is within 3 months after last honorable discharge.
4. A furlough for men who reenlist within 30 days. Full details of other furlough privileges can be obtained from Recruiting Officers.
5. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.
6. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years' service. All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.
7. GI Bill of Rights benefits assured for men who enlist on or before October 5, 1946.
8. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater (of those still open) on 3-year enlistments.

How to "Pay by Check" Without a Bank Account

Yes, it's true! Anyone can use our Register Check service and enjoy the convenience and economy of paying bills this modern way. There's no formality involved; Register Checks are made out and signed by you. Simply fill in the amount you wish, then take your check to the bank teller to complete. You retain the stub for your records. The whole transaction takes but a minute — saves you time and trouble.

At slight additional expense you may have your name printed on each check. For remittances not exceeding ten dollars you may want to use the new postal notes, unless—like many people—you prefer the prestige of signing your own checks. For all larger amounts our register checks cost less than postal money orders.

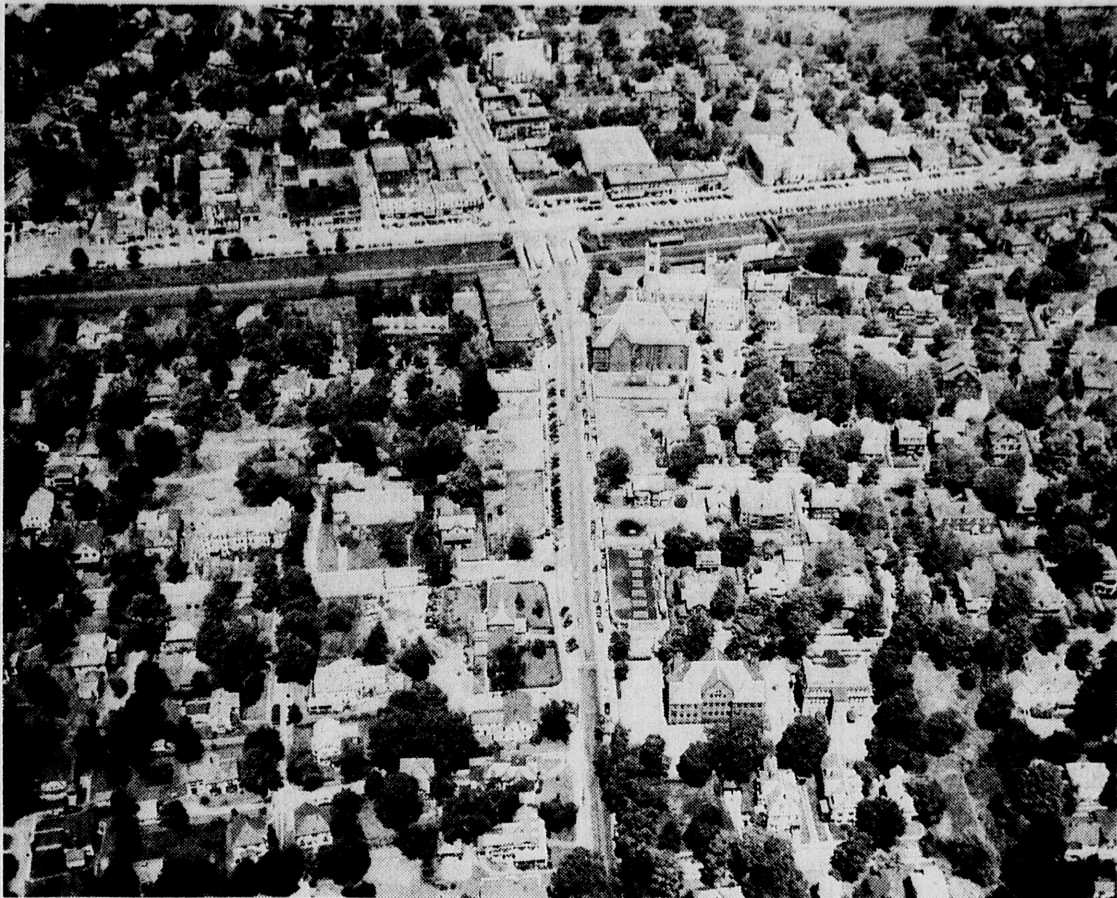

Next time you have bills to pay or money to send, use personal, businesslike Register Checks!

OUR TOWN AFTER MIDNIGHT

By PAUL CONSIDINE

There's little this department can report concerning man and his faithful friends in the Garden City, this week, being as how what with the sun and all, last Sunday, we just naturally headed in the general direction of Cape Cod. The swimming's always good here on the Yarmouth side, even today in a pelting rain storm and so, with Captain Riggs' word that tomorrow and the rest of the week will be filled with sunshine, all indications, at this time, are that your correspondent will be sunning himself on the silver sands of the above-mentioned little Cape Cod town, for the rest of this week.

However, we've been roaming the Cape, off and on, and among other things, attended the Falmouth Kiwanis Club's meeting and dinner, at the Crescent Arms Hotel, last Monday evening. The guest speaker wasn't on hand because of an emergency call, so (I'll be grateful if you'll call the following to the attention of Chief of Police Nicholas Vedeucio) we devoted our attention to a dinner consisting of: fresh cut vegetable soup, creamy whipped potatoes, garden fresh peas, unlimited quantities of succulent roast beef, gravy, hot rolls and butter, baked rice custard pudding with whipped cream and then, over numerous cups of coffee, listened to the Falmouth Kiwanians tell of their recent clambake for the underprivileged child fund, and of the monster "Welcome Home" celebration scheduled for September 12th.

Flyer Makes Forced Landing on Brae Burn Golf Links

Shortly after 10 o'clock on Sunday morning while a number of golfers were enjoying their game on the Brae Burn Country Club links a plane flying overhead circled the field three times coming down to nearly tree top level, and the golfers thinking the pilot was merely stunting, waved to him and went on with their game.

Miss Barbara Babnall, 16, daughter of Col. Harry W. Babnall, a retired executive officer of the Army Ordnance Department who was on the back lawn of her home nearby realized that the pilot was in trouble and was making an effort to land his plane. She hastened to the links and warned the golfers to clear a way for the plane to land, and the pilot, Russell Norman Holbrook, 17, of 142 Homer street, Newton Centre was able to make a perfect landing on the ninth fairway.

Recommend to Bar Cleansing Firms in Business Districts

The Claims and Rules Committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen has recommended that an amendment to the Zoning Ordinance be adopted which would prohibit the use of land in business districts for cleansing establishments.

The cleansing industry at present may use land that is zoned for business but is barred from residential zones. Cleansing establishments now operating in business districts would not be affected by the proposed new law which would apply only to future enterprises of this nature.

City Acquires Tax Titles on Twelve Parcels

Deeds for five improved parcels and seven unimproved parcels of real estate taken by the City of Newton for tax titles were filed at the Registry of Deeds by City Treasurer Clarence C. Colby on Thursday, August 22, the total amount of unpaid taxes on the same amounting to $983.23.

This was the first time in many years that the unpaid taxes totaled less than $1,000. City Treasurer Colby has compiled the following table of delinquent real estate taxes for which tax titles have been taken in the past five years:

James McEnaney, also a member of the Newton Post, was appointed an alternate by County Commander Frank Ralphs.

Newton Boy Winner In Fisher Body Guild Contest

Parsons

Peter Parsons, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Parsons of 169 Parker street, Newton Centre, a sophomore at the Newton High School, won the state junior award in the 1946 model car design competition of the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild. He received an award of $100 and was also awarded the New England Junior regional honors with the right to attend the National convention at Detroit to compete for university scholarships.

His 16 inch balsawood model was judged in the Massachusetts State competition on originality, practicality of design and workmanship. He has for a number of years been interested in automobile design and has some finished models. He is now working on a new design and hopes to enter next year's contest, with a view toward winning a scholarship to studying engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The Craftsman's Guild is an educational foundation sponsored by General Motors to encourage development of handwork and craftsmanship among teen age boys.

Draft Quota Is Six For September

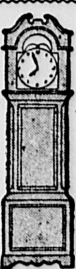

The quotas for September have been received this week by the three Newton draft boards from the State Selective Service Headquarters calling for six men to be sent from Newton during that month, three from Board 113, two from Board 112 and one from Board 114. The men will be inducted on Sept. 20.

Unless the quotas are filled with volunteers before September 10 calls will be sent out on that date.

Marriages and Housing in Newton

Many of our leading citizens have worked overtime on the subject of housing in 1946. The situation has been under high pressure. We all know the extreme difficulties as to materials and labor, but have we realized how marriages have been increasing?

In the country as a whole in the first three months of 1946, marriages increased 54 per cent over 1944 and 57 per cent over 1945 same period. In Newton marriage licenses for the first six months since 1936 run as follows:

1936—306		1941—503	64%
1937—364	19%	1942—591	93%
1938—328	7%	1943—381	24%
1939—329	7%	1944—379	24%
1940—342	12%	1945—358	17%
		1946—619	102%

While 1946 shows a gain of 102 per cent over 1936, it will be noted that a sharp increase of 261 or 73 per cent took place for this period in 1946 over 1945. This is the essential cause of our housing bottleneck. How could we take care of an increase of 261, not to mention new quarters for 619 couples in Newton in six months?

Greetings to "The Herald"

Whether we stood on the banks of the Charles, listened to the swish of the planes overhead, or read and perused the marvelous issue of the Boston Herald on Sunday, we are all conscious of the passage of a great event, the centenary of this great paper, the reflection of its extended organization, and the immeasurable influence it has wielded during 100 x 365 days.

In happy recognition, The Graphic, and doubtless very many of its readers, wish continued success to our highly respected neighbor and express the wish that able hands will long carry the torch which has so commendably shed light and reason among us these hundred years.

Letters to Editor

Dear PWC:

I have often wanted to express my gratitude for your enlightening comments on politics, both local and national. I think you are doing a great public service.

Your remarks on Party Platforms in the Graphic of August 15 is especially timely and important. It is high time both parties, not only the Republican Party, displayed some real intellectual fortitude. Our Representatatives appear to have gone so far in opposition to the leadership principle of such countries as Germany and Russia, that they no longer make any attempt to lead and in fact are actually away behind progressive thought among the voters. At the present time it would take a decade for them to catch up to the ideals of the average citizen.

After all, it is the membership of the organization which makes decisions on party policy. Voters comprise the membership of the organization. There's where the real failure lies, and that is the reason I think We of Massachusetts is making a splendid attempt to revive active interest in political affairs.

Again my thanks. Keep up the good work.

Cordially yours,
H. W. Chatfield.

THE ARMY HAS A GOOD JOB FOR YOU!

NON-COMMISSIONED GRADES NOW OFFERED TO FORMER ARMY OCCUPATIONAL SPECIALISTS

Good jobs in non-commissioned grades are being offered now by the Regular Army to qualified former servicemen.

Veterans discharged on or after May 12, 1945, who enlist or reenlist for 3 years may be enlisted in the non-commissioned grade for which qualified, provided this grade is not higher than that held at time of discharge, and provided that at least 6 months of former service was in one of 400 designated military occupational specialties in which enlistment is now desired.

Important, interesting jobs are open in hundreds of skills and trades in the Army, with splendid training and educational advantages! These are in addition to free food, housing, clothing, medical and dental care, low-cost insurance.

There's adventure, travel, education, a secure and profitable future in this vital, realistic profession. Get full details at your nearest Army Recruiting Station.

Highlights of Regular Army Enlistments

1. Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (1-year enlistments permitted for men now in the Army with 6 or more months of service.)
2. Enlistment age from 18 to 34 years inclusive (17 with parents' consent) except for men now in the Army, who may reenlist at any age, and former service men depending on length of service.
3. A reenlistment bonus of $50 for each year of active service since such bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service, provided reenlistment is within 3 months after last honorable discharge.
4. A furlough for men who reenlist within 20 days. Full details of other furlough privileges can be obtained from Recruiting Officers.
5. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.
6. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—increasing to three-quarters pay after 25 years' service. All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.
7. GI Bill of Rights benefits assured for men who enlist on or before October 5, 1946.
8. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater (of those still open) on 3-year enlistments.

NEW PAY SCALE

In Addition to Clothing, Food, Lodging, Medical and Dental Care.	Master Sergeant or First Sergeant	Starting Base Pay Per Month	20 Years' Service	30 Years' Service	MONTHLY INCOME AFTER: Service

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

A-Bomb

For several weeks I have been listening to a most gruesome serial on the radio entitled "The Five Horsemen." It appears to be designed to scare the daylights out of everybody who happens to be tuned in. You learn precisely what may be expected if and when the atom bomb is unleashed in this all very ghastly and horrible. It seems pertinent to inquire what the average citizen is supposed to do about it. All they told you in the eighth and closing broadcast was that you were supposed to get all possible details about the manufacture and use of this bomb and to keep constantly abreast of current developments.

Well, that's all right. However, it so happens that I am no scientist and much of the problem is completely over my head. Furthermore, just what can I, or any reader of this paper do about the matter? We will assume that the League of Women Voters in this state will send out questionnaires from time to time and will very likely ask our Congressman to keep on his toes. What else can be done? Granted that most of us would like to see international control of the bomb, precisely what can we do about it? If our State Department and our master-minds in Washington are unable to accomplish anything, what are we, the ordinary common people, expected to do?

In this connection, it was a great relief to hear Bill Cunningham say on the air last Sunday that a leading authority on international affairs was of the opinion that Russia would NOT be ready to wage a big war against us or any other first-class power for nearly twenty years.

Mr. Dalton Has an Idea

Cornelius Dalton of the Boston Traveler, another good columnist, comes up with a strong plea for a new system this fall in connection with the state campaign. He reminds us that the old-fashioned political rally is practically a thing of the past. The radio and the auto have changed the style of campaigning materially. It is probably true that the rallies of today change very few votes. The faithful members of each major party are herded to the various party rallies and exhorted to whoop it up for the regular slate of candidates. What happens to the large segment of independent voters in the meantime? Surely the politicians do not think that all these people are attending the rallies. Why not make an earnest effort to reach this huge group of voters? How can this be done? Very simply. All we have to do is to arrange for a series of rallies at which the major candidates of BOTH parties will speak. What is wrong with the idea? This would give people who are not unduly excited about either Governor Tobin or Lt. Governor Bradford a welcome opportunity to compare the two men. Incidentally, there would be another advantage to this procedure. Those voters who have, in recent years, blindly voted for anybody at all whose name happened to be Buckley or Hurley, would be given a chance to see what the alternative might be. In other words, an outstanding man like the former Senator Laurence Curtis or an experienced man in the office he seeks like Russell A. Wood of Cambridge, would have a fair chance to sell his wares to the voters. Curtis would make an excellent Treasurer of the Commonwealth and Wood would once more do a good job as Auditor. As matters now stand, all the Democrats have to do is to put up a man whose name is Hurley and a man whose name is Buckley and it is all over. Sounds silly, does it not? One might think that voters would take a little more interest in such matters. Unfortunately they do not. Maybe a series of joint rallies, during which candidates from both parties would share the platform, would be both illuminating and helpful. Why not give this a try?

Those who are sincerely interested in good government, regardless of party, will do well to watch the growth of We of Massachusetts. During the summer, when interest in politics is at a low ebb, you may not hear so very much about this up-and-coming organization. However, I happen to know that quite a few candidates for office, including Congressmen, Governor's Councilors, District Attorneys and others are showing their keen interest in this new group. Leave it to the regular pols. They know what's what and if THEY are interested in what goes on with We of Massachusetts perhaps the bulk of my readers may also find something of interest there.

Newton Graphic, August 28, 1891
It takes a very skillful person now to drive about Newton streets. If you wish to go from Eldridge street to Bennington street for instance, and have a horse that is afraid of the steam engine on Church street, it is only necessary to go round Newton Centre and you will have a lovely ride instead of the few rods it would be necessary to go were it not for the building of the sewer.

Many kinds of earth are removed from the sewers. On Elmwood street, Newton, for instance, after the crushed stone top is removed a filling of a few feet is found before the original soil is reached, marked by a black layer of loam. Then, in succession, are yellow earth, common sand of different shades and colors, and even sea sand all found on this street. Clay and gravel is found in large quantities, not to speak of ledges and water met with in nearly every street.

It is whispered that the Newton Street Railway Company is seriously considering the project of completing, practically, a circuit road from the Newton line to Watertown, thence via Main street to Waltham.

Local Woman on Committee for Convention

Mrs. William O'Halloran of Walnut street is general chairman for the Theta Phi Alpha national convention which will open at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, on September 3, and continue for four days.

Theta Phi Alpha is a national women's fraternity, founded at the University of Michigan in 1912. It has active chapters in leading colleges and universities throughout the country. Delegates from all chapters, together with national officers and members of alumnae clubs will attend to make this one of the largest and most interesting conventions ever held by this fraternity. The chapter at Boston University is to be hostess and has made arrangements to entertain the visitors with trips to historical shrines, boat rides, and a real New England clam bake. Since this will be the first Theta Phi Alpha convention held for a number of years, a highly important business session is anticipated.

The high point of the meeting will be the presence of his excellency, Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, archbishop of Boston.

Rotary Club

Joe Mitchell Chapple, world traveler, editor, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club on Monday, at the Brae Burn Country Club.

Mr. Chapple who was introduced by Vice-President Harold B. Gores spoke on "Prominent People I Have Met" telling of his work with Paul Harris, founder of Rotary, of meeting Madame Chian Kai Shek while she was a student at Wellesley College and every president of the United States since President McKinley.

Mr. Chapple who is an author, newspaper man, lecturer and magazine editor, was born in La Porte City, Iowa. He attended Cornell College from which he holds an M. A., and also has an L.L.D. from Lincoln Memorial University. He has written and published several books. In his talks he draws on his fund of homespun sentiment and his wide range of experiences the world over having had heart to heart chats with celebrities in 21 countries, and face to face interviews with nine presidents of the United States.

The meeting was conducted by Dr. Philip A. Enholm, president. Plans were made for an outing to be held at Camp Frank A. Day, on September 14.

As there will be no meeting of the Newton Club on Labor Day, September 2, the members will be guests of the Waltham Rotary Club on Wednesday, September 4, when Judge Elijah Adlow of the Boston Municipal Court will be the speaker.

Oldest Dog in America: Is It to Be Found Here?

In the hope that it may be found in this locality the Newton Graphic has been asked to aid in the Gaines Dog Research Center's search for the oldest dog in America.

The dog is wanted so that it—and its owner or owners can be duly honored during the forthcoming observance of National Dog Week, September 22 to 28. Persons owning or knowing of extremely aged dogs are urged to send complete data and pictures immediately to Harry Miller, executive secretary, Gaines Dog Research Center, 280 Park Avenue, New York 17, N. Y. In the case of a purebred, a copy of the registration papers should accompany the communication, while in the case of a crossbreed, an affidavit from the owner accompanied by sworn statements from persons acquainted with the dog since birth should be sent. The final selection will not be made until the leading candidates have been seen and investigated, according to Mr. Miller, who adds that any documentary papers submitted will be returned after National Dog Week is over.

Newton Schools Reopen Sept. 9

The opening day for all public schools in Newton has been set for Monday, September 9, 1946.

For pupils transferring from private schools to the tenth grade of the Newton High School placement tests will be given on Thursday, September 5, at 8:30 a.m. Registration for these tests should be made on Tuesday, September 3, on Wednesday, September 4, in the Guidance Office at the high school. Pupils are requested to bring their ninth grade school records. Other pupils transferring from schools outside of Newton should register for admission to grades ten, eleven, or twelve on September 3, 4, 5, or 6 in the Guidance Office. Appointments for conferences regarding registration may be made with Miss Riley, Director of Student Personnel, by telephoning Lasell 6267.

X-Ray Service to Be Available for Employees Here

Plans have been completed for a chest x-ray service which will be offered to employees in five of the larger industries in this city, the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association announced today.

The general managers of these five firms have applied to the Massachusetts Department of Public Health for Industrial X-Ray Service and Dr. David Zacks, director of clinics, has set aside five days, starting on March 24, 1947, for the X-raymobile to come to Newton.

The co-operating firms are Doelcam, Inc., Newton and West Newton; The Gamewell Company, Newton Upper Falls; the Sherman Paper Products Corporation, Newton Upper Falls, and the Ucinite Company, Newton, and the Vanta Company, Newton.

As a part of a nation-wide fight to wipe out tuberculosis, the industrial x-ray program is sponsored by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, the Newton Health Department, the Industrial Hygiene Committee of the Newton Community Council, and the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Daly Post V.F.W.

At the meeting of Sgt. Eugene H. Daley Post, V.F.W., held in the War Memorial Building, Newton Centre on Monday night, plans were completed for the post to attend the National Encampment to be held in Boston Sept. 1 through Sept. 6. Timothy Murphy, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the National Encampment Corporation, outlined the program for the convention.

Members of the Lt. Stanton M. Amesbury Post of Auburndale, under the direction of Commander Donald Hill, were guests at the meeting. Both posts will march with the Sixth Division in the Encampment parade on Wednesday, with the Auburndale group as guests of the Daley Post, and both posts will sponsor the Girls' Drill Team of Our Lady's Church, Newton, in the parade.

Under the chairmanship of Past Commander Charles H. Marden, the Daley Post will assist in lining up the various drum and bugle corps for the national competition to be held at the Harvard Stadium on Monday and Tuesday.

Fifteen new members were admitted to the Daley Post at Monday night's meeting.

Moving pictures of the invasion of Guam and Tarawa, the liberation of Paris and the meeting of the Big Three at Tehran were shown by Commander Dinsmore.

At the meeting on Monday, September 23, Samuel I. Wilson, service officer for the Department of Massachusetts, will discuss veterans' problems and rights.

The new sales course at the Newton High School, also the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to be held on Wednesday, October 23.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Jane—Oh dear, look what's happened! That pint of cream I bought Monday has turned sour. Now what am I going to do?

Aunt Sally—Well, it won't be so good for your peach short-cake, but I know lots of ways to use sour cream.

Jane—Oh, good. I'll keep it.

Aunt Sally—By all means. Haven't you ever used sour cream on vegetable salads? It's delicious with cucumbers, radishes and tomatoes.

Jane—Mmm, that does sound tasty. I suppose it will help me to save on fats and oils which are so hard to get.

Aunt Sally—I also have a recipe for a sour cream dressing that is just heavenly on chilled fruit salad.

Jane—I'll call you up tonight and get it from you. There's so much delicious fresh fruit available now that I'd love to have a salad dressing to use with it.

Aunt Sally's Sour Cream Dressing

Use 2 whole eggs or 4 egg yolks, 1/4 cup vinegar, 1 cup sour cream, 1/2 tablespoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon mustard, 1/8 teaspoon paprika. Beat the eggs and add the other ingredients. Mix thoroughly. Cook in a double boiler and stir constantly until the mixture thickens. Chill before serving on chilled fruit.

State Archery Assoc. Holds Tournament

The eleventh annual Massachusetts State Archery Association tournament held on the 24th and 25th at the State College in Amherst attracted over one hundred archers from clubs in Massachusetts, as well as many visitors from other states. On Saturday the events included 18 holes of archery golf, Clout and American Rounds for men and women. The championship events came on Sunday, with York and American for men, a National and Columbia for women.

The championship titles are now held by two Springfield people, Mrs. Lillian Waterman and Lew Morse.

Miss Dorothy Stevens of the Newton Archers captured the spotlight when with spectacular shooting she came up on Sunday afternoon to tie the leading contestant in the Columbia Round, but Mrs. Waterman maintained the lead with the total in the combined National and Columbia.

In the specialty event of Clout, 36 arrows shot from a distance of 120 yards at a horizontal target, Mrs. Blanche Simonds of The Newton Archers, took third place. Bert Harrison of the Newton club also took third place in a group of men who shot the Clout at 160 yards.

New Silvertowns "Meet Taxi Requirements"

"Rain or shine, year in and out, 24 hours of the day, taxis serve the public," says Mr. Thomas A. Ballantine, President of Yellow Cab, Louisville, Ky. "Safety, dependability, and economy are the watchwords of successful taxi operation. B.F. Goodrich Silvertowns meet these requirements."

For Safety, Economy, and Mileage choose the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

One of the taxi fleets that tested the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown before it was offered for public sale was Yellow Cab, Louisville, Ky. In addition, it was tested on police cars and the B.F. Goodrich test fleet over millions of miles in all kinds of weather under severest conditions, and even at high speeds.

All these tests supported Mr. Ballantine's findings that: "... their wider, flatter tread gives our cabs better traction and surer, safer stopping. The stronger cord body means fewer interruptions and service stoppages. And in actual mileage, tests on our fleet prove they OUTWEAR PREWAR TIRES. Because Silvertown tires cover more ground, our cabs can, too, without interruption."

We know you'll want these tires for your car. So to be on the safe side, see us today.

Salvation Army Arranges Vacation For 'Teen Age Boys

Three hundred and seventy-eight 'teen age boys, who work during the summer, are enjoying a special vacation period before school starts, at Camp Wonderland, The Salvation Army fresh air camp at Lake Massapoag, Sharon, thanks to the Charles Hayden Foundation of which J. Willard Hayden is president. Chartered buses or autos took the boys to the camp on Tuesday, August 20, and will return them to their respective cities at the end of the month.

The 19 youth welfare groups who selected the boys are: The Salvation Army South End Boys' Club (Memorial to Charles Hayden), the Army's Family Service Center and the Overseer of Public Welfare, Aid to Dependent Children, all of Boston, the Goodwill Neighborhood House, East Boston, the Roxbury Presbyterian Church, the North Brighton Community Center, Dorchester House, the Cambridge Camping Association and Salvation Army Neighborhood Centers in Hyde Park, East Boston, Medford, Somerville and Waltham. The Office of the Board of Public Welfare in Medway, the Salvation Army Corps in Providence, New Bedford, Quincy and Fitchburg and The Salvation Army Norton Service Fund Committee also assisted in the selection.

—Another use of DDT—riding swine of heavy infestations of lice—has been found by USDA research veterinarians conducting experiments under farm conditions. A single application of DDT—both spray and dip—proved effective.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Roley - MacBurnie

A recent wedding of Newton interest, which took place in Augusta, Maine, was that of Miss Geraldine MacBurnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilfred MacBurnie of Augusta, and Lt. Ray DeWitt Roley, Jr., U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray DeWitt Roley of 32 Belmont street, Newton. The ceremony was performed in the Winthrop Street Universalist Church by the Rev. Douglas H. Robbins and a reception followed in the church parlors.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and net. A tiara of orange blossoms held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli. Mrs. Merton S. Maloon of Brownville Junction, Maine, was the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Helen Sullivan of Augusta and Miss Marjorie McCubrey of Portland. Mrs. Maloon wore yellow marquisette, a matching shoulder-length veil, and carried blue gladioli while the bridesmaids wore gowns of blue lace and net and carried yellow gladioli.

Leon G. White, Jr., of Bangor was the best man and the ushers were Howard Alvin Wood, of Augusta and Clyde Norman Manwell of Winthrop.

The bride was graduated from the University of Maine with the class of 1945. Lt. Roley will re-enter the University of Maine after serving with the U. S. Infantry in the European theatre for 18 months. After September 1st, Lt. and Mrs. Roley will live in Bangor, Maine.

ELIZABETH RHIND

Lee - Rhind

Miss Elizabeth Rhind, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert L. Rhind of Newtonville, was married on August 10 to Mr. Kenneth Walker Lee, son of Mr. Maurice Lee of Providence, Rhode Island, and Mrs. Hazel Lee of Palm Beach, Florida in a candlelight service at St. John's Episcopal Church in Newtonville.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white embroidered tulle gown with a fingertip veil falling from her Juliet cap of pearls, and carried a bouquet of larkspur, sweet peas, and baby's breath. Her cousin, Mrs. John Dorsey of Wellesley was the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Jeanne Caswell and Miss Barbara Lounsbury of Newtonville, and Miss Mary Louise Perry of Arlington. Mrs. Dorsey's dress was a deep rose linen, while the bridesmaids wore aqua linen dresses and all carried shaded pink colonial bouquets. Mrs. Rhind, mother of the bride, wore a white flowered crepe gown.

Robert F. Lovett of Newton Centre was best man, and the ushers were Robert A. Moore of Waban, David W. Douglas of Weymouth, and Robert D. Muir of Concord, New Hampshire.

The bride attended Lasell Junior College, and the bridegroom attended Northeastern University.

Buswell - Smith

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. W. Bruce Smith, of Arlington, of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mae Winifred Smith to Francis Lincoln Buswell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Buswell of Mansfield, formerly of Newton. The ceremony was performed in the rectory of St. Agnes' Church, Arlington and a reception followed in the garden at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride wore a gown of white dotted Swiss organza with a Peter Pan collar, her shoulder-length tulle veil falling from a crown of the same material, and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and sweet peas. A pink nylon off-the-shoulder gown was worn by the maid of honor, Miss June Maynard of Lawrence, cousin of the bride. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of mixed flowers. Paul Buswell was the best man for his brother.

Mr. Buswell, a graduate of Tilton Academy, served in the European theatre with the Army Air Forces. Following a trip through the White Mountains and Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Buswell will live in Medford.

Miss Gertrude Nolan of Roxbury became the bride of James Killoran of Dorchester on Saturday, and a wedding reception took place in the Grand Ballroom. A wedding reception was held in the Ballroom on Saturday following the marriage of Miss Lillian Ford of Milton to William L. Fickett of Quincy.

The Gold room was the scene of a wedding reception on Saturday following the marriage of Miss Eileen Cooney to William M. Ellingwood, both of Brookline. Following the marriage of Miss Helen Stokinger of Roxbury and Robert S. Butters of New Jersey on Saturday a wedding reception was held in the Brookline room. The Blue room was the background for a wedding reception on Saturday given Miss Mary Kelleher of Newton Centre and William Gerrity of Newtonville, following their wedding.

At a 4:30 o'clock ceremony in the Second Church of Newton, West Newton, on Saturday, Miss Ruth Allen Smith, daughter of Mr. Rutherford Endicott Smith of 26 Prentice road, Newton Centre, and the late Mrs. Smith, became the bride of John Andrew Buzzard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guy Buzzard of Charleston, Illinois. Dr. Mellyar H. Lichliter performed the ceremony and a reception followed at Brae Burn Country Club.

The bride wore an early American gown of slipper satin and carried a bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids. Her room rosepoint lace with seed pearls outlining the rose motif formed the cap of the French illusion veil. The matron of honor was Mrs. Endicott Smith, of Cambridge, sister-in-law of the bride. The bridesmaids were Mrs. James C. Smith of Norfolk, Virginia, Mrs. Donald G. Colony of Lexington, Mrs. Theodore C. Haffenreffer, Jr., of Newton Centre, Mrs. Holbrook Proctor and Miss Bettie Lundberg, both of Boston. The attendants all wore white jersey gowns, matching mitts and Directorate bonnets. The honor attendant's was of white ostrich tips tied with emerald velvet ribbon and the bridesmaids' were of emerald ostrich tips. They carried white lilies tied with emerald velvet.

Robert G. Buzzard, president of the Eastern Illinois State Teachers College, was the best man for his son while the ushers included the groom's brother, Robert Douglas Buzzard, Endicott Smith, brother of the bride, Donald G. Colony, Theodore C. Haffenreffer, Jr., Lt.-Cmdr. James C. Smith and Capt. Donald B. Ottsen, the latter of Boston.

The bride is a graduate of Dana Hall and also attended Bradford Junior College and the Long School of Music. Mr. Buzzard was graduated from the University of Iowa, where he was a member of Delta Tau Delta. A captain in the Marine Corps Reserve, he served as a fighter pilot in the Pacific area. Mr. and Mrs. Buzzard will make their home in Milton.

Taylor - Parsons

Miss Barbara Jeanne Parsons, daughter of Mrs. Alfreda Davis of 22 Lewis street, Newton, and the late Mr. Eugene H. Parsons, was married recently to Howard James Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Taylor of 3 Berkshire road, Newtonville.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, George E. Parsons and a reception followed at the Hotel Puritan, Boston. Miss Vichi Vitelli, of Newtonville, was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Daley of Cohasset, and Miss Ruth McKenney of Newton. Arthur Taylor, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man and the ushers were Samuel H. Guilford, of Newtonville, and John F. Cooper, of East Milton.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and tulle and her net veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and stephanotis. The maid of honor wore white dotted Swiss and carried white gladioli and yellow carnations, while the bridesmaids, in similar gowns, carried pink carnations and blue delphinium. The bride's mother wore mauve pink crepe and the bridegroom's mother wore ice blue.

Mrs. Taylor is attending the School of Practical Arts, Boston. Mr. Taylor, a veteran of World War II, was graduated from Tufts College and attended Temple University. The couple left on a wedding trip to Canada.

Miss Campbell is a graduate of the Kathleen Dell School. Mr. O'Toole, formerly a lieutenant in the Naval Reserve, is a graduate of Fordham Preparatory School and Fordham University. He and Miss Campbell plan a fall wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. John Elbridge Gale of 775 Commonwealth avenue, Newton Centre, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Gale to Captain Sidney Clyde Hill, USAF, son of Mrs. George Hill of Fort Worth, Texas, and the late Mr. Hill.

Miss Gale was graduated from Dana Hall and from Smith College, class of 1943. Capt. Hill attended Texas Wesleyan University and Texas A. and M., class of 1940. At present he is attached to the Strategic Air Command, Bowling Field, Washington, D. C. having returned from active duty in the CBI theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Erion L. Jones of 488 Watertown street, Newtonville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Ann Jones to William L. Meissner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Meissner of Norwood.

Miss Jones was recently released from the Army Nurse Corps.

Health Reminders For Home Canners

Home canners should put up as much food as possible this year. If you will can more food at home now, you will help to accomplish these aims:

1. To improve your family's diet.
2. To increase the world's food supply.
3. To keep food prices at reasonable levels.

Home canned foods are appetizing, nutritious and safe if they are prepared properly, but they can be dangerous if carelessly or improperly processed. Each year there are cases of food poisoning.

One of the most important things for the home canner to remember is that meat, poultry, and all vegetables except tomatoes should be canned only by the pressure cooker method. The bacteria responsible for botulism poisoning can be killed only by the pressure cooker method in these foods, and it is practically impossible to can them safely at home by any other means.

Another important point to remember is that the boiling water bath method should be used for tomatoes and fruits. The open-kettle and oven canning methods are considered unsafe for vegetables and less than satisfactory for fruits.

Every home canner should study thoroughly, and follow carefully, the methods recommended in a good book or bulletin on the subject. Such bulletins can be obtained at small cost, or free, from the Newton Nutrition Center, your county agent, or the State or U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Mrs. Laura Benedict of Chestnut Hill and Duxbury announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Barbara Benedict to Chandler Gifford, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Gifford of Cambridge.

Miss Benedict, daughter of Dr. Edward Benedict of Boston, was graduated in 1944 from the Winsor School and, since then has been attending Mills College, Oakland, California. She is a member of the Junior League.

Mr. Gifford is a graduate of the Belmont Hill School. Before entering the service, he attended Trinity College, class of 1945. He left college in 1942 to enter the Army, and served with the field artillery both here and in Europe. He plans to return to Trinity College, this fall, where he is a member of St. Anthony Hall.

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Brady of Baltimore, Maryland, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Virginia McCormick Brady to Dr. Evan Calkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor Calkins of 49 Farlow road, Newton.

Miss Brady, a member of the Baltimore Junior League, was graduated from Bryn Mawr and attended Vassar for one year and was graduated in 1945 from the University of Michigan. She is now a second year student at Johns Hopkins Medical School.

Dr. Calkins, a graduate of Milton Academy and Harvard College, class of 1943, received his M.D. degree from Harvard Medical School in 1945. He served a 12-months internship in the Osler Medical Service of Johns Hopkins and is now in active service as a first lieutenant in the U. S. Army Medical Corps.

Mrs. Arthur E. Spence of Berkeley, California, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Carolyn Borden Spence of San Francisco, formerly of Newtonville, to Charles Wesley Hamm of San Francisco. Miss Spence is the daughter of the late Mr. Anthony E. Spence. Mr. Hamm is the son of Mrs. Edward Moody of San Francisco and Mr. Leo W. Hamm of St. Louis, Mo.

The engagement of Miss Anna Goodrich Horton of Newtonville to John Newbert of Augusta, Maine is announced by her brother, Mr. Stanley E. Horton Jr., of Newtonville and Eastham.

Miss Horton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Horton of Newtonville, is a graduate of Smith College, and has taught in Newton and Philadelphia, and is now teacher-principal of the Leonard School in Annisquam, Mass. Mr. Newbert is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Newbert of Augusta, Maine, where he is engaged in business.

Recent Births

Mr. and Mrs. Roland F. Pease, Jr., (Polly Saltonstall) announce the birth of a second child, Roland Folsom Pease, 3d, on August 20 in New York City.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Saltonstall of Sherborn and Mr. and Mrs. Roland F. Pease of Waban. Great-grandparents are Mrs. Richard M. Saltonstall of Chestnut Hill, Mrs. George C. Hallett of Arlington and Mr. W. B. Rogers of Grand Junction, Tennessee.

The real name of the noted American humorist, who was known as "Josh Billings," was Henry Wheeler Shaw.

CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

In The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, a Lesson-Sermon will be read on Sunday, September 1, on the subject "Christ Jesus."

The Golden Text, "The Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: that all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father" is from John (5:22,23).

Other Scriptural selections will include: "He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not" (Isaiah 53:3).

Also included in the Lesson-Sermon will be the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus taught the way of Life by demonstration, that we may understand how this divine Principle heals the sick, casts out error, and triumphs over death" (p. 25).

HELP WANTED

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

Due to a recent explosion from liquefied gas at a summer resort a few facts regarding that type of fuel is very timely. For a number of years liquefied petroleum gases have been used as fuel in place of manufactured or natural gas, in districts outside the reach of city gas mains. A common arrangement has been the use of portable cylinders of the liquefied gas, kept in a cabinet outside the building. These are refilled or replaced by full ones at intervals as required.

Liquefied petroleum gases consist principally of butane or propane or a mixture of the two gases. They are obtained from petroleum and natural gas wells. Propane and butane are much more volatile than gasoline and remain a liquid only while kept under pressure. The hazard of these products in the gaseous state is similar to that of natural or manufactured gas, somewhat increased by the fact that they are much heavier. As they are heavier than air they have a tendency to collect in low spots and to diffuse slowly, requiring careful attention to ventilation of rooms where they may collect. In the liquid state the hazard is somewhat greater than that of gasoline because of the pressure under which they are stored.

The vapor pressures of the commercial products in pounds per square inch gauge at several temperatures are given below: Commercial butane 10 lbs. at 30 degrees F., 35 lbs. at 70 degrees F., 65 lbs. at 100 degrees F. Mixture—60% Butane—40% Propane, 17 lbs. at 30 degrees F., 65 lbs. at 70 degrees F., 113 lbs. at 100 degrees F. Commercial Propane, 55 lbs. at 30 degrees F., 100 lbs. at 70 degrees F., 195 lbs. at 100 degrees F.

The important features in the safeguarding of storage tanks of liquefied petroleum gases are (1) the construction of the container, (2) its installation, and (3) safety devices for the relief of internal pressure.

The storage tanks are preferably installed above ground to permit thorough and regular inspection of the tank and connections and to prevent corrosion which might occur if buried.

Safety devices for the relief of excessive internal pressure in the tanks are essential. As shown by the above table, the vapor pressure of the product increases as the temperature increases. It is evident therefore, that if a tank is heated by exposure fire the pressure will dangerously increase.

The required sizes of safety relief devices, together with further details of the necessary provisions for safeguarding the installations, are contained in the Regulations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters for Liquefied Petroleum Gases. The household systems with portable containers are covered by the Regulations for Compressed Gas Systems, other than Acetylene, for Lighting and Heating. Either of these pamphlets may be obtained on request from the National Board of Fire Underwriters, 85 John Street, New York, N. Y.

Never look for any kind of a gas leak with an exposed flame. The vapors travel with the air currents, if the mixture is right it will ignite and possibly an explosion will follow.

Should a leak occur in the building, first shut off the supply tanks, ventilate the building thoroughly, contact someone who is familiar with that type of installation and have them thoroughly inspect it. Extinguish all open flames in the locality till fixed. Do not take unnecessary chances.

Chagnon Named Co-Chairman for Nurses Nat'l Memorial Campaign

Martin E. Adamo, New England chairman for the National Memorial campaign to be conducted September 16 through October 16, announced yesterday that Wilfred Chagnon has been appointed co-chairman for Massachusetts. Mr. Chagnon is a former head of the Massachusetts Pharmaceutical Association and is a director of the Newton National Bank.

At the same time Chairman Adamo announced that naming of Robert J. Evans of Brookline as executive director of the campaign and said that headquarters for the drive will at once be opened in a vacant store building 209 Washington street near Court street. Chairman Adamo's office is in the Hotel Statler.

Invitations to the leading men and women of the Commonwealth have been sent out asking them to actively participate in this drive to raise funds for the establishment of a practical and lasting memorial to the nurses and medical women of World War II. Mrs. Harry S. Truman, wife of the President of the United States, is Honorary Chairman for the national drive while in Massachusetts, Governor Maurice J. Tobin has been named Honorary Chairman for this area.

The project is endorsed by the Surgeon General of the United States Army and Navy and is sponsored by a large group of prominent men and women whose names are known throughout the nation. The Memorial has been incorporated in the District of Columbia making the property tax free and donations tax exempt. The quota for Massachusetts has been placed at $250,000. All qualified women in the medical services will be eligible for membership in the Memorial and the building itself will be so well endowed that it will stand as a practical permanent tribute. It will include a library, living rooms, public assembly rooms and there will be sleeping accommodations for more than 300 persons. The building will be equipped as a service club and temporary residence as well as a social center for Service Nurses.

Of the 100,000 women in the medical service it is expected that at least one half will be come non resident members. Some of the older nurses will make the club their permanent residence. Mrs. Norman T. Kirk, wife of the Surgeon General of the United States Army, was herself a nurse in the First World War and she has been one of the prime movers in this establishing of a fund to care for the Nurses of this War.

All funds above the cost of the building will go into a permanent endowment fund for the purpose of making the project entirely self sustaining.

Mrs. Kirk is chairman of the Board of Trustees while Miss Rosalind Russell noted film star is Honorary Chairman and Mr. Arthur H. Johnson is National Chairman. Major General Norman T. Kirk and Vice Admiral Ross T. McIntire appear as endorsers of the project along with scores of other notables of the

Wins Ladies' Golf Championship At Woodland

Mrs. Kate Smith of 15 Dale street, Newtonville was the winner in the Ladies' Golf Championship at the Woodland Golf Club this week. Her opponent in the finals was Fay Redfield. Mrs. Smith played the last nine in two over women's par to win a decisive victory. She also was the winner of the 1933 and 1944 championships.

Army, the Navy and the Marines.

Placement Tests for Pupils of Warren Jr. High School District

Placement tests will be given to children of Grades 7, 8, and 9 living in the Warren Junior High School district, who are new to the Newton School system, at the Warren Junior High School on Friday morning, September 6, beginning at 8:45 o'clock. This will include children who have moved into Newton during the summer and children from grades who are planning to enter Warren Junior High School from parochial schools and private schools.

Pupils who report to the School for the placement tests are asked to bring transfer and report cards with them. Any other material which may be helpful to the school in making placements should also be brought at this time.

Make-up tests for incomplete work for regular Warren pupils will also be given on Friday morning, September 6, at 8:45. The schedule will be as follows:

English—9:00 to 10:00
Mathematics—10:15 to 11:15
Social Studies—11:30 to 12:30
Pupils of Warren who are making up tests in other subjects will also report at 8:45 o'clock on Friday morning, September 6, 1946.

The office will be open for registration of new pupils from Tuesday, September 3, through Friday, September 6, from 9 to 12 noon and from 1 to 4 p. m.

School will open Monday morning, September 9, at 8:30 for pupils as follows:
Junior I (Grade 7)—8:30 to
